Dear Gertrude

I got all your pamphlets & the book. Thank you so many many times.

I was so interested in your letters.
I don't make much progress. My real beliefs are just as always. But I am hesitating in reading & in thought & it does make me more calm, more cheerful.

I enclose a check which I believe would pay Mrs. Richardson up to May 10th. Am I right. And could you send it to her. Dear Gertrude I appreciate all you have done & your interests. I expect to Robert is now very ill with a cold. You can imagine that I can't help being worried. Of course I haven't told him this, I only tell you because your thoughts would help & you won't be worried. But as John started just that way it makes me feel a little frightened.

I expect you are busy in your fascinating work.

Much love

Edith
