"...In this whole universe, I lonely bear the curse of being what I must with tears Call me." (Lines writ when I was 13)

Beloved maniac - I will stay in comm.; we are never out of it, really, I lug your book or books over the earth like talismans. But you must get it thru your head - that from the E shore of Quintana Roo there is really no mail, phone, nothing. And from parts of Maine or British Columbia only occasional - and forgetful-bush-pilots. And from certain states of despair comes silence.
But I shall try. Now I must go to a lawyer to do my will, whee. Love, Troop.
