

The Portland

Portland, Oregon, U.S.A.

Tuesday, 3-30-37

My dear Mrs. Warner. You have been so wonderfully kind to us both, that I find it difficult to say "thank you" adequately.

Elizabeth was looking forward with much pleasure to meeting you again, & our visit to you has been one of the happiest experiences of our journey!

We both loved it.

And J. Museum stands out as something exquisite & rare.

You so glad the Museum has my very best regards!

we like the Barkers very much indeed, - as we both know Japan and Miss Denton, you can guess what a pleasure it was to talk about Japan. We are to have dinner with them on Wednesday evening.

We went to Church on Sunday & liked the service very much. kind, simple Readers. We look forward with pleasure to meeting Mr. Hicks, as we liked Mr. Sawyer, whom we saw quite a little of in Shanghai.
With my best love & warmest thanks. Affectionately yours Jennie.
