Dear Mrs. Warner:

We have received your check in our favor drawn on The Northern Trust Company, of Chicago, for $7.50 in payment of the rental on your safe deposit box for which we recently charged your account, together with our advice to you of the charge.

As the box rental has been taken care of by the charge made against your account, we are today crediting your account with the amount of the check you sent us, $7.50, as per attached duplicate deposit slip.

Thanking you, and with best regards, we are

Yours truly,

David G. Miller
