

ENTRIES IN 1933 MURRAY WARNER ESSAY CONTEST

American students

- Bellinger, Jack. The population problem and industrialization in Japan.
- Caswell, John. The United States' position in the Manchurian affair.
- Foreman, Paul. An interpretation of the Chinese national and international development policies of Dr. Sun Yat-Sen (1866-1925) purported to emphasize his contribution to Chinese social thought and the implications of their correlative value to the Euro-American culture area.
- Goettling, Charles. Extraterritoriality and its application to business in China.
- Goodnough, Edgar. The struggle for Manchuria during the World War.
- MacDuff, Betty Anne. The Stimson doctrine and America's far eastern diplomacy.
- Wilson, Jay R. Laboring Japan.

Foreign students

- Espiritu y Asis, Vicente. The role of sugar in the economic and political life of The Philippines.
- Catoy, Fausto P. America's altruistic policy in the Philippines.
- Gines, George. Philippine leprosy and its modern treatment under the United States regime (1901-1932).
- Ocampo, Emilio. The effects of American withdrawal in the Philippines upon the life of the Filipino people.
- Pulido, Máximo M. The Moro problem in The Philippines.

ENTRIES IN 1938 MURRAY WARREN ESSAY CONTEST

American students

- Bellinger, Jack. The population problem and industrialization in Japan.
- Gaswell, John. The United States' position in the Manchurian affair.
- Foreman, Paul. An interpretation of the Chinese national and international development policies of Dr. Sun Yat-sen (1866-1925) purported to emphasize his contribution to Chinese social thought and the implications of their correlative value to the Euro-American culture area.
- Geoffing, Charles. Extraterritoriality and its application to business in China.
- Goodenough, Edgar. The struggle for Manchuria during the World War.
- MacDuff, Betty Anne. The Stimson doctrine and America's far eastern diplomacy.
- Wilson, Jay R. Laboring Japan.

Foreign students

- Espiritu y Aala, Vicente. The role of sugar in the economic and political life of the Philippines.
- Casoy, Renato P. America's altruistic policy in the Philippines.
- Gines, George. Philippine forestry and its modern treatment under the United States regime (1901-1932).
- Ocampo, Emilio. The effects of American withdrawal in the Philippines upon the life of the Filipino people.
- Palido, Maximo M. The Moro problem in the Philippines.

