Dear Mrs. Warner:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of yours of July 28th and check will be mailed Miss Breaux each month as stated in the letter. I am quite well acquainted with Miss Breaux and have known her in connection with Mrs. Bass for quite a few years.

I had hoped that last week would see me in Peterboro for a day or two, but circumstances here made it impossible. I trust you are having pleasant weather and are not being bothered by extreme heat such as we are having here.

Very sincerely yours,

A. Edmund.
