Dear Gertrude:

Sam and I got slightly mixed on the matter of that distribution. I paid the $5000. into your account just the day before I received Sam's letter stating the necessity for the money. Thereupon I requested Perkins to send Sam $2000. which he did. Sam is making the payments on your income tax, and he has advised me that if there is a balance over the $2000. he will send it back for redeposit.

I spent all day Saturday with Mr. Caulfield looking at the various properties in your Estate, and at a great many of the mortgages. I hope very shortly to have a pretty fair knowledge of all these properties and then Sam and I can agree on a policy for the future.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Murray Brown,
Hotel Hamilton,
Broadway at Balmain,
Portland, Oregon.

Dear Madam:

Sam and I got slightly mixed on the matter of this distribution. I paid the $2000. last year account just the day before I received Sam's letter stating the necessity for the money. Therefore I re-quested Murray to send me $2000. which he did. Sam is making the payments on your interest and he has advised me that he owes a balance over the $2000. He will send it back for repayment.

I spent all day Saturday with Mr. Goodfriend looking at the various properties in your name and at a great many of the mortgages. I have very shortly to have a pretty fair knowledge of all these properties and then Sam and I can agree on a policy for the future.

Sincerely yours,

M. C. Edmonds
