ACADEMIC COSTUME

ACADEMIC GOWNS represent a tradition which comes down from the universities of the Middle Ages. At that time they were a common form of dress and were retained by the clergy when the laity adopted more modern styles. The caps, originally round, later became square mortar boards. The hoods attached to the gown were originally cowls which could be slipped over the head for protection from the weather.

The significance of the costume is indicated especially by the sleeves and hoods. The bachelor's gown has pointed sleeves; the master's gown has long, closed sleeves; and the doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves and velvet trimmings.

The colored velvet border of the hood indicates the field of study to which the degree pertains, as do the tassel colors. (See Processional, Page 2.)

The colorful lining of the hood indicates the institution from which the wearer received his or her degree. The lining of the Harvard University hood, for example, is crimson; Yale, blue; Wisconsin, bright red; California, gold; Washington, purple above gold; Oregon, lemon yellow and dark green; Stanford, cardinal; Oregon State, burnt orange.

Epaulets (honor cords) may be worn on the right shoulder by those candidates who have been designated as recipients of Senior Honors.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARDS

Upon recommendation of the Faculty Recognition and Awards Committee, the Faculty Senate of Oregon State University has selected the following recipients of the Oregon State University Distinguished Service Award:

FRANK C. TUBBS

Supervisor of the first World Agricultural Fair at New Delhi, India, in 1959-60; First Farmer of the United States in 1966; tireless worker for an increase of Oregon wheat exports; past President of the Pendleton Roundup; donor of a combine and books on Agriculture to Oregon State University; third-generation owner of a wheat-pea and cow-calf ranch near Pendleton, Oregon, MR. FRANK TUBBS, 1949 graduate from OSU, is a man who has rendered service to Pendleton, to his Alma Mater, to the State of Oregon, and to our entire country.

REXFORD A. RESLER

Since 1978, Executive Vice-President of the American Forestry Association, the highly respected 105-year-old nationwide citizens' conservation organization; for six years, Associate Chief of the U.S. Forest Service; a leader among the developers of the now-standard use of helicopters to suppress forest fires in the Northwest and elsewhere; formerly a Regional Forester responsible for managing all the National Forests in the Northwest; an individual convinced that man can live harmoniously with Nature, MR. REXFORD RESLER, a leading undergraduate of the OSU Class of 1953, is truly a "foresters' forester," a man who has aided greatly in the protection of the forests of Oregon, of the Northwest, of the entire nation.

NORMAN E. BORLAUG

Winner in 1970 of the Nobel Peace Prize; popularly known as "the father of the green revolution," the genetic changer of the wheat plant so that—at last—wheat may now be grown in the undeveloped lands near the Equator; the individual who has done the most to date to help provide food for our hungry planet; a fine scientist known the world over for the use of his talents to help the poor; collaborator in research with Oregon State's 1980 Distinguished Professor, Dr. Warren Kronstad; a frequent helpful visitor to the agricultural laboratories of Oregon State, DR. NORMAN BORLAUG is a man who has struck the first blow in conquering one of the vast problems that so darkly confront the future of mankind.

Oregon State University Library

GIFTS AND MEMORIAL BOOKS

Gift books, memorial books, and cash donations play an important role in the Library's acquisition program. Through the OSU Foundation, the Library received $7,549 from gifts, memorial book funds, and endowments. Memorial books constitute an enduring tribute from individuals and groups to deceased relatives and friends. During the last year, 33 volumes memorializing 18 persons were added to the Library. Each of these books has a special bookplate recording the name of the person memorialized and that of the donor.

In addition, the Library's collection was enriched by 928 gift books from individuals, groups, publishers and firms, with an estimated value of $8,234.

The Memorial Book Plan, originated in 1943 and originally sponsored and promoted by the Friends of the Library, Oregon State University, has grown over the years and is now directed through the OSU Foundation for greater ease of administration.

ALMA MATER

Within a vale of western mountains,
There's a college we hold dear.
Her shady slopes and fountains
Oft to me appear.
I love to wander on the pathway
Down to the Trysting Tree,
For there again I see in fancy,
Old friends dear to me.

(Chorus)

Carry me back to OSU,
Back to her vine-clad halls;
Thus fondly ever in my mem'ry
Alma Mater calls
