

Elizabeth Keitt

Ibbury Manor, Kingham, Oxon.

Station: Kingham, G.W.R. (2½ miles).

Telegrams: Ibbury, Bledington (2½ miles).

Please not my town address

Sept. 23rd 1925

1. Acacia Gardens

St. John's Wood

London. N.W. 8

My Dear Gertrude,

I was so glad to get your letter & to know you were happy & well!

It was too bad I never got your wire.

Such a busy time you have been having & so have I, but have not much to show for it I fear! The book is only in the rough, my sister has all the really hard work to do.

I am here in my mother's house with a sister

& brother - it is no use - nothing is, without C.S. It is funny ^{that} it is so much easier speaking it to someone who is not a member of your family! I do know how you felt when you were staying with your mother & sympathizing

I shall come out to the East as soon as I can. conveniently do so. Unless one can afford a home of ones own, it is pointless coming home - no one should have to live with their family when they are grown up unless they want to! One wants

Ibbury Manor, Kingham, Oxon.

Station: Kingham, G.W.R. (2½ miles).

Telegrams: Ibbury, Bledington (2½ miles).

to choose mes own friends. I am feeling floomy today so I mustnt indulge in mental him. I really only want to do what god wants me to do.
I am looking forward to seeing Miss Bozeman, but have no idea when she will be here. I only want to be in y right place You will be sorry to see the Concoran valley has made a mistake he had puttj in Oregon
I wrote it quite clearly - I mustnt

I shall send you by write of mine. best mail or studio with 7 of prints reproduced.

Much much love to you by dear friend (th! that that bedroom when I came down to you - good Samaritan!)

Yours affectionately

J. Keith

would you like a little explanatory paragraph for 7 prints or did I give you?