My Dear Mrs. Warner,

By separate parcel
I am sending you
two photographs, one is of myself, my wife and my little girl, the other one is my little girl all by herself.

I should have liked to see you

off tomorrow, but the doctor has ordered
me to keep in doors
for a few days owing to a very bad cold
I caught the other day, so I can only say good-bye now and wish you a pleasant
journey. Yours sincerely Chew Hoe Foo.
