My dear Mrs. Warner:

We are sorry to say that your letter of July 2nd to President Stuart has arrived just too late to reach him here in America. We shall, however, take pleasure in forwarding it to him at Yenching and at the same time send you our sincere thanks for the generous gift for the work at our University. Our official numbered receipt is enclosed herewith.

Thanking you for your continued interest in the school, we are

Cordially yours,
