December 17, 1946

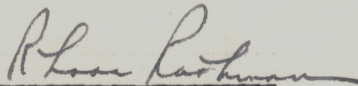

Dear Miss Willian:

In reply to your letter of the 9th, this is to advise you that the Museum of Art Library, has a standing order for all publications published by the Institute of Pacific Relations. This standing order has been in existence for some time.

On December 12, we received an order from the library for one subscription to the I.P.R. Pamphlet Series. This subscription will start with Cross-Currents in the Philippines, which will be ready for publication on January 10, 1947. You are entitled to 6 pamphlets for $1.00 on this subscription. We will, therefore, exclude those forthcoming pamphlets from your standing order, so that there will not be any duplication.

I hope the above information is clear and satisfactory. If there are any further questions, do not hesitate to call upon us.

Cordially yours,

Rhoda Rothman

Dear Miss William:

In reply to your letter of the 9th, this is to advise you that the Museum of Art Library has a standing order for all publications published by the Institute of Pacific Relations. This standing order has been in existence for some time.

On December 12, we received an order from the library for one subscription to the I. P. R. Pamphlet Series. This subscription will start with Currents in the Philippines, which will be ready for publication on January 10, 1949. You are entitled to 6 pamphlets for $1.00 on this subscription. We will, therefore, exclude those forthcoming pamphlets from your standing order, so that there will not be any duplication.

I hope the above information is clear and satisfactory. If there are any further questions, do not hesitate to call upon us.

Cordially yours,
