

December 6, 1935

My dear Mrs. Warner:

You are a grand woman, and I love you dearly! Your letter arrived just as I was worrying about Taka San, for she does need a warm coat. She told me when our last really cold weather came that "Winter comes so quickly in America".

We will have great fun purchasing a coat if you would like us to do that, for Taka San knows what she likes and what she does not like. I am wondering if we should wait for Christmas sales if this warm weather continues?

Betty and I are enjoying and thinking a great deal of this girl. Last night she and Mrs. Shiomi came and made Sukyaki for Betty and me and we had a real jolly time. Sometime before Christmas, I am hoping to bring Taka San to Portland so that she may see the stores and city decorations and perhaps make a few purchases of some things she may wish of a Japanese character for her Christmas Season celebration. She does not get through her examinations until late

December 8, 1933

My dear Mrs. Garner:

You are a grand woman, and I love you dearly! Your letter arrived just as I was worrying about Tala San, for she does need a warm coat. She told me when our last really cold weather came that "Winter comes so quickly in America".

We will have great fun purchasing a coat if you would like us to do that, for Tala San knows what she likes and what she does not like. I am wondering if we should wait for Christmas sales if this warm weather continues?

Betty and I are enjoying and thinking a great deal of this girl. Last night she and Mrs. Shalom came and made a gift for Betty and me and we had a real jolly time. Sometime before Christmas, I am hoping to bring Tala San to Portland so that she may see the stores and city decorations and perhaps make a few purchases of some things she may wish of a Japanese character for her Christmas season celebration. She does not get through her examinations until late

Friday the 20th, so I do not know just how it will work out .

The college work has been difficult but she is finding it much easier now. She knows correct English but so many of us use poor English! However, her professors all speak very highly of her, tho' she herself,
aiming at perfection, sometimes feels that she is not doing as well as she should. I will send you her grades at the end of the term.

My love to you, dear lady, and if Taka San and I can get to Portland we will call on you.

Cordially,

Ann B. Macduff.

Friday the 20th, as I do not know how long it will last.

The college work has been different but she is finding it much easier now. She knows correct English but she says she has poor English! However, her professors all speak very little of her, but she herself,
aiming at perfection, sometimes feels that she is not doing as well as she should. I will send you her grades at the end of the year.

My love to you, dear lady, and all Take care and I can get to Portland we will call on you.

Cordially,

Gene B. Marshall

