Dear Miss Willian:

Thank you for your letter of February 28 inquiring whether it is necessary for you to accept all publications received on your standing order. I am sorry we have not made the terms of a standing order clear to you: you are under no obligation to accept items which you judge to be of little value to your library. Therefore we will be glad to accept the three volumes recently sent you if they are in good condition:

Stewart: Boys and Girls of the Orient.
Seeger: Orient, Past and Present.
Greenbie: An American Boy Visits the Orient.

Please return also the invoice which was shipped with these books.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Louise H. Schatz
