My dear Mr. Barker:

Your letter of January second reached me this morning. $42.71 seems astonishingly little for so many things. I think Takako Nakajima should also have an evening dress, and I suggest that it be gotten for her in Eugene through Mrs. Macduff or her daughter Petty.

Enclosed please find my check for $21.35. I have just written Mr. Lyon for the status of my Harada fund and Nakajima fund, and as soon as I hear from him I will attend to both.

I wish you a happy New Year.

Very sincerely yours
