My dear Mrs. Macduff:

In answer to your letter of December sixth, about our little Japanese friend:

Use your own judgment as to whether to wait for sales, or get the coat now. Do you think that a satisfactory coat could be bought for thirty dollars? If so, buy it. I should like to pay for it out of my scholarship fund for this Japanese student. I don't know how much money there is in that scholarship fund. Will you kindly let me know when you write about the coat whether I have money enough in the fund to pay for it, and just how much money I have in the scholarship fund for this Japanese girl at the present time.

With kindest regards,

Very truly yours,

Gertrude Bass Warner
