

Hoping that you both will have a most enjoyable trip.

Very cordially yours,

Dear Dr. Noble:

I was very glad to receive your letter of July 18th. Hearing about the plans for your trip makes me wish I were going along.

While Mrs Lucy Perkins and I were in Tientsin the last time we were over we saw some architectural models of some of the palaces and gates of Peking. They were beautiful made by a Chinese gentleman who used to be in the Imperial palace. I think that they were in the Chamber of Commerce building and they would be quite worthwhile for Mr Southwell to see, if you have time while you are there.

I am enclosing a letter of introduction to Dr and Mrs John C. Ferguson for you and Mr Southwell. They are both intimate friends of mine and will be very glad to see you. You know that Dr Ferguson has written a number of books on Chinese art, covering the general art another on paintings, and porcelains and pottery and a fourth on the bronzes. He has had very exceptional opportunities in Peking For quite a number of years he was advisor to the Emperor While we were living in Shanghai he was a silent partner in my husbands firm, so I have known him over a long period

Dear Dr Noble:

I was very glad to receive your letter of July 18th telling me about the plans for your trip. It makes me wish that I were going along.

When Mrs Lucy Perkins and I were in Tientsin the last time we were over, we saw some architectural models of some of the palaces and gates of Peking. They were beautifully made by a Chinese gentleman who used to be in the Imperial Palace. I think that they were in the Chamber of Commerce building and they would be quite worthwhile for Mr Southwell to see if you have time while there.

I am enclosing a letter of introduction to Dr and Mrs John C. Ferguson for you and Mr Southwell. They are both intimate friends of mine and will be very glad to see you. Dr Ferguson has written a number of books on Chinese art, one on general art, a second on paintings, a third on pottery and porcelains and a fourth on bronzes. He has had exceptional opportunities in Peking. For quite a number of years he was an advisor to the Emperor and while we were living in Shanghai he was a silent partner of my husbands firm, so I have known him over a long period of years.
