Dear Mrs. Warner,

Thank you for your affectionate letter which I received a few weeks ago. Since I was occupied with the preparation of my thesis and experimental work, I was unable to attend to any correspondence. Please pardon me.

On the 1st instant my final exam came off. I passed it. Within a week or so, I shall be starting for home.

Thank you for all your kind acts to me during my stay at Eugene. I shall send you the photo as soon as I am ready to pack up my trunk. At present I am making a few more determinations on sea water samples.

Wishing you a very Merry Xmas and a Prosperous New Year. With warmest regards to self, Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Potter.

Very gratefully yours,

D. Devaputra

Dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 29th inst. in relation to the purchase of the property of the late John Smith, deceased, and in reply to inform you that the same has been referred to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am sorry to hear that you are unable to pay the balance of the purchase money, and I regret that I am unable to advance you the same. I am, however, glad to hear that you are still in the city, and I trust that you will be able to settle the account in due season. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. H. Smith
