

July 19th, 1937

My dear Sam:

I am wondering where you are and what you are doing these vacation days, as I have not yet heard from you. I expect there is a letter on the way.

Harry sent me $ 2,000 again this month. It gave me a very pleasant surprise. I am having the luxury of paying up my bills.

Next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday the Oregon Trail pageant takes place. The Museum is to be open from 2 to 5 p.m. on each of those days and also on Sunday. It is not very convenient for us, as Mr Lewis in the repair department has started to get ready to plaster those two rooms-the Japanese print room and Japanese lacquer room, which have had such dirty walls.

In spite of the monks cloth having been removed, as well as as the wood work, we are putting up the Elizabeth Keith prints. We are also putting the Chinese pewter in a case and our Japanese, Korean, and Mongolian jewelry in a table case.

There is a report that 3000 Mormons are coming from Salt Lake to see the show. However we will be ready for them.

The weather is very nice and comfortable here, much more comfortable for me than the heat of the East in the summer.

Yours very lovingly,

July 18th, 1937

My dear Sam:

I am wondering where you are and what you are doing these vacation days, as I have not yet heard from you. I expect there is a letter on the way.

Harry sent me $2,000 again this month. It gave me a very pleasant surprise. I am having the luxury of paying up my bills. Next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday the Oregon Trail pageant takes place. The Museum is to be open from 2 to 5 p.m. on each of those days and also on Sunday. It is not very convenient for us, as Mr Lewis in the repair department has started to get ready to plaster those two rooms—the Japanese print room and Japanese lacquer room, which have had such dirty walls.

In spite of the monks cloth having been removed, as well as as the work, we are putting up the Elizabeth Keith prints. We are also putting the Chinese powder in a case and our Japanese, Korean, and Mongolian jewelry in a table case.

There is a report that 3000 Mormons are coming from Salt Lake to see the show. However we will be ready for them.

The weather is very nice and comfortable here, much more comfortable for me than the heat of the East in the summer.

Yours very lovingly,