Dear Sirs:

On December 31, 1933 your subscribing membership dues in the Academy of Political Science, on which you receive the Political Science Quarterly and The Proceedings, will expire. As you have been continuous subscribers for some time I assume that you will renew, and therefore enclose renewal bill for your convenience in remitting subscription.

Please note the information contained on the enclosed sheet and let me urge you again to kindly send your dues directly to this office and not through an agent.

Sincerely yours,

Ethel Warner

TO SUBSCRIBING MEMBERS OF THE ACADEMY OF POLITICAL SCIENCE
AND TO OTHER LIBRARIANS, CORPORATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS
WHO MAY BE INTERESTED IN RECEIVING REGULARLY
THE POLITICAL SCIENCE QUARTERLY

1. The Political Science Quarterly and The Proceedings of the Academy are both published, edited, controlled and distributed exclusively by the Academy of Political Science. Neither can be subscribed for independently of the other, although single numbers of each may be purchased at the published price.
2. Those desiring to receive either or both of these publications can secure them only by becoming subscribing members of the Academy.
3. The only financial obligation connected with subscribing membership in the Academy is the payment in advance of the annual dues of $5.00.
4. There is also the further obligation of notifying the Academy office direct, at the time when subscribing membership dues expire, if discontinuance of membership is desired.
5. As there is no trade discount given on subscribing membership dues no reduction in cost can be secured by sending your subscription through dealers or news agencies. It is, therefore, preferable and to the mutual interests of the subscribing members and the Academy that payment of dues and notices of change of address should be sent direct by subscribing members to the Academy and not through dealers and agents.
