Annual Meeting (53rd Year)
Hotel Astor, New York City
Wednesday, November 8, 1933

General Topic:

Current Problems of Unemployment and Recovery Measures in Operation

September 27, 1933

To the Members of the Academy:

The first edition program of the Academy of Political Science Annual Meeting is sent to you herewith. The general subject is "Current Problems of Unemployment and Recovery Measures in Operation." American industrial leadership is today redirecting its course and the attention of employers and employees alike is focused upon plans to deal with the unemployment situation.

This meeting will bring together a group of experts and scholars and other persons of national prominence to participate in this discussion. Mr. Owen D. Young will preside at the morning session and Mr. Walter C. Teagle will preside at the afternoon session. A foreign guest of honor will participate in each session. Both Sir William Beveridge, Director of the London School of Economics and Mr. Harold B. Butler, Director of the International Labor Office at Geneva have many warm friends among the members of the Academy who will be glad to welcome them upon an Academy platform.

At the Annual Dinner Session under the topic of "Long Range Planning" General Hugh S. Johnson, Administrator of the National Recovery Act; Hon. Daniel C. Roper, Secretary of Commerce; and the Rt. Hon. Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland, former British Minister of Labor, will speak. The dinner is $5.00 per cover and is for both men and women. Tables seating parties of ten, and places at open tables for parties of less than ten will be assigned in order of receipt of application. Checks must accompany reservations; guests' names may be sent later on. A blank is enclosed for your convenience in making reservations for the dinner. On account of the necessity of economy this is the only notice of the meeting which you will receive. Therefore I hope you will subscribe promptly.

Undoubtedly many of your friends would like to attend the daytime sessions. Guest cards and programs will be sent direct from the Academy office if you will send names with addresses on the enclosed blank.

Hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you at some of the sessions of the Annual Meeting, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Gerard Swope
Chairman, Program Committee
