Dear Mrs Warner:-

I have your letter of Dec 10th and I can assure you that both Mrs Edmund and I enjoy "The Cobble" very much. I always liked it and am anticipating enjoying it when I can see it very frequently. The subject as well as the painting always interested me. I don't know if you remember the so-called sun porch at my house. It was finished in red tapestry brick but now it has been done over in white and on its walls stoned out "The Cobble" and the large clock. It is really a bully room.

The other pictures, mirrors, etc have been sent to Nancy Foster Hall and I have a very nice ~~advised~~ endowment from Mr Hetchins.

I have very frequent letters from both Robert and Sam. Everything seems well with both of them.
We have a lot of things to accomplish before
