Dear Sirs:

On December first we received from you an order for a number of the data papers published for our 1927 and 1929 conferences, all of which were mailed to you with the following exceptions:

- Extraterritoriality in China - Shotwell
- Some Oriental Influences on Western Culture - Young
- Chinese Colonization in Manchuria - Pan

We have asked our New York office to forward these missing pamphlets to you, if they have extra copies in stock, and we enclose our bill for the balance of the order.

Replying to your letter of January 8th regarding chapter 13 of "Western Influences in Modern Japan" we would say that we have only mimeographed copies of this chapter. However, the complete volume is shortly to be published by the University of Chicago Press and you will doubtless receive notice of its publication.

Very truly yours,

Marguerite C. Miller
 Office Manager

We have asked our New York office to forward these missing pamphlets to you, if they have extra copies in stock, and we enclose our bill for the balance of the order.

Replying to your letter of January 8th regarding chapter 15 of "Western Influences in Modern Japan" we would say that we have only mimeographed copies of this chapter. However, the complete volume is shortly to be published by the University of Chicago Press and you will doubtless receive notice of its publication.

Very truly yours,
