

CUNARD WHITE STAR
"SCYTHIA"

June 26. 1937

Dear Gertrude,

How splendid that you did your work so well, & did not come to see us off! The crowd was terrible - thousands of the friends of the 2nd & 3rd class passengers, fighting & pushing to get on to say good bye & it was pandemonium on board.

However, all went well as soon as we started we have had a wonderful journey smooth as a lake (we had 2 days of fog) now

CUNARD WHITE STAR
SCYTHIA

all is serene. We reach Galway tonight (we never knew we were to stop at Ireland) we arrive on Monday morning in Liverpool.

Miss Williamson of
The Home Forum page
had arranged we meet
a charming husband & wife C.S.G. Col. & his dutymore — there are <sup>other</sup> C.S.G.
~~others~~ on board. We have not met them yet.

We shall be looking forward soon to meeting you. I have no beans; tomorrow belongs to God!

I lent P. V. Ross's lecture to the Lutmores - "what blesses one blesses all." Excuse slovenly writing but this is a boat pen & the result is awful.

I promise never to have long pauses again.
We shall let you know
what our circle thinks
of your cotton birds!

We may find others awaiting.

Much love & grateful
memories of delightful
meetings all along the line.

Yours affectionately
Elizabeth
