Mr. Harry C. Edmonds
22 E. Jackson Blvd.
Chicago

Dear Harry:

My understanding is that subject to future exigencies we decided upon the following program for payments to my mother out of the estate of Clara J. Bass:

June 15th	$	3,000.
July 15th		2,000.
August 15th		1,000.
September 15th		1,000.
October 15th		1,000.
November 15th		1,000.
December 15th		1,000.
		10,000.

In addition my mother will receive in August $1,000 and the same amount in some later month from the 1938 trust. Due to the bad condition of the trust you have just taken over from the Continental, it will make no disbursements this year.

My mother says that she appreciates the necessity of setting up reserves, but would prefer to have you tend to that matter for her. She further desires that you pay into her account the same amount each and every month. She thinks that $1200. on each of the seven dates given above will be sufficient for her needs and for those of George. If you adopt that policy, it will result in your depositing to my mother's account $8,400. during the remainder of this year and in accumulating a reserve of $2,600. toward taxes and my expenses in paying up George's debts.

Sincerely yours,

Sam Bass Warner

Dear Harry:

My understanding is that subject to future agreements we decided upon the following program for payments to of either out of the estate of Clara J. Woodruff.

$ 2,000.	June 1938
1,000.	July 1938
1,000.	August 1938
1,000.	September 1938
1,000.	October 1938
1,000.	November 1938
1,000.	December 1938
10,000.

In addition my mother will receive in salary $1,000.00 and the same amount in some later months from the 1938 trust. Due to the bad condition of the trust you have just taken over from the Government, it will take no disbursements this year.

My mother says that she appreciates the necessity of setting up reserves, but would prefer to have you look to that matter for her. She further desires that you pay into her account the same amount each and every month. She thinks that $1000.00 on each of the
