My dear Dr. Noble:

Thinking over my letter of yesterday, I want to add with regard to the Korean brocade, that the two important things in connection with it are --

First -- That it should be in the Imperial Korean color --

Second - That it should be in the Imperial Design - such as would naturally be placed on the cushion of her majesty's chair.

It does not really matter if it is old brocade or new brocade, just so it conforms to the two conditions mentioned above.

In a little over a month I am going east to be gone several months. My address will be

Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner
 % Sam R. Warner
 40 Howells Road, Belmont, Mass.

However, any mail sent me in care of the Museum, U. of O. will always be forwarded.

With kindest regards,

Very sincerely yours
