Dear Mrs Warner:

As there has apparently been much delay in our receiving your check of March 12th, we are hastening this note to you to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for your interest in the work we are doing here in Marshfield. We are very grateful to you, Mrs Warner, for the many donations you have so kindly given, and assure you we are doing everything we can to carry on successfully and be worthy of your help. Just this week we have made a large shipment of hospital garments, along with more knitted goods, and our Headquarters in Marshfield is now quite a busy spot, being attended each day by ladies from the various local clubs who are cutting and sewing the garments for us. We do indeed feel privileged to be favored with your help and want you to know it is deeply appreciated.

Again thanking you, and with best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours

Dear Sirs:

As there has apparently been some delay in our receiving your check of March 19th, we are hastening this note to you to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for your interest in the work we are doing here in England. We are very grateful to you, Sir, for the very generous contribution you have so kindly given, and assure you we shall appreciate it as much as ever. We are especially glad to hear of your help. Our list was so large that a large amount of material was sent along with your letter, and our headquarters in England is now quite a busy spot, being extended with the addition of the various local clubs and societies, and having the payments for us. We are indeed glad to hear that you are interested in the work we are doing here, and it is deeply appreciated.

Yours sincerely,
I am

Sincerely yours,
