

English Artist to Visit UO Campus

Work of Miss Elizabeth Keith, prominent English artist, will be exhibited at the art museum from March 24 to March 28, Mrs. Murray Warner, museum director, has announced.

Miss Keith will be a guest on the campus, and is bringing with her 50 prints, the bulk of which are of oriental scenes. She has specialized in oriental art, and is the author of a book on the Orient, "Eastern Window."

The exhibition will open March 24 at 2 o'clock. Other showings will be March 20 at 2 and again at 8; March 26 at 2, and March 28 at 3.

Evan's Help Sought by Denver Men's Group

A letter has been received by John Stark Evans, professor of music, inviting his assistance in the organization of a men's singing group, similar to the Eugene Gleemen, in Denver, Colorado.

The letter, sent by a group of Denver business men, stated that they had heard of the success of the Gleemen and wished Mr. Evans to help them in outlining a plan of organization.

Mr. Evans has helped organize men's singing groups similar to the Gleemen in Roseburg, Medford, Klamath Falls, Bend, and The Dalles in Oregon, and Boise, Idaho.
