Mrs. G. B. Warner,
The Pioneer Inn,
Tucson, Arizona.

My Dear Mrs. Warner:

At the Board meeting yesterday I asked whether the Art Building matter was to come up, and Dr. Hall stated that they had arrived at a solution satisfactory to all concerned. I would like to know whether this is your opinion. I am very anxious that this should be made satisfactory to you.

I talked with my friend Mrs. Lee Hoffman in Portland. She is very well informed on museums and is as you know interested in the fine arts. She is sure you are entirely right in your suggestions about the atmospheric conditions.

Very sincerely yours,

CONNELIA MARVIN PIERCE, Member
Oregon State Board of Higher Education.
