

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

August 13, 1934.

To the Diplomatic and Consular Officers of the United States of America.

Sirs:

At the instance of the Honorable C.
Eascon Sloop, Secretary to the President,
I take pleasure in introducing to you
Mrs. Marray Warner (Gertrude Bass Warner)
of Eugene, Oregon, who is about to proceed abroad.

I cordially bespeak for Mrs. Warner such courtesies and assistance as you may be able to render, consistently with your official duties.

I am, Sirs,

Your obedient servant,

Acting Secretary of State.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

August 12, 1954

To the

Diplomatic and Consular Officers

of the United States of America

Sirs:

At the instance of the Honorable G.
James Hays, Secretary to the President,
I take pleasure in introducing to you
Mr. Murray Brown (attached pass stamp)
of Eugene, Oregon, who is about to proceed
abroad.

I cordially request for Mr. Brown
such courtesies and assistance as you may be able to render, particularly with regard official notes.

I am, Sirs,

Your obedient servant,

Acting Secretary of State

Department of State, U. S. A. Letter of Introduction

To the Diplomatic and Consular Officers of the United States of America.

Introducing: Mrs. Murray Warner.

1924

