

June 18th, 1932.

Mr. Paul C. Butcher,
Trust Department,
Continental Illinois Bank,
231 South LaSalle Street,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Butcher:

I entirely approve of the purchase of the lot in Belmont located next to that of my son, Sam Bass Warner, for the sum of thirteen thousand dollars.

This lot is exceptionally well located. It forms part of an extended hill and, besides, it rises considerably above the level of the street, Howell's Road, and gives a fine view of the city of Boston in the distance below. It has old apple trees sprinkled over it. The houses in its neighborhood are desirable and it is very excellent residence property.

Thanking you for the prompt way that you have responded to this request of mine,

Sincerely yours,

Gertrude Bass Warner,
Co-Trustee

June 1928, 1928.

Mr. Earl G. Wheeler,
Trust Department,
Continental Illinois Bank,
231 South LaSalle Street,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Wheeler:

I entirely approve of the purchase of the lot in Belmont located next to that of my son, Earl Earl for the sum of thirteen thousand dollars.

This lot is exceptionally well located. It covers part of an extended hill and, besides, it rises considerably above the level of the street. Howell's Road, and gives a fine view of the city of Boston in the distance. It has old apple trees sprinkled over it. The house in its neighborhood is desirable and it is very excellent real estate property.

Thanking you for the prompt way that you have responded to this request of mine,

Sincerely yours,

Gertrude Mae Wheeler,
Co-Trustee

