Dear Mrs. Warner:

I see that you are determined to keep ahead of me in the Harada matter. 'Tis indeed very pleasing to know that you find yourself with this unexpected credit which you can transfer to the Harada salary.

Thus far I have not had any such luck but expect to begin on my payments after July 1st when I am hoping for some dividends.

Mr. Nakamura and Mr. Tsurumi reported most enthusiastically of their treatment in Eugene. You certainly are a perfect hostess and they so expressed themselves. I am greatly in hopes that your example in this respect may be an inspiration to the Eugene people regarding the entertainment of Mr. Harada. I have asked Dean Onthank to call the committee together next Tuesday afternoon and I purpose to tell them how anxious I am to have him well cared for. I am in hopes that your cordial example may be an inspiration to them.

It was also very kind of you to give me some additional leeway regarding the Japanese student. I shall therefore proceed at once to see if I can get some assistance on my half of this burden.

Again, with my kind regards and with great appreciation for the cordial assistance I am receiving at your hands, I beg to remain

Very cordially yours,

Burt Brown Barker

Dear Mrs. Barker:

I am glad that you are determined to keep ahead of me in the parade matter. The parade is indeed very pleasing to know that you think yourself with this unexpected credit which you can transfer to the parade salary. This far I have not had any such look but expect to begin on my payments after July 1st when I am hoping for some dividends.

Mr. Barker and Mr. Barker reported most enthusiastically of their treatment in Eugene. You certainly are a perfect hostess and they so expressed themselves. I am greatly in hopes that your example in this respect may be an inspiration to the Eugene people regarding the entertainment of Mr. Barker. I have asked Tom Gribb to call the committee together next Tuesday afternoon and I purpose to tell them how anxious I am to have him well cared for. I am in hopes that your cordial example may be an inspiration to them.

It was also very kind of you to give me some additional money regarding the business student. I shall therefore proceed at once to see if I can get some assistance on my part of the burden.

Again, with my kind regards and with great appreciation for the cordial assistance I am receiving at your hands, I beg to remain

Very cordially yours,
