

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
EUGENE, OREGON

October 26, 1938

Dear Mrs. Warner;

I hope you will accept my apologies for being so late in getting around to rendering an accounting of the money you sent me for the purchase of books in Japan and China this past year. I am finally getting my work running smoothly, and am able to turn to other matters such as this. My statement of accounts follows:

Received: US$200.00 @ 29 3/16 or Y 685.22

Dr.		Y 685.22
Cr. Books bought in Japan and already accounted for		Y 304.40
Consular invoice	Y 8.85
Packing & transport	28.31
	Y36.16
$\frac{1}{2}$ for HJN; $\frac{1}{2}$ for Mrs. Warner		18.08
Books bought in Peking, account rendered		305.65
Deposit at French Book Store, Peking
Y6.00 packing charge
24.00 credit balance remaining		30.00
Books bought in Shanghai:
Lin Yu Tang, History Press & Pub. Opin.		5.00
Allan. Makers of Cathay		7.50
Williams, Outlines Chinese Symbolism		17.50
Total credit		Y 688 .13

In the box coming from Peking are five titles which I have duplicated, one group being for your library, the other for myself. I am enclosing a copy of receipt for the books purchased for my own account, for which I paid separately while in Peking.

Sincerely yours,

Cassidy Noble

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
EUGENE, OREGON

October 26, 1938

Dear Mrs. Warner:

I hope you will accept my apologies for being so late in getting around to rendering an accounting of the money you sent me for the purchase of books in Japan and China this past year. I am finally getting my work running smoothly, and so could not turn to other matters such as this. My statement of accounts follows:

Received: US$200.00 @ 29 3/16 or Y 685.22

		Y 685.22
	Dr. Books bought in Japan and already accounted for	Y 304.40
	Comular invoice Y 8.85
	Packing & transport 28.71	Y 333.16
	1/2 for HLN; 1/2 for Mrs. Warner	18.08
	Books bought in Peking, account rendered	305.65
	Deposit at French Book Store, Peking
	Y 6.00 packing charge
	$4.00 credit balance remaining	30.00
	Books bought in Shanghai:
	Lin Yu Tang, History Press & Pub. Opin.	5.00
	Allan, Makers of Gaiety	7.50
	Williams, "Times Chinese Symbolism"	17.50
	Total credit	Y 688.13

In the box coming from Peking are five titles which I have duplicated, one group being for your library, the other for myself. I am enclosing a copy of receipt for the books purchased for my own account, for which I paid separately while in Peking.

Sincerely yours,

