

No.11, Maruyamacho, Koishikawa,
Tokyo, Japan,
May 10th, 1929.

Dear Madam:--

I have herewith the honour to introduce to you my University
Colleague Count Hayashi, President of the Meiji Japan Society and
Professor of Pedagogy at the Tokyo Imperial University, who is leaving
Tokyo Via Siberia on a tour in Europe and America for about half a year him during his stay in your place, will be highly appreciated by me.

With best regards and thanking you for your kindness to Count and Countess Hayashi and suite in advance,

I am,
Yours sincerely,

G. Kato,

G. Kato

Secretary of the Meiji
Japan Society.

*Answered
June 29*

Handwritten notes in the top right corner, possibly including a name and date.

No. 11, Maruyamacho, Kotshikawa,
Tokyo, Japan,
May 10th 1923.

Dear Madam:-

I have herewith the honor to introduce to you my University
Colleague Count Hayashi, President of the Meiji Japan Society and Professor of Pedagogy at the Tokyo Imperial University, who is leaving
Tokyo via Siberia on a tour in Europe and America for about half a year.
His stay in your place, will be highly appreciated by me.
With best regards and thanking you for your kindness to Count and Countess Hayashi and wife in advance,

I am,
Yours sincerely,

Handwritten signature of G. Kato.

G. Kato,

Secretary of the Meiji
Japan Society.