

November 9th, 1937

Mr Genchi Kato
Secretary of the Meiji-Japan Society
11 Maruyamacho Koishikawa
Tokyo.

My dear Mr Kato:

It is quite a long time since we have met and I am always pleased when I receive the Transactions from the Meiji Society which shows me that you have not forgotten me. I thank you very much.

I am happy to have some books in Japanese to draw scholars to the Museum Library and in time I hope to have many more.

We feel lonely in the Museum because Mr Jiro Harada is no longer with us. It is astonishing how much the students got out of his lectures while he was here at the University. You know people love a country if they know only one person from that country and are fond of him.

The last time I was in Japan was the winter of 1929-30. Since then we have had a depression which cut down everyone's income, but now things are picking up and some day I shall surprise my friends by packing up and starting on a trip to Japan.

With kindest regards to Mrs Kato and yourself,

From your old friend,

Gertrude Bass Warner

I am happy to have some books in Japanese to draw scholars to the Museum Library and in time I hope to have many more.

We feel lonely in the Museum because Mr. Hiro Harada is no longer with us. It is astonishing how much the students got out of his lectures while he was here at the University. You know people love a country if they know only one person from that country and are fond of him.

The last time I was in Japan was the winter of 1929-30. Since then we have had a depression which cut down everyone's income, but now things are picking up and some day I shall surprise my friends by packing up and starting on a trip to Japan.
