Dear Mr. Warner

I am sorry that, at the present it is not convenient for me to call on you at the Hotel.

If your business necessitates my personal presence I will be over at General Kunth's house tomorrow at 9<sup>AM</sup> promptly, or you may let me know by note if you want something done, or require some information.

Whatever it is I will be glad to do so, but the hotel is "NON POSSUMOS",
at the present

Cordially,
Robert.

Dear Mr. Lorne:

The vase and all items are packed in cotton wool first and the exterior packing is excellent. No straw packing is used whatever, therefore no damp-proof is necessary.

The Customs are paying special attention to the export of Chinese books to foreign countries, hence the examination.

I have sent the Consular documents to Neilson this morning and hope to get them back probably tomorrow.

Sincerely,
J. Albert.
