

April 23, 1938.

Mr. George R. Blodgett
32 N. Holman street
Portland, Oregon

Dear Mr. Blodgett:

In the absence of Mrs Warner, your letter of April the fifth has been referred to me.

I am very much afraid that it will be impossible to have your essay copied at the present time, for two reasons. First, there is no place in the Museum Library where a typist could work, and, second, I have no authority to permit an essay to be taken out of the library, or even to open the seal on any of the packages containing the essays.

I regret that I cannot comply with your request, but until Mrs Warner returns in the summer, I am afraid there is nothing that can be done to alter the situation.

Very truly yours,

Mrs Marjorie Reynolds
Librarian
Museum Library
Museum of Art.

April 28, 1938.

Mr. George R. Biddett
32 W. Holman Street
Portland, Oregon

Dear Mr. Biddett:

In the absence of Mrs. Warner, your letter of April the fifth has been referred to me.

I am very much afraid that it will be impossible to have your essay copied at the present time, for two reasons. First, there is no place in the Museum Library where a typist could work, and second, I have no authority to permit an essay to be taken out of the library, or even to open the seal on any of the packages containing the essays.

I regret that I cannot comply with your request, but until Mrs. Warner returns in the summer, I am afraid there is nothing that can be done to alter the situation.

Very truly yours,

Mrs. Harjoris Reynolds
Librarian
Museum Library
Museum of Art.

