

Noble

December 4th, 1939

Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner
Hotel Biltmore
Los Angeles, California

Dear Mrs. Warner:

Re: Dr. Noble and books purchased by him.

Last week when Dr. Wright was in the Museum library, he said that no one in the History department had heard from Dr. Noble very recently and that they did not know just when to expect him. How-ever I shall call Dr. Dan Clark to-morrow and ascertain whether or not they have any definite news concerning Dr. Nobles arrival and plans.

I shall be glad to set aside a case for his use if he wishes one and will also see if there is anything else I can arrange here in the library to assist him.

To-morrow I shall make up a list, in quadruplicate, of the books he purchased that should be bound, and take them to the University Bindery. I shall take them a list of the books also, and send a list to you, and keep two copies here in the Museum Library files, so that we shall all have adequate records of the books sent. I shall also get from the bindery an estimate of the cost of binding and send to you, so that you will have some idea of the expense involved. It will probably take them some time to do the work, but I am sure that it will be well done.

With kindest personal regards,

Very truly yours,

Marjorie T. Reynolds, Librarian

11/10/39

December 4th, 1939

Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner
Hotel Biltmore
Los Angeles, California

Dear Mrs. Warner:

Re: Dr. Noble and books purchased by him.

Last week when Dr. Wright was in the Museum library, he said that no one in the history department had heard from Dr. Noble very recently and that they did not know just when to expect him. However I shall call Dr. Dan Clark to-morrow and ascertain whether or not they have any definite news concerning Dr. Noble's arrival and plans.

I shall be glad to set aside a case for his use if he wishes one and will also see if there is anything else I can arrange here in the library to assist him. To-morrow I shall make up a list, in quadruplicate, of the books he purchased that should be bound, and take them to the University Bindery. I shall take them a list of the books also, and send a list to you, and keep two copies here in the Museum library files, so that we shall all have adequate records of the books sent. I shall also get from the bindery an estimate of the cost of binding and send to you, so that you will have some idea of the expense involved. It will probably take them some time to do the work, but I am sure that it will be well done.

With kindest personal regards,

Very truly yours,

Marjorie T. Reynolds, Librarian