Dear Sir:

Your letter of Feb. 19 re. the annual bulletin on the progress of Chinese Studies in the United States of America is at hand.

In answer to your question as to my work I would state that I have made a collection of Oriental Art objects for the University of Oregon and have also collected a library on the Orient. This library includes a collection of books on Oriental Art and books on various subjects of interest to the students of the University. This work and the running of Museum and study of the needs of the students seems up to the present time to absorb my activities. I attended the conference on Pacific Relations at Kyoto last fall.

Sincerely,

Director,
MURRAY WARNER MUSEUM.
