Dear Madam,

Paris, France.

Cambridge, Mass

August 16th, 1934.

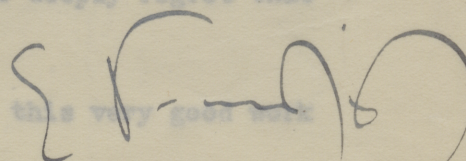

May 8th, 1934

I have the honour to send you, under separate cover, a series of documents concerning the Madrid Conference. I should be grateful if you would kindly take the necessary steps for the preparation of the contribution to be made by your Museum to the Conference proceedings and for its participation in the museographical exhibition which will be held at the same time.

In the circular which is being addressed to you with the above documents, you will find detailed information regarding the nature of the technical contribution to be prepared and the method which should be followed.

I take this opportunity of mentioning that the International Museums Office attaches the highest importance to your collaboration in order that the organisation of this Conference may be entirely successful and I earnestly hope that it will be possible for you personally to take part in the discussions.

Yours faithfully

(E. Foundoukidis)
