SUMMARY OF ACTIVITIES

NIPPON SOCIETY OF PORTLAND

APRIL 1, 1938.

Baroness Shidzue Ishimoto, lecturer and writer, visited Portland on April 18, 1937. The Society honored her with a tea at Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sammon's home.

On June 14th at a formal dinner at the Benson Hotel, the Society honored several Japanese graduates of the Universities of Oregon and Oregon State College, who attained marked academic distinction.

On July 9th, through the cooperation of the consular corps and the Portland Chamber of Commerce, the Society gave a farewell dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Ken Tsumuri at the Benson Hotel.

On August 18th, the Society entertained with a barbecue and picnic, some 50 students from the Universities of Japan who were enroute to attend the Fourth American Student's Conference at Stanford University.

On October 15th, the Society gave a tea at the Town Club and introduced the new Japanese Consul, Kwan Yoshida, and his wife to the members and their guests.

Sixty-three members received copies of the pictorial magazine "Ashigraph" direct from the publisher in Japan.
