Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner
Osborne Hotel
Eugene, Oregon

Dear Mrs. Warner:

The box has arrived and is being held here in bond subject to being forwarded to Eugene when you wish it, after the enclosed papers (I) shall have been signed and returned here for the Customs officials.

I. I am enclosing the following papers which you will sign and return:

- (1) Declaration for free entry of works of art for presentation. This you must acknowledge before a notary public.
- (2) Presentation statement.

These are the same as you have previously signed.

II. Also I am enclosing the following papers which you are to keep:

- (1) Bill of lading #184.
- (2) Original and duplicate of insurance policy.
- (3) Picture of statue.

III. Also I am enclosing the bill of Geo. S. Bush and Co. This you may pay directly to Bush and Co.

When you sign and return the two papers under I above, Bush and Co. will file them with the Customs official here and get leave to forward the box to Eugene. I presume you wish it forwarded at once, but if not, please let me know when you wish it to go forward.

After it shall have reached you please let us know and we shall arrange to have the inspector go to Eugene and open the box in your presence.

Remember: The box must not be opened until the inspector arrives from Portland and orders it opened.

The expenses of the inspector must be repaid.
I understand the Chancellor has guaranteed this will be done.

If there is anything which you do not fully understand, please let me know.

Very cordially,

Burt Brown Barker
