

Department of Economics
University of Oregon
Eugene, Oregon
February 2, 1931

Mrs. Murray Warner
Osburne Hotel
Eugene
Oregon

Dear Mrs. Warner:

I have received a note from Dr. Cressman which may interest you. Personally, I do not think that the conditions of the essay contest should be changed once they have been announced. I feel that economic and political problems are the most pressing phases of the international relations at the present time, although there may be other interesting aspects in this huge field.

Yours sincerely,

John R. Mez

John R. Mez

JRM RI
Enclosure

Department of Economics
University of Oregon
Eugene, Oregon
February 2, 1931

Mrs. Murray Warner
Osburn Hotel
Eugene
Oregon

Dear Mrs. Warner:

I have received a note from Dr. Crossman which may interest you. Personally, I do not think that the conditions of the essay contest should be changed once they have been announced. I feel that economic and political problems are the most pressing phases of the ~~international relations at the present time, although~~ there may be other interesting aspects in this huge field.

Yours sincerely,

John R. Mead

John R. Mead

JRM:RI
Enclosure

