Re: Catalogue_of the Imperial Treasures
in the Shosoin, published by the Imperial Household Museum, Tokyo.

Dear Mrs Warner:

Mr Harada estimates that these would cost about $ 80. There were seven volumes when he left but the eighth was on its way. He did not bring the seven because he thought you had them.

If you wish to buy these there are two ways:

1. Thru the Imperial Household Museum
Uyeno Park, Tokyo, Japan.

They sell each volume for 25 yen or ten copies for 200 yen <sup>yen =</sup> 300 plus postage.

He said he would order volumes one to eight and duplicates
of one and two or in case that eighth is not published order volumes one to seven and duplicates of one, two, and three. He also says it is simpler and quicker to have each volume sent separately.

Also the Imperial Household Museum will not send out material until they receive the money.

2. Thru Yamanaka's, Osaka, Japan (I thought of them because you could cable and they would send you a bill)

In case you should cable them their cable address is:

"ARTMOUNT OSAKA"

Mr Harada says to ask for "Shosoin Gomotsu Zuroku of Teichitsu Hakubutsukan one to eight ".

Mr Harada told me to tell you that he could get along without this book but when he said he did not bring it because he thought it was here, I decided that he was probably depending on it. He would need the material the last of January and there is plenty of time to write.

Sincerely,
