The Oregon State Athletics Communications office appreciates your interest in the 2012 Oregon State baseball team. We look forward to serving members of the media throughout the year and hope this media guide is a helpful tool throughout the season. Please contact Assistant Director for Athletic Communications Hank Hager for any media needs concerning the Oregon State baseball team. He can be reached by email at hank.hager@oregonstate.edu or by calling the Oregon State at (541) 737-7472.

The following is a set of guidelines for covering the club this season.

Broadcasting Arrangements

Requests for radio, Internet, television or any other broadcasting privileges of Oregon State baseball should be addressed to Hank Hager as far in advance as possible.

Game Notes

A set of Oregon State game notes will be made available to members of the media prior to each game. To be included on the Oregon State baseball e-mail list in order to receive the notes prior to the game, please contact Hank Hager. Notes will also be posted on the home of Oregon State Athletics, osubeavers.com.

Interviews

All coach and student-athlete interviews must be arranged through Hank Hager. On gamedays, head coach Pat Casey, his assistants and members of the team will be available shortly after the game's conclusion. Interviews will be done in an informal manner on the field. Please notify Hank Hager of any requested players or coaches prior to the conclusion of the game.

For all visiting team interview requests, please contact that respective team's Sports Information Director.

Pre-Game Interviews

Oregon State players are available for interviews on gamedays, but only prior to batting practice. Players will not be made available after batting practice starts until that game's completion.

Practices

Practices are held at Goss Stadium at Coleman Field on a daily basis and are generally open to members of the media. Players and coaches are normally available for interviews after practice, depending on the schedule for that day. Please contact Hank Hager to schedule any interviews at least 24 hours in advance.

DO NOT contact any players away from Goss Stadium unless previously arranged by Hank Hager.

Press Box

Goss Stadium features a full working press box immediately behind home plate. Due to space limitations, seating is not guaranteed. Please notify Hank Hager at least 24 hours in advance if desiring to cover the Beavers. Wireless Internet is available at the Goss Stadium press box.

Pre-game services include statistics, game notes, gameday programs and media guides. Post-game stats will be made available to working members of the media as soon as possible after the completion of each game.

Photography

Please note that there are no designated photography areas at Goss Stadium. Photographers are free to shoot from the Goss Stadium stands. However, please do not impede spectators' sightlines.

Photographers are allowed on the field pregame, but must clear the field 45 minutes prior to first pitch unless there is a ceremony. At no time during the game are photographers allowed on the field or in the dugouts.

Field Access

There is field access prior to the start of each game, but all members of the media must leave the field at the completion of batting practice, approximately 45 minutes prior to first pitch. Media is allowed on the field for post-game interviews.

Media Credentials

Requests for all media credentials should be made to Hank Hager at least 24 hours in advance for necessary games or series. Season credentials will be made available to media members who will cover the team on a season basis. Single-game credentials and series credentials are also available.

Credentials will be left at the Goss Stadium ticket office will call or the Oregon State Media Relations Office. Credentials can be mailed but only if requested.

Media Guides

This media guide is made available for members of the media to provide biographical and historical information regarding the Oregon State program, its players, coaches, staff and administration. Please note that no media guides will be formally printed this season.

Internet

The online home of Oregon State Athletics, osubeavers.com, is the place to go for all Oregon State baseball information, including a team roster and bios, schedule, live stats links, updated game notes and statistics. Fans can also enjoy viewing photo galleries after select games.

Live Stats

Check osubeavers.com for gameday information and live stats links. Every Oregon State baseball home game will be available via live stats.

Media Server

A media server containing head shots and other OSU information has been set up. Please contact the OSU Athletic Communications office for instructions on how to access the server.

RADIO/TV/SOCIAL MEDIA

Oregon State On The Radio, TV

Radio

The Oregon State baseball team enjoys one of the finest radio packages in the Pac-12 Conference. Every Oregon State game is broadcast throughout the state of Oregon as well as online on osubeavers.com, making it available for anyone with an Internet connection in any part of the world.

Make sure and check osubeavers.com for an announcement of the entire list of stations covering the Oregon State baseball team this season.

Mike Parker serves as the play-by-play voice of Oregon State baseball. In addition to covering head coach Pat Casey's club, Parker also does play-by-play for Oregon State football and men's basketball.

Beavers All-Access

The popular "Beavers All-Access will feature the Oregon State baseball team for another exciting season. ROOT SPORTS and FCS air the 30-minute show for 24 weeks during the academic year and during baseball season, head coach Pat Casey and his players are featured. The show airs regularly on either Wednesday or Thursday and is replayed several times a week.

Beaver Sports Talk

For 30 weeks during the academic year, Beaver Sports Talk, hosted by the voice of OSU baseball, Mike Parker, features the best in Oregon State athletics. The hour-long call in show airs from 7-8 p.m. Tuesday nights from McMenamins across the street from the OSU campus.

Head coach Pat Casey will appear on the show during baseball season, as will as the team's players.

Internet Audio/Video

Beaver Nation Online will stream every baseball game, home and away, live over the internet on either Beaver Nation Online (osubeavers.com). Beaver Nation Online will also stream a live video webcast of every home game, using a videoboard feed at Goss Stadium at Coleman Field with the Beaver Sports Radio Network overlay.

Beaver Nation Online, the subscription-based site within osubeavers.com, offers exclusive interviews, highlights, webcasts and special features from Beaver coaches and players during the year.

The online home of Oregon State Athletics, osubeavers.com, will also be the place to find live stats for all home games.

Social Networking

Oregon State Athletics has embraced social networking and now offers fans of Beaver Nation to follow on Facebook, YouTube and Twitter.

MIKE PARKER

Play-By-Play

Mike Parker is in his 13th season calling OSU football, men's basketball and baseball action and has been behind the microphone for some of the school's crowning achievements on the athletic fields. The "Voice of the Beavers" is a 1982 graduate of the University of Oregon with a bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications. His broadcasting career includes play-by-play for football, basketball and baseball for high school sports in Oregon, beginning in 1977. He was the voice of the Eugene Emeralds (1983-86) minor league baseball club and the Oregon women's basketball program (1983-87). He also was the play-by-play voice of the AAA Portland Beavers from 1987-92. Parker hosted a show on all-sports KFXX Radio from 1990-95 before moving to KEX Radio as host of Sportsline and the Fifth Quarter program following Portland Trail Blazer games. Parker has been named the Oregon Sportscaster of the Year six times, most recently in 2011. Mike and his wife Missy have two daughters, Lydia and Ellie.

OREGON STATE TRADITION

The College World Series

 Oregon State has made a habit of becoming visitors to Omaha, the site of the College World Series. The Beavers made three consecutive trips to Rosenblatt Stadium from 2005-2007 and have been to the College World Series four times after their inaugural trip in 1952.

• Oregon State became just the fifth team in NCAA history to win consecutive titles when winning championships in 2006 and 2007. The Beavers were the first team in a decade to accomplish the feat and the first from the then-Pac-10 in almost 20 years.

• Oregon State is just the fifth team currently in the Pac-12 to reach the College World Series in three consecutive seasons.

• The Beavers became just the sixth Pac-10 club to win the World Series by sweeping its entire way through Omaha. Oregon State went 5-0 in 2007, and trailed just one inning throughout the team's play in Omaha.

• A total of 26,887 fans came out to watch Oregon State's title-clinching 11-4 win over North Carolina in 2007. That total is the single-largest crowd to watch a championship series game in College World Series history. That series' championship game drew 25,012, the largest final game ever at Rosenblatt Stadium.

• In Oregon State's two championship seasons, the Beavers had 11 players named to the College World Series All-Tournament Team. That tied a Pac-10 record for most players over a two-year span.

Coaching Success

 Casey is in his 18th season as head coach of the Beavers and enters the season with 578 victories, which places him second in Oregon State history.

 Jack Riley, Casey's predecessor at Oregon State, holds the school's record with 613 victories over a 22-year span. He won five titles with the Beavers during his tenure and posted 274 victories in Pac-10 play for a .731 winning percentage.

 Ralph Coleman spent 35 seasons in the Oregon State dugout through three different coaching stints. Until Riley overtook him, Coleman was the program's leader with 561 victories, including 279 against Pac-10 clubs. He won 10 conference titles during his 35-year tenure. Coleman still holds the school's record for career winning percentage at .640.

 All three historical coaches for the Beavers are ranked in the top 20 in Pac-12 coaching history.
 Casey is 16th all-time in victories, while Coleman is 17th and Riley is 12th.

 After winning two straight titles, Casey was recognized nationally. In 2006 and 2007, he won National Coach of the Year honors by various organizations.

 Coaching success doesn't just rest upon Oregon State head coaches. Three former Oregon State assistant coaches were named head coaches at their respective universities in 2008.
 Dan Spencer took over head coaching duties at Texas Tech while Gary Henderson was named the head coach at Kentucky. Donny Harrell was named the head coach at Seattle, which started play at the D-I level in 2010.

 Oregon State has three fine assistant coaches who will be in the dugout this season. Marty Lees enters his 11th year with the Beavers, now as associate head coach, and has made the Beavers into one of the nation's best defensive teams. Oregon State has finished in the top 20 nationally in fielding percentage in four of the last six seasons.

• Pat Bailey is in his fifth season as an Oregon State assistant. He has also tasted a national title after leading nearby George Fox to a Division III title in 2004.

• Pitching coach Nate Yeskie is in his fourth season with the Beavers. Oregon State's team ERA dropped nearly a run and a half in Yeskie's first season with OSU. He also mentored Sam Gaviglio to multiple Freshman All-America honors in 2009, as well as Matt Boyd in 2010. Gaviglio became his first overall All-American at the conclusion of the 2011 season.

Beavers In The Draft

• Oregon State has seen 37 players drafted over the past five seasons.

• In 2006, the Beavers had nine players chosen by Major League clubs, a single-year record.

 In 2007, Oregon State accomplished another first. Eddie Kunz and Mitch Canham were both selected in the first round, marking the first time two Beavers went in the draft's initial round in the same season.

• Under head coach Pat Casey, 31 players have been selected in the draft's top nine rounds. Of those 31 selections, 30 signed professional contracts and 18 are still playing with an affiliated organization at the conclusion of the 2010 season.

• Six different Beavers have been selected in the first round of the draft, inlcuding Steve Lyons in 1981, Mike Thurman in 1994 and Jacoby Ellsbury in 2005. Lyons had a long Major League career, seeing time for four Major League organizations in nine seasons. Thurman played six seasons for Montreal and the New York Yankess and Ellsbury completed his first full MLB season in 2008.

Professional Beavers

 In 2012, six different former Oregon State players saw time with Major League clubs. Overall, the Beavers have had 25 players play at the game's highest level. And with 37 MLB selections the past five seasons, Oregon State is expecting to see more Major League debuts the next few seasons.

• Jacoby Ellsbury became Oregon State's first alum to win a World Series when he and the Boston Red Sox swept Colorado in 2007. Ellsbury, a rookie that season, batted .438 with four doubles and a stolen base in the series. Ellsbury recently set Boston's single-season stolen base record with 70 in 2009.

 Brian Barden was named the National League's Rookie of the Month for April of 2009. He was joined as NL Rookies of the Month when Darwin Barney (Chicago Cubs) was given the honor in April of 2011.

OREGON STATE TRADITION

• Barden became Oregon State's first Olympian in 2008 and helped guide Team USA to a bronze medal the Beijing Olympics. Barden had made his Major League debut with Arizona in 2007 and has also seen action with the St. Louis Cardinals in 2007 and 2008.

• Ken Forsch is widely considered to be Oregon State's most successful professional player, seeing 16 seasons with the Houston Astros and California Angels from 1970 to 1986. In 1982, he won a career-high 13 games and finished with 114 for his career.

 Twenty-nine Beavers played for an affiliated organization in 2010.

All-Americans

• Oregon State has a proud history of having players recognized nationally with All-American honors. Twenty different Beavers have earned All-American honors.

• Of those 20 players, four have earned All-American status in two different seasons. Those players are Jay Dean in 1954 and 1955, Cecil Ira in 1962 and 1963 and Dallas Buck and Jonah Nickerson in 2005 and 2006.

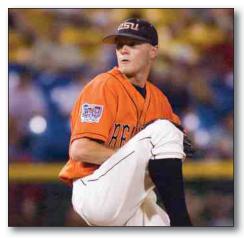

• Oregon State has seen a spike in All-Americans since Pat Casey took the helm in 1995. Under Casey, the Beavers have had 10 All-Americans, most recently with Sam Gaviglio, who was honored at the conclusion of the 2011 season.

Oregon State And Team USA

Oregon State has begun a new tradition. Over the last six seasons, the Beavers have had their first Olympian and five other players who have been named to the Team USA National Team.
In 2008, Brian Barden played in eight of Team USA's nine games in Beijing as the Red, White and Blue took home the bronze medal.

 In 2005, teammates Kevin Gunderson and Jonah Nickerson became the first Beavers to play for the USA National Team.

• Darwin Barney became the third Beaver to play for Team USA in 2006.

Kevin Gunderson was an All-American in 2006

• In 2008, Kevin Rhoderick became the fourth Oregon State player to earn a spot on the national team.

• Matt Boyd is the most recent Team USA playere when he competed for the Collegiate National Team in 2011.

One Of The Nation's Finest Ballparks

• That can certainly be the title bestowed upon Goss Stadium at Coleman Field as the venerable facility underwent an expansion during the 2008 season.

 Oregon State has played on its home site since 1907, the program's first year. And in 2009, Goss Stadium was expanded to its current state.

 The ballpark now has 2,798 permanent seats and capacity can reach nearly 3,300 when temporary outfield seating is installed.

• Oregon State played 30 home games in 2011 and set a program record in attendance, totaling 68,558 fans. That was an average of 2,285, also a school record.

 New features to the ballpark include the Omaha Room, a club level down the right field line, and a new player's lounge adjacent to the third base dugout. The Beavers also installed a Hall of Fame Room and Academic Room, both of which are located underneath the club level.

• Oregon State is one of just a few Pac-12 teams to have a videoboard and the Beavers were the first to install one, doing so in 2007.

On The Road

 Oregon State regularly plays to a big fan base wherever it travels. That was never more evident when Oregon State and Oregon set a Pacific-10 Conference record with a crowd of 15,540 during the Civil War at PGE Park in 2009. The third game of the series subsequently drew 13,709, for a total of 29,249 over the two games.

• Last year, away from Goss Stadium, the Beavers played in crowds that averaged 1,664. All told, OSU finished 2011 with a total attendance of 115,174.

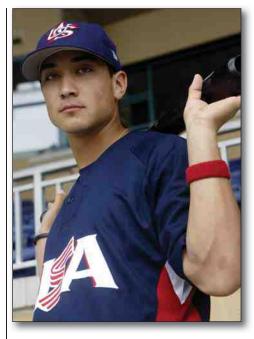

Media Exposure

 Oregon State is one of the most media friendly teams in the nation and is regularly covered by a number of newspapers, television stations and radio stations.

• Oregon State has been the center of features by Baseball America, USA Today, Collegiate Baseball and many other national publications over the last few years.

 Oregon State regularly plays in front of television audiences on ROOT SPORTS (formerly FSN Northwest) and ESPN. Oregon State has appeared on TV or national streaming video 20 times the last two seasons.

• The Beavers enjoy one of the best radio packages on the West Coast. Every game this season is scheduled to air live on the Beaver Sports Network and online on Beaver Nation Online. • In 2008, the Beavers, through the Pac-10, appeared on XM Radio three times during the season to reach a national audience.

Darwin Barney played for Team USA in 2006

The Pac-12 Conference

• Oregon State calls the Pac-12 Conference home and has so at various points since the 1916 season. The Beavers joined the conference for good in 1946.

• The Pac-12 is called the "Conference of Champions" for a reason. Arguably the nation's top collegiate baseball conference, it holds the national record with 26 national titles. That is 16 titles more than the second-place conference, the Big 12, which last won a title in 2005.

• At least one Pac-12 Conference team has appeared in the national title game or series in seven of the last 14 seasons.

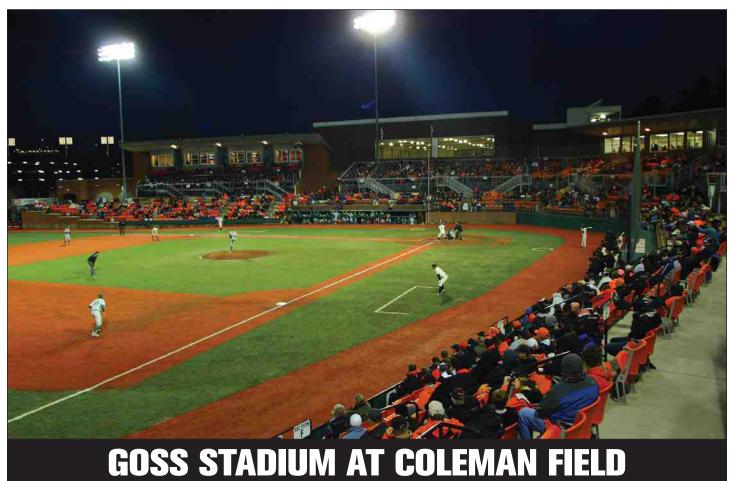

• There have been 62 College World Series tournaments and Pac-12 clubs have finished first or second 41 times.

• At least one Pac-12 team has advanced to the College World Series in every season dating back to 1997.

 Pac-12 clubs have won 237 games all-time at the College World Series. The Pac-12 is the only conference to have won more than 170 games at the World Series.

• Six of the Pac-12's 11 currrent baseball teams have won at least two national titles. USC leads the nation with 12, although the Trojans have not been national champions since the 1998 season.

GOSS STADIUM AT COLEMAN FIELD

One Of The Nation's Finest Ballparks

The Oregon State baseball team hosted its fourth NCAA Regional in 2011 at venerable Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, and the support the club receives at its home diamond helped the Beavers to an NCAA Super Regional appearance.

Nearly 69,000 fans attended games at Goss Stadium in 2011, an average of 2,285 per, setting school records for a single season. Oregon State went 23-7 at home in 2011, just the fifth time in program history the Beavers won 20 or more; the 23 is good for third in school history.

Goss, which has stood on the Oregon State campus since 1907, is now the oldest continuous ballpark in the nation. The Beavers have played at the site of Goss Stadium since the program began play more than 100 years ago.

The stadium itself has undergone numerous changes - including numerous renovations and expansions - but the playing field itself has stood in place since day one.

And just like day one, Goss, formerly known just as Coleman Field, has hosted games in front of one of the best fanbases in the nation.

In 2009, the Beavers played in a newly expanded Goss Stadium that brought capacity to nearly 3,300. And it paid off as a then-record average 2,218 fans saw the Beavers play 22 home games.

A project spearheaded by head coach Pat Casey expanded the stadium prior to the 2009 season gave the ballpark a facelift. Nearly 1,000 seats were added down the left and right field lines, enabling more Oregon State fans to witness one of the top programs in the nation.

The seating addition is far from the only change fans saw beginning last season. A stadium suite, called the Omaha Room, now looms over right field with seating for approximately 70. Modeled after the club level at football's Reser Stadium, it can also be used for team banquets and other various events.

Underneath the Omaha Room are two new rooms -- an academic room and a Hall of Fame room. The academic room and Hall of Fame area are utilized to celebrate the fine history at Oregon State and to allow its current student-athletes the chance to excel in the classroom.

Last, but certainly not least, is a new player's lounge located underneath the left field stands that gives Oregon State players the chance to relax before games and unwind afterwards.

The expansion completed a string of stadium upgrades as a video board located in right field was installed prior to the 2007 season. The board was the first of its kind in the Pacific-10 Conference and allows fans to watch replays and enjoy capabilities rivaled by Major League stadiums.

Attendance has spiked at the campus park. The Beavers saw an average of 1,899 per home game in 2008, including a mark of nearly 2,200 over the last 14 games of the season. In 2007, Oregon State fans went through the turnstiles at then-record rates. Oregon State averaged 2,005 fans per game at Goss in 2007, up from 1,642 in 2006 -- the Beavers' first NCAA title season. In 2005, the same season as OSU's first trip to Omaha since 1952, the Beavers averaged 1,484 fans.

In fact, in each of the four seasons Oregon State has hosted a regional or super regional, each game, totaling 16 in all, surpassed the 2,000 mark in attendance. Also, the Beavers saw crowds of 3,000 or better in eight of those 16 games.

Oregon State rode that wave of support to an incredible home-field advantage. OSU went 23-7 at home last season and over the past six seasons, the Beavers are 145-44 (.767) at home, keeping in line with the team's all-time winning ways. In 103 years at what is now Goss Stadium -- and 101 seasons -- OSU is 1,065-457-1 at home, posting an impressive .699 winning percentage.

Pat Casey, now in his 18th season at Oregon State, has utilized Goss Stadium, taking the fans' passions and his team's talents and turning them into wins. In 17 years, Casey's clubs have posted a 282-120 (.701) mark at home. In 2005, Oregon State set a program record with 26 home wins. A year later, the Beavers set the record again, finishing with 27 wins at venerable Goss Stadium. and one of the oldest college fields in the country.

When Goss Stadium was added to Coleman Field in 1999, OSU owned not only one of the most historic home ballparks in the country but one of the finest, as well.

Over the past nine decades, the campus has grown around Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, making it one of the most picturesque settings in college baseball. The ballpark is a short walk down Waldo Place from the Memorial Union and OSU's central campus area, making it easy for students to stop by a game between classes.

Casey, just one four coaches in the past 60 years at Oregon State, has seen two of the most significant stages of Goss Stadium. Previous to the 2009 expansion, in 1999, the park, then known just as Coleman Field, saw a major renovation. That renovation brought improved seating areas, a new press box and improved locker rooms and dugouts.

Nine years later, and with the completion of the new seating areas, Casey and Oregon State fans uneveiled a ballpark he had strived for since coming to Corvallis prior to the 1995 season.

Over the past decade, Goss Stadium has seen other improvements. In the spring of 2002, lights were added to the ballpark, making night games a possibility. And prior to the 2007 season, a new scoreboard with video replay capabilities went up in right-center field. During that same period, the Beavers got a new playing surface in the infield as FieldTurf was installed. The outfield remains natural grass.

The stadium's videoboard is the first of its kind in the Pacific-10 (now Pac-12) Conference. Located in right center field, it is a welcome addition to the historic ballpark. Fans have the opportunity to watch replays, catch game highlights from past Oregon State victories and keep abreast of play in other conference games. As one of the few teams in the nation with a videoboard, the Beavers have the ability to provide a true gameday experience.

Goss Stadium at Coleman Field has an interesting history, to say the least.

When Oregon State began fielding a varsity baseball team in 1907, the school laid out a diamond on a lot just south of the main campus. A century later, that same site still serves as the home of the Beavers, making Goss Stadium at Coleman Field the oldest diamond in the Pacific-10 Conference

The field is named for former Oregon State player and coach Ralph Coleman, who guided the Beavers for 35 seasons from 1923-66. The stadium is named for John and Eline Goss, whose major lead gift to the $2.3-million fundraising effort made the project possible.

John Goss was an Oregon State track and field letterman in the 1930s. The naming of the stadium is also a memorial to his older brother, James Goss, an Oregon State graduate.

John and Elaine Goss made additional contributions to OSU toward endowed scholarships for student/athletes and other top academic students, including graduates of Portland's Grant High and members of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Over the 2005 and 2006 seasons, when Oregon State won back-toback Pacific-10 championships, advanced to the College World Series and won the 2006 national title, the Beavers went 53-9 at home. In both those seasons, OSU won both the NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals in its own ballpark, giving national cable television audiences a look at the Beavers' diamond.

The park is symmetrical, measuring 330 feet down the foul lines, 365 to the power alleys and 400 to center. The fence is 14 feet high from left field to left-center, then eight feet high from left-center to right field.

The concrete, steel and brick structure has a press box, a lobby/concession area, restrooms, locker rooms, dugouts and storage areas. The stadium was designed to complement the architecture of the surrounding campus, and to evoke the aura of baseball's historic parks.

The first game after the addition of Goss Stadium to Coleman Field was on March 12, 1999, when defending national champion Southern California topped the Beavers 5-2. The stadium was dedicated on April 17, 1999 as OSU beat California 11-5 before a crowd of 1,246 and a national cable television audience.

The ballpark saw its first night game on April 26, 2002, as the Beavers beat fourth-ranked Stanford 3-1. A set of lights meeting professional Class Triple-A standards was installed that spring thanks to the generosity of longtime OSU boosters Bert and Shirley Babb.

Goss Stadium at Coleman Field has batting cages behind the left-field fence. When conditions call for indoor practice, the Beavers head for OSU's Truax Indoor Practice Facility, which opened in August, 2001.

The addition of Goss Stadium to Coleman Field ended years of speculation over whether the Beavers would be able to remain playing baseball at their longtime home.

As Oregon State expanded, land near the center of campus became scarce and the school's master plan called for the site to eventually be turned over to academic uses.

In 1961, The Oregonian newspaper noted: "In the not-too-distant future, Oregon State baseball hopefuls won't have railroad tracks as a long-distance batting target. Coleman Field will eventually hold no basepaths, only buildings in this era of construction for higher education. Already one classroom building for this site is beyond the drawing board stage."

For over 30 years, that possibility prevented any major improvements to Coleman Field. Longterm plans for the OSU campus called for moving the baseball field southeast of the intersection of Western Boulevard and 26th Street.

In 1996, the baseball program explored building a press box and storage/concession building at Coleman Field. The possibility of building a stadium was also looked into, and that gradually became the goal of the baseball program and many Beaver boosters.

The generous donation from the Goss family was the key to a private fundraising effort in the late 1990s. The ballpark's name would be ammended to Goss Stadium at Coleman Field in their honor in 1999.

Head Coach • 18th Year 578-356-4 (Oregon State) 749-469-5 (23 years overall) #5

George Fox, '90

Oregon State head coach Pat Casey guided the Beavers to 41 wins during the season in 2011, reaching the 30-win plateau for the 11th time in his 17 seasons in Corvallis.

In doing so, Casey guided the Beavers to their third regional host nomination since 2005, and Oregon State advanced to the postseason for the sixth time in the past seven seasons, the best stretch in the history of the program.

He was named the 2011 Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year for the third time, previously reaching the accomplishment in 2005 and 2006.

Casey is the second-winningest coach in school history, and has guided Oregon State to two national championships and two Pac-10 titles. He has won an outstanding 33 games in the postseason, which accounts for better than 85 percent of the program's all-time NCAA wins.

Arguably one of the most successful active Division-I head coaches in the country, Casey has established a level of winning unrivaled in the program's history.

Prior to the start of the 2010 season, he was named as the top collegiate coach of the last decade by Baseball America in a vote by his peers. The Beavers, meanwhile, were named as the No. 2 program of the decade, trailing only Texas. The Beavers and Casey earned the special recognition after winning back-to-back national championships in 2006 and 2007 and winning Pacific-10 Conference titles in 2005 and 2006.

Perhaps an even more special honor was bestowed upon Casey just prior. He and his wife, Susan, were recipients of the Nell and John Wooden Coaching Achievement Award. The honor goes to a head coach and his spouse for their dedication to success on the field and in making an impact on the lives of their players.

Truly, Pat Casey has been the right person to led Oregon State baseball over the last decade and a half.

In the past seven seasons alone, Casey has guided the Beavers to 315 victories, which is second in the Pac-10. During that same stretch, Casey's clubs have won 97 conference games, which is second-most among division clubs.

In that seven-year stretch, seven players have earned All-America honors while 19 players have been recognized as All-Pac-10 performers. That includes two league Most Valuable Player awards and two Defensive Player of the Year selections.

The Beavers reached the postseason for the fifth time in six seasons in 2010, advancing to the Gainesville Regional. The Beavers bowed out in three games, but just days after, the Beavers had eight players selected in the MLB Draft, seven of whom would eventually sign their first professional contracts.

Casey and the Beavers advanced to the championship game of the Fort Worth Regional in 2009. Oregon State finished the 2009 campaign with a 37-19 record and 15-12 mark in Pac-10 play, tying the club for third.

On May 19, 2009, Casey became just the third head coach in school history to record 500 victories with the Beavers when OSU defeated Oregon. His 537 wins at the start of 2011 sits in third place in school history.

In 2008, Casey and the Beavers went 28-24 and missed out on the postseason. But the Beavers played perhaps their most ambitious schedule in school history and took series from five schools that earned either No. 1 or No. 2 seeds in NCAA Regionals. Oregon State posted a 5-5 record against College World Series teams, taking 2-of-3 in separate series against Arizona State and Georgia.

In 2008, Casey made marks on the program, literally. He spearheaded a fundrasing campaign to expand Goss Stadium, adding nearly 1,000 permanent seats, a stadium suite, new player's lounge, academic room and Hall of Fame room. The additions transformed Goss Stadium from one of the best in the West into one of the nation's finest collegiate stadiums.

In 2007, Casey, his staff and the team's players worked hard to build team chemistry, coming together at the right time for a second-straight national championship. Oregon State went an incredible 39-4 in non-conference games, including an 11-1 mark in the postseason. After losing their second game at the Charlottesville Regional, the Beavers went on a dynamic run, winning their last 10 games -- including five in Omaha -- to claim the national title.

That title thrusted Oregon State into NCAA baseball lore. The Beavers became just the fifth program to win back-to-back national titles, joining Texas (1949-50), USC (1970-74), Stanford (1987-88) and LSU (1996-97).

For his ability to mold the Beavers into the nation's finest, Casey was again recognized as a national coach of the year, this time by Collegiate Baseball and the American Baseball Coaches Association. The honors comes a year after Casey was the consensus national coach of the year in leading Oregon State to its first title.

That 2006 title was just as special, as the Beavers became the first program from the Pacific Northwest to the NCAA Division I College World Series.

The 2006 Beavers had a storybook season, capped by a run through the CWS that saw them win six elimination games in Omaha to win the national championship. After being beaten by Miami (Fla.) in its opening game, OSU won four straight - including back-to-back shutouts of topranked Rice - to reach the championship series. In the best-of-three finals against North Carolina, OSU lost the opening game and trailed by five runs in the second game before rallying for wins of 11-7 and 3-2 for the title.

Oregon State's 50-16 season set a school record for wins for the second straight season, and the Beavers refuse-to-lose style of play captured the hearts of not only those watching in Omaha, but college baseball fans across the nation.

After the 2006 season, Oregon State signed Casey to a new 10-year contract to guarantee his future in Corvallis. Casey had become an attractive candidate for coaching vacancies at a number of high-profile schools given the Beavers' amazing success.

In retaining Casey, Oregon State instantly kept its most successful coach in Corvallis. It also allowed the Beavers to have the knowledge they have one of the most recognized coaches in the nation. In 2006, after winning the team's first title, was Casey was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA).

In 2005, he was named the Pac-10's Coach of the Year after guiding the Beavers to their first of two straight conference titles. He earned the honor again in 2006 with the second title. In both years, he was recognized as the ABCA's West Region Coach of the Year.

With back-to-back titles comes increased exposure. For the second time under Casey's tenure, Oregon State has expanded the Beavers' home field, and both times, Casey has been a driving force behind the renovations.

In 1999, Oregon State expanded what is now known as Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, adding increased seating, improved locker rooms and a full press box.

And Casey and the Beavers have rewarded the fans with increased chances to watch the team play. In each of their three College World Series years, the Beavers played a super regional at venerable Goss, and it has paid off. Oregon State has gone 6-1 at super regionals in Corvallis, defeating USC, Stanford and Michigan.

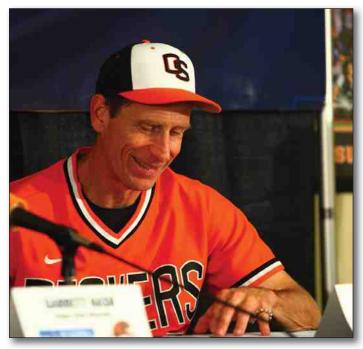

In 2005 and 2006, Casey earned both the Pacific-10 Conference and NCAA West Region Coach of the Year honors for guiding the Beavers to back-to-back Pac-10 championships and berths in the CWS.

Since Casey became Oregon State's head coach prior to the 1995 season, the Beavers have moved into a prominent position on the national scene.

OSU has had players earn spots on the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team five times, earn All-America honors 13 times, and had players taken in the top 10 rounds of the Major League Baseball draft 35 times - including first-rounders Jacoby Ellsbury in 2005 and Kunz and Canham in 2007. Ellsbury became Oregon State's first former player to win a Major League World Series when he and the Boston Red Sox won their second title in four seasons in 2007.

In 2005, OSU had been picked to finish sixth in the Pacific-10 in the annual coaches poll; Casey guided the Beavers to the Pac-10 championship and the College World Series. OSU's 46-12 record was a school record for wins in a season, the Beavers' No. 7 finish in the the final polls was Oregon State's highest ever, and OSU's No. 2 ranking during the season was the highest it had ever climbed in the national rankings.

Casey was also named Co-Coach of the Year in the Pacific-10 Northern Division for the 1997 season, and the Beavers have set numerous school records during Casey's time at OSU.

Casey was instrumental in the drive to build Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, the 1999 renovation to Oregon State's longtime ballpark. The OSU head coach was heavily-involved in fundraising for the $2.3 million project; when the go-ahead was given for construction, he had a hand in the ballpark's design to assure that it would be one of the most user-friendly facilities in college baseball. In 2002, the ballpark also received its first set of lights for night play.

For the 2007 season, a new scoreboard with video replay capabilities and a new FieldTurf infield were installed at Goss Stadium at Coleman Field. In all, Casey has been a guiding force in each step of renovation at Goss, and those improvements have made the picturesque ballpark one of the finest in the nation and in the Pac-10.

Oregon State hired Casey in the summer of 1994, asking him to follow in the large footsteps of Jack Riley, who retired after 22 seasons as head coach.

Most of the key players from OSU's 1994 Northern Division pennantwinning team had graduated, but Casey's first season saw the Beavers battle to a winning record of 25-24-1 in 1995. That set the stage for one of the finest three-year runs in the long history of baseball at Oregon State.

In 1996, the Beavers posted a 32-16-1 record and went into the final weekend of the season with a chance to win the Pac-10 Northern Division pennant. In 1997, Oregon State set a school record for wins in the regular season with a record of 38-12-1 and took postseason hopes into the final weekend.

In 1998, Oregon State broke into the national rankings for the first time in four years and went 35-14-1. The season included series sweeps of Arizona, which was ranked in the top 10 at the time, and UCLA.

In 2001, Oregon State again made a strong bid for the postseason, finishing with a 31-24 record. OSU had five wins over teams ranked in the final Baseball Weekly/USA Today coaches poll of the regular season and had a 10-9 record against schools selected for the NCAA Regionals.

In 2004, OSU's 7-0 start was the school's best in 42 years. That team had a then-school-record six players selected in the MLB draft and another

Casey came to OSU after seven seasons at George Fox College, a NAIA school in his hometown of Newberg, Ore. Under Casey, the Bruins went 171-113-1 (.602) overall and were 155-54-1 against NAIA competition; they won three District 2 titles, five Metro Valley Conference titles and two Cascade Conference titles.

During his time at George Fox, Casey was named Coach of the Year three times in District 2, four times in the Metro Valley Conference and twice in the Cascade Conference.

Casey earned his bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from George Fox in 1990. He played for the University of Portland from 1978-80 and was a first-team All-NorPac Conference outfielder his final two seasons. He was a second-team All-Region selection in 1980. He also lettered in basketball one season.

After being drafted in the 10th round by the San Diego Padres in 1980, Casey played seven professional seasons. He reached Class AAA with the Calgary Cannons in 1985-86 and the Portland Beavers in 1987.

After concluding his professional playing career, Casey took over George Fox's baseball program; while coaching the baseball team, he also played basketball for the Bruins while completing his degree.

Casey, 52, was born in McMinnville, Ore. He graduated in 1977 from Newberg High, where he starred in football, basketball and baseball.

He and his wife, Susan, have four children -Jonathan (24), Brett (23), Ellie (19) and Joseph (12).

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH MARTY LEES

MARTY LEES

Associate Head Coach • 11th Year Defense • Infielders • Catchers Third Base Coach • Recruiting Coordinator #7

Western Oregon, '94

Marty Lees is in his 11th season with the Oregon State baseball team, and prior to the 2010 campaign, was promoted to the position of associate head coach for Oregon State after spending the previous eight seasons as an assistant coach.

Lees has made a steady impact on the Beavers in each of his areas, turning the Beavers into a top defensive squad season after season and helping deliver top recruiting classes in just two years as the team's coordinator.

The Beavers are one of the nation's top defensive teams on a yearly basis, and owe a large portion of that success to Lees' tutelage of infielders and catchers. In 2009, for the third straight season, the Beavers ranked in the top 20 nationally in fielding percentage, posting a .977 mark, which tied a school record and placed the Beavers in a tie for sixth nationally and first in the Pacific-10 Conference.

In 2011, his tutelage helped produce five infielders and catchers who earned All-Pac-10 honors, including Kavin Keyes, a first-teamer who had joined the club after foregoing his senior year of high school. Of the five, two, were drafted, including Andrew Susac, who went in the second round.

The Beavers finished the 2010 season with a .973 fielding percentage, placing the team 28th nationally. OSU finished the 2011 season with a .972 fielding percentage.

As recruiting coordinator, Lees has established a level of excellence in just five full seasons with the title. Lees has an eye for talent and it has shown in his national recruiting rankings, in which the Beavers have placed in the top 25 every season under him.

Most recently, his recruiting class for the 2012 season was ranked seventh nationally by Baseball America and ninth by Collegiate Baseball.

Other recruiting classes have been ranked in the top 15 multiple times: in 2008, it was third, followed by a No. 12 spot in 2009 and the 2011 crop of recruits was ranked as high as 12th.

During Oregon State's two national title runs and three straight visits to the College World Series from 2005-2007, pitching and defense were at the forefront.

In 2007, en route to its second straight national title, Lees' defense made school history for the third straight year. The Beavers posted a .977 fielding percentage -- second in the Pac-10 and second nationally -- just a year after posting a then-school record mark of .975. In 2005, Oregon State finished the season with a .969 fielding percentage, then a program best.

During that time, the Beavers also increased their ability at turing two. In 2005, Oregon State turned 52 double plays. In 2006, that number jumped up to 62, while in 2007, the Beavers turned 69. In 2007, the team ranked 22nd nationally with 1.03 double plays turned per game

From 2005 through 2010, nine starting OSU infielders who were eligible to turn professional were either selected in the Major League Baseball draft or signed free agent contracts with MLB teams. Most recently, Stefen Romero signed a professional contract with Seattle after a fine OSU career. Darwin Barney, a former OSU shortstop, became the 23rd former Beaver to reach the Major Leagues when he made his debut for the Chicago Cubs in 2010.

The Pac-10 began its Defensive Player of the Year award in 2006, and the initial recipient was Kunda. The shortstop in 2005 and 2006, Barney, was named the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year in 2005 and was selected to Team USA, the United States national team that plays an international summer schedule, in 2006.

Lees became a full-time assistant coach in 2004, having spent the 2002 and 2003 seasons as OSU's volunteer assistant coach. In addition to overseeing OSU's team defense, Lees supervises the Beavers' baserunning and coaches third base.

Lees earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Oregon in 1994. Lees also attended Lane Community College, playing baseball and basketball. He graduated from Lakeview High School.

Lees and his wife, Kristy, have three sons, Brandon (12), Brady (10) and Jacob (6).

ASSISTANT COACH PAT BAILEY

PAT BAILEY

Assistant Coach • 5th Year Outfielders #27

Idaho, '78

Pat Bailey is in his fifth season as an assistant coach with the Oregon State baseball team. In 2011, he helped guide the Beavers to their third consecutive postseason appearance and the sixth in seven years.

In 2011, the club's outfielders included Ryan Barnes, who, after not playing a significant role in 2010, started 44 games and drove in 25 runs, as well as Brian Stamps, an MLB draftee who tallied 11 doubles and seven stolen bases.

Bailey's center fielder in 2010, Adalberto Santos, was the team's most dangerous player last season, leading the team in triples and was among the team's leaders in batting average and home runs. Santos was later selected in the 22nd round of the MLB Draft by Pittsburgh and was named one of the New York-Penn League's top prospects.

In 2009, his second year with OSU, the team's hitting and outfield coach inherited a host of position players who were new to the program or who had seen little playing time in previous seasons. Bailey helped mold players such as Adalberto Santos, Stefen Romero and Michael Miller into everyday contributors who played key roles in the team's lineup. Santos was named to the All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention team in the process while Romero led OSU with five home runs.

Bailey came to Oregon State prior to the 2008 season. In his first year, he oversaw Daniel Robertson's senior season, guiding the outfielder to All-Conference honorable mention honors. Robertson hit .327 and was drafted in the 33rd round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by San Diego; he was named the Most Valuable Player of the Northwest League in his first professional season.

Bailey came to Oregon State prior to the 2008 season after spending 12 seasons at George Fox, winning a Division III national title with the Bruins in 2004.

Bailey, 53, compiled a 353-158 record and earned National Coach of the Year honors after that 2004 national title. He was an eight-time Northwest Conference Coach of the Year honoree.

During Bailey's tenure, the Bruins won or shared eight Northwest Conference titles. George Fox advanced to the NCAA tournament six times and to the NAIA playoffs twice before moving to the NCAA.

George Fox did not have a losing season during Bailey's time at the school, and he is the winningest baseball coach in the school's history. The Northwest Conference shifted from the NAIA to the NCAA in 2000, and since then the Bruins rank among the nation's top 20 schools at that level in wins with a 215-94 record.

In 2004, Bailey's team became the first George Fox squad in any sport to win an NCAA national championship. The Bruins went 40-10 overall, setting a new single-season record for wins and tying the record for best winning percentage at .800.

After tying for the 2004 NWC title, George Fox earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. The Bruins swept through four games at the NCAA West Regional in Orange, Calif., and then posted a 5-1 record at the Division III World Series in Appleton, Wis., beat-ing Eastern Connecticut State 6-3 in the championship game. All nine of George Fox's postseason wins came against nationally ranked teams, and four of its five wins in the World Series were against pitchers who were first- or second-team All-Americans.

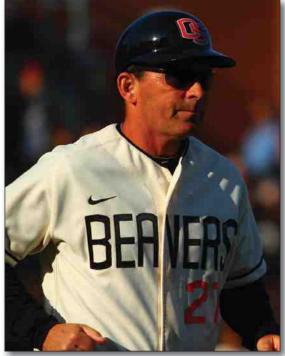

Seven of Bailey's George Fox players signed professional contracts, including five members of the national championship team. His players earned 10 All-America honors and four Academic All-America honors.

At George Fox, he was also associate director of athletics, director of the Bruin Athletic Association for athletic support, chair of the school's Sports Hall of Fame committee, and a teacher in the Department of Business and Economics.

Bailey earned his business education degree from the University of Idaho in 1978 and his master of education degree in educational administration from Oregon in 1983. Bailey earned two letters in baseball at Idaho and was the team captain.

Bailey graduated in 1974 from Moscow (Idaho) High School, where he played football, basketball and baseball, being named the baseball team's Most Valuable Player.

Bailey and his wife, Susan, have two children: son Alex, who played baseball for George Fox in 2003; and daughter Ann. His daughter, Ann, is married to Collin Schneider and they have one child, Adlai, 1.

ASSISTANT COACH NATE YESKIE

NATE YESKIE

Assistant Coach • 4th Year Pitchers #21

UNLV, '03

Former professional pitcher Nate Yeskie is in his fourth season as an assistant coach at Oregon State and guides the team's pitching staff.

The Oregon State staff finished the season with a team ERA of 3.14 in 2011, which is the lowest since 2005 and the second-lowest since 1979.

Yeskie's staff included Sam Gaviglio, who won 12 games and was named an All-American and at one point was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award, as well as Tony Bryant, who saved 12 games. Josh Osich threw the program's first complete-game no-hitter since 1947 when the Beavers defeated UCLA, 2-0, on April 30.

In just three seasons at Oregon State, he has seen his pitchers earn a total of nine all-league honors and three All-American and Freshman All-American nominations.

In 2010, his second year at OSU, Yeskie oversaw a staff that helped guide the club to the Gainesville Regional and at the end of the year, had six pitchers selected in the first nine rounds of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, the most ever in Beavers' history.

The team ranked in the top 50 nationally in earned run average, hits allowed per nine innings, strikeouts per nine innings and least number of walks per nine innings.

In 2009, his first year at OSU, the Beavers' staff played a big part in the team advancing to the Fort Worth Regional. The club sported an ERA of 3.93, good for eighth in the nation while the team was sixth in hits per nine innings.

A number of individual pitchers had fine seasons, including Sam Gaviglio, who set a team freshman record with 10 victories.

Yeskie has impacted the Oregon State staff by bringing an organized and professional approach to the game, utilizing tools and techniques from stops in Minor League baseball and the collegiate game.

Yeskie served as the pitching coach at his alma mater, UNLV, from 2005 to 2007. During his tenure with the Runnin' Rebels, Yeskie mentored eight players who earned either an All-Conference or All-Tournament Team selection. In 2005, Yeskie's staff helped enable UNLV to win the Mountain West Conference regular season, the MWC Tournament and earn a berth to the Tempe Regional.

Eight UNLV pitchers who were tutored by Yeskie in his three seasons were been selected by Major League Baseball clubs, while another signed as an undrafted free agent.

Prior to returning to UNLV as a coach, Yeskie spent five seasons in the Minnesota Twins Minor League system, reaching as high as Double-A New Britain. He finished with a 27-24 record and 4.91 earned run average over the five seasons. Yeskie went 11-7 with Fort Wayne of the Midwest League in 1997, recording 111 strikeouts in 165 1/3 innings of work. In 2000, his last season, the La Crosse, Wis., native went 4-1 in 21 appearances.

In the 1999 offseason, Yeskie played for the Grand Canyon Rafters of the Arizona Fall League, a league often reserved for the top professional prospects.

During his time in professional baseball, Yeskie worked with former Detroit Tigers pitching coach and current Kansas City Minor League Pitching Coordinator Rick Knapp as well as MLB veterans Bert Blyleven, Mel Stottlemyre, Jr., and former pitching coach Billy Connors, who once held the position of Director of Player Personnel with the New York Yankees.

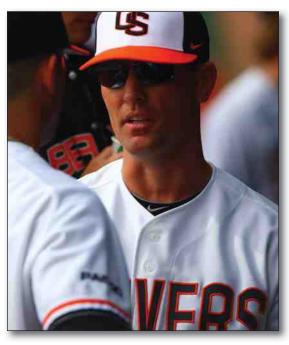

Yeskie came to the Twins organization after being drafted in the ninth round of the 1996 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Minnesota selected the right-hander after he finished his UNLV career with a 22-12 mark, including 16 complete games.

In 1994, 1995 and 1996, Yeskie was invited to five Team USA Olympic Trial appearances. He was also rated as the sixth-best MLB Draft prospect entering his junior year at UNLV.

A three-year letterwinner, his 147 strikeouts in 1995 still stand as UNLV's single-season record. The mark was also fifth-best nationally that season, and coupled with his nine complete games – which led the Big West Conference – earned him First-Team All-Big West and First-Team All-Region honors.

Yeskie was drafted in the sixth round of the 1993 draft by the Los Angeles Dodgers after a stellar high school career at Carson High, one that saw him set a number of school records. En route to earning first-team All-America honors in 1993, he finished with a 12-0 record and a school record for strikeouts in a season (158) and strikeouts in a game (20).

Yeskie married the former Brittney Belshe, a former Oregon State volleyball player, in January 2012. The couple resides in Corvallis.

COACHING STAFF

RYAN GIPSON

Undergraduate Assistant Coach

Former Oregon State infielder Ryan Gipson is in his second season as an undergraduate assistant coach with the Beavers after rejoining the program for the 2011 season.

Gipson lettered for the Beavers during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, going to Omaha each season and helping the club win a national title in 2006. He played in 79 career games for OSU, with 66 starts, and batted .270 with 10 doubles, a home run and 36 RBI.

Gipson batted .330 with six doubles, a home run, 22 RBI and nine stolen bases in 2005, his junior season, and earned all-Pacific-10 Conference honorable mention honors.

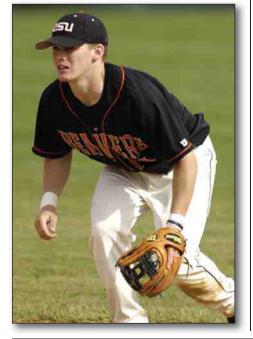

He appeared in a total of 11 games in the postseason during his career, including 10 starts, and rapped out nine hits in 29 at bats (.310). He was fourth on the team with seven RBI during the 2005 postseason.

After spending the 2011 season as an undergraduate assistant coach, he took a youth team to the USA Baseball NTIS tournament this past summer. The team was made up of collegiate players from the Pacific Northwest.

Gipson, a native of Central Point, Ore., transferred to Oregon State prior to the 2005 season from Shasta Junior College.

He batted .358 as a sophomore and was named to the all-league team. In his first collegiate season, at Shasta, he batted .344 with 22 stolen bases.

Gipson majored in sociology while a student-athlete with the Beavers.

ANDY JENKINS

Undergraduate Assistant Coach

Former Oregon State infielder Andy Jenkins returns to Corvallis as an undergraduate assistant coach with the Beavers for the 2012 season.

Jenkins lettered for the Beavers in 2004 and 2005, helping guide the team to its first visit to the College World Series in more than 50 years his junior season.

His .388 average as a senior in 2005 still stands as the ninth-best figure in team history. He also had 56 runs batted in that season, which led the club.

Jenkins, a native of Salem, Ore., was also the most prolific Beaver offensively during the team's postseason run. He batted .459 - leading the team by more than 100 points - and tallied two home runs, two doubles and 13 RBI while slugging .784.

He ended his two-year Oregon State career having played in 98 games, batting .343 with 12 home runs, 15 doubles, 86 RBI and 41 walks while striking out just 44 in more than 340 at bats.

After his Oregon State career, Jenkins was selected in the 11th round of the 2005 MLB First-Year Player Draft by Florida. He played six seasons in the Minor Leagues with Florida and Texas, reaching the Triple-A level in 2009 and 2010. His six-year career saw him tally 2,341 plate appearances and he batted .268 with 32 home runs, 116 doubles, eight triples and 277 RBI.

Jenkins came to Oregon State after a twoyear career at Mt. Hood Community College where he batted .358 as a sophomore, and as a freshman, was named first-team all-league at catcher.

JARED NORRIS

Undergraduate Assistant Coach

A three-year letterwinner for Oregon State, Jared Norris is in his first season as an undergraduate assistant coach for the Beavers.

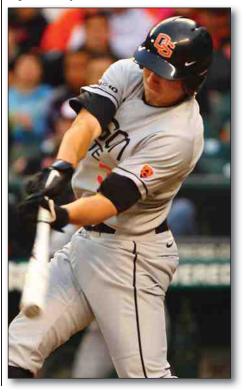

Norris played in 156 games for the Beavers from 2009-11, starting in 110. He played both first base and right field for Oregon State, helping the team to NCAA Regionals berths each season and the 2011 club advanced to the Nashville Super Regional.

Norris batted .284 during his career, finishing with 16 doubles, one triple, eight home runs and 72 runs batted in. He walked 81 times and struck out 82 while posting an on-base percentage of .410 and a fielding percentage of .985.

Norris, a native of Urbandale, Iowa, had his best season statisically in 2009, his sophomore campaign and first year with Oregon State. He drove in 36 and batted .331 with four doubles and three home runs. He was named an All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention selection after the season.

He came to Corvallis after one season at Yavapai College in Arizona. With Yavapai, he batted .300 with 23 doubles, two home runs and 41 RBI.

He earned All-State honors three times while at Urbandale High School. He batted .493 with 13 home runs and 50 RBI as a senior, earning State Player of the Year honors.

2012 OREGON STATE BASEBALL SUPPORT STAFF

RON NORTHCUTT

Director of Operations 7th Year

Ron Northcutt is in his seventh season as Director of Baseball Operations and 11th overall with the Oregon State baseball program. Prior to his tenure as Director of Baseball Operations, Northcutt served as a pitching coach for four seasons.

As Director of Operations, Northcutt plays a large role in the team's travel, camp operations and any day-to-day needs of the Oregon State baseball team.

Northcutt came to Oregon State in 1994 and served as the team's pitching coach through the 1998 season. While overseeing the staff, his pitchers led the Pac-10 North Division in earned run average in 1996 and 1997. While with OSU, Northcutt tutored Mark Newell, who was a third-team All-American selection by Baseball America in 1997, as well as Andrew Checketts, who earned NCBWA All-America second team honors in 1998. From 1995, Northcutt's first season with the Beavers, through 1998, the Beavers saw six pitchers earned All-Pac-10 Northern Division honors.

Additionally, eight pitchers were selected by Major League clubs in the First-Year Player Draft during Northcutt's tenure.

Prior to coming to Corvallis, Northcutt served as an assistant coach under Pat Casey at George Fox. He began his coaching career as a freshman coach and varsity assistant at his alma mater, Newberg High, in Newberg, Ore.

After playing at Newberg, Northcutt went on to play for Clackamas Community College, where he earned all-league honors, and the University of Portland. A native of Los Gatos, Calif., Northcutt and his wife, Linnea, have two sons, Ben, 20, and Jack, 17.

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

Oregon State is a leading research university located in one of the safest, smartest, greenest small cities in the nation. Situated 90 miles south of Portland, and an hour from the Cascades or the Pacific Coast, Corvallis is the perfect home base for exploring Oregon's natural wonders.

Oregon State University has always been a place with a purpose — making a positive difference in quality of life, natural resources and economic prosperity in Oregon and beyond. Through discovery, innovation and application, we are meeting challenges, solving problems and turning ideas into reality.

Founded in 1868, Oregon State is the state's Land Grant university and is one of only two universities in the U.S. to have Sea Grant, Space Grant and Sun Grant designations. Oregon State is also the only university in the Oregon to hold both the Carnegie Foundation's top designation for research institutions and its prestigious Community Engagement classification.

As Oregon's largest public research university, with $261.7 million in external funding in the 2011 fiscal year, Oregon State's impact reaches across the state and beyond. With 12 colleges, 15 Agricultural Experiment Stations, 35 county Extension offices, the Hatfield Marine Sciences Center in Newport and OSU-Cascades in Bend, Oregon State has a presence in every one of Oregon's 36 counties, with a statewide economic footprint of $1 billion.

Oregon State welcomes a diverse student body of nearly 24,000 students from across Oregon, all 50 states and more than 100 countries. They can choose from more than 200 undergraduate and more than 80 graduate degree programs, including over 20 degrees offered online. Oregon State increasingly attracts high-achieving students, with nationally recognized programs in areas such as conservation biology, agricultural sciences, nuclear engineering, forestry, fisheries and wildlife management, community health, pharmacy and zoology.

Oregon State also ranks high in sustainability, fourth among universities nationwide for using renewable energy and first in the Pac-10 Conference. And our students literally help power the university: 22 exercise machines at Dixon Recreation Center are connected to the grid.

The 400-acre main campus in Corvallis includes a Historic District, making Oregon State one of only a handful of U.S. university campuses listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The district includes such icons as Weatherford Hall, the Memorial Union and Benton Hall, the oldest building on campus.

Oregon State is located in Corvallis, a vibrant college town of 53,000 in the heart of Western Oregon's Willamette Valley. Corvallis consistently ranks among the best and safest cities to live in the U.S., as well as among the most environmentally responsible.

DR. EDWARD RAY

University President 9th Year at Oregon State Queens College, '66

Dr. Edward J. Ray assumed the position of Oregon State University's President on July 31, 2003. Prior to coming to Oregon State, Ray was executive vice president and provost of The Ohio State University.

Under his leadership, OSU has completed and updated a visionary campus-wide strategic plan that is serving as the framework for the university's development in profound and historic ways. Annual research awards and contracts have increased almost $123 million at Oregon State to $275 million since Dr. Ray's arrival. President Ray partnered with the OSU Foundation to launch the university's first comprehensive fundraising campaign. The quiet phase of the campaign began in July, 2004. In October 2010 donors pushed the campaign past the original $625 million goal almost a year ahead of schedule, enabling the university to announce that the campaign will continue through 2013 with a new goal of $850 million. The campaign has generated more than $106 million for scholarships and fellowships, increased OSU's number of endowed faculty positions by more than 50 percent, and supported over a dozen major facility projects on campus, including the Kelley Engineering Center, the Lois Bates Acheson Veterinary Teaching Hospital, Kearney Hall, the Hallie Ford Center for Healthy Children and Families, The Linus Pauling Science Center and the Student Success Center.

Mindful of OSU's commitment to the people of Oregon, Dr. Ray has overseen the expansion of dual-enrollment agreements to all 17 of the state's community colleges, making it easier for students to complete four-year degrees. He has also taken a leadership role in fostering a more seamless P-20 system, working with area school superintendents, community college leaders and university colleagues to strengthen institutional connections and enhance the student experience. Dr. Ray has also helped to usher in a new era of partnership and cooperation between Oregon's public universities.

Dr. Ray was a member of the economics faculty at Ohio State from 1970-2003, serving as economics department chair from 1976 to 1992. He served as an associate provost from May 1992 until May 1993, senior vice provost and chief information officer from 1993-1998, and executive vice president and provost from 1998-2003.

His research interests include the history of protectionism in the United States, the determinants of U.S. foreign direct investment and foreign direct investment in the United States, the structure of tariff and non tariff trade barriers in the United States and abroad and the adoption of Social Security. His work has been published in The American Economic Review, The Journal of Political Economy, The Quarterly Journal of Economics, The Review of Economic Studies, The review of Economics and Statistics, and other leading journals. He has co-authored a principles text, and his book, "U. S. Protectionism and the World Debt Crisis" was published by Quorum Press in 1989.

Dr. Ray received his undergraduate degree in mathematics from Queens College (CUNY) in June 1966, graduating cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa. He earned his master's in economics from Stanford University in 1969 and his doctorate in economics from Stanford in June 1971.

Before becoming first lady at Oregon State, his wife Beth worked as a practicing attorney, taught business law courses as a faculty member in the Department of Finance at Ohio State University and most recently was a counselor and assistant dean in the College of Arts and Sciences while at Ohio State. They have three children and three grandchildren.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR BOB DE CAROLIS

BOB DE CAROLIS

Director of Athletics 10th Year at Oregon State Bloomsburg State College (PA), '76

Director of Athletics Bob De Carolis was appointed to his current position on Aug. 28, 2002 by then OSU President Dr. Paul Risser and has since led the Beavers to unprecedented success on and off the fields of play. The popular De Carolis, who was selected the 2010 Football Bowl Subdivision West Region Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year by his peers, signed a five-year contract extension in April of 2011 that takes him through June 30, 2016.

De Carolis originally joined the OSU staff on April 20, 1998 as associate athletic director of internal operations; he was promoted to senior associate athletic director on July 1, 1999. Prior to coming to Oregon State, he spent 19 years on the athletic department staff at the University of Michigan.

Since arriving at OSU, De Carolis has developed and executed the financial recovery plan that helped the Department of Athletics eliminate a $12.5 million accumulated deficit and grow the overall budget by more than $25 million. At the same time, the department was able to not only maintain competitive teams, but also had its first winning football season in nearly three decades, its first winning men's basketball campaign in 15 years, the softball program made its first appearance in the College World Series and the baseball team competed in the College World Series for the first time in over five decades – capturing the 2006 and 2007 national championships. With him in a leadership role, the football program has played in nine bowl games, men's basketball captured the College Basketball Invitational (2009), gymnastics has competed in the national championships six straight years and overall 16 of the 17 intercollegiate programs sponsored by OSU have participated in postseason.

De Carolis has been responsible for hiring some of the most high profile coaches in OSU history, including Mike Riley (football), former U.S. Olympic coach Taras Liskevych (volleyball), three-time NCAA Coach of the Year Jim Zalesky (wrestling), Craig Robinson (men's basketball), Kelly Sullivan (women's track/cross country), Larry Liebowitz (women's swimming), Linus Rhode (women's soccer), Steve Todd (men's rowing), Emily Ford (women's rowing), Steve Simmons (men's soccer) and most recently Scott Rueck (women's basketball) and Jon Reehoorn (men's golf).

He spearheaded the feasibility study for a plan that has expanded and renovated Reser Stadium to its current capacity of nearly 46,000. Improvements at the Stadium since the beginning of 2005 have included a new east side structure that houses some of the best amenities in all of college football, construction of the largest video board in the Pac-12 (as of 2007 season) and new seating in the south end zone. In all, approximately $115 million in improvements to the football facility alone has enabled "Beaver Nation" to create one of the best home field advantages in the country. Beaver fans have responded with record ticket purchases.

The latest addition to the OSU facilities landscape is the Student Success Center, the OSU Boathouse, and the track and field facility. The $14 million SSC is a shared facility with the OSU campus and will open in the summer of 2012, the $2.5 million Boathouse will be ready for occupancy in the fall of this year and the first phase of the $8 million track complex is currently under construction and will be complete during the 2011-12 academic year. De Carolis is also in the midst of a fundraising campaign for a basketball practice facility that will be connected to the recently completed Sports Performance Center (SPC).

The SPC houses a 17,000-square foot strength training area and a 7,000-square foot wrestling practice facility. In 2009 Gill Coliseum underwent a $4 million exterior improvement project, in addition to the construction of a $4 million sports medicine facility and women's basketball locker room. The Valley Football Center is also undergoing a continuing remodeling project, with a recent student-athlete lounge completion.

In addition to the latest projects, De Carolis has also managed the recent completion of the home of the two-time national champion baseball team – Goss Stadium at Coleman Field. During his tenure the Merritt Truax Indoor Center and the OSU Softball Complex have been constructed, and the Tommy Prothro Football Complex and several locker rooms were renovated.

It's not all about wins, losses or new facilities; De Carolis has stressed the importance of being a total student-athlete and being a part of the community. With his leadership, nearly 50 percent of the entire athletic roster sports a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or higher. Community service hours have increased nearly 300 percent during his tenure and contributions for scholarships to the Beaver Athletic Student Fund have increased from $6 million to over $11 million.

De Carolis is also actively involved in national and conference level committees just having completed a stint as chair of the conference television committee, former chair of the conference budget and finance committee, and currently serves on the bowl committee. At the NCAA level he is a member of Football Bowl Subdivision Issues Committee and is the former member of the Student-Athlete Benefits and Financial Aid Cabinet, and the prestigious Management Council (MANCO).

He started his Michigan career in 1979 as an administrative assistant. He was promoted to assistant business manager in 1980; at the same time, he was also named the head softball coach. De Carolis was Michigan's softball coach from 1980 to 1984 and his Wolverines had a third-place finish at the AIAW national championships.

De Carolis was promoted from assistant business manager to business manager in 1983; in 1987 to assistant athletic director for business; in 1990 to associate athletic director for internal operations; in 1994 to senior director for financial operations; in 1996 to senior associate athletic director and became responsible for all athletic facilities and venues at Michigan

Under his leadership as senior director for financial operations, De Carolis led negotiations with Nike for an all-school contract for athletic shoes and apparel one of the first of its kind in the country. He established a long-term relationship with Pepsi-Cola for beverage rights, to all athletic venues.

De Carolis also spearheaded a "gift brick" donor program for Michigan Stadium, developed a comprehensive capital improvement program and coordinated the development of a master plan for the renovation of Michigan Stadium.

De Carolis is a 1976 graduate of Bloomsburg State College in Bloomsburg, Pa., with a B.S. in business education. He received a Master's of Science degree in sports management in 1979 from the University of Massachusetts. During his undergraduate days at Bloomsburg, he was a two-year letterwinner in football and baseball from 1973-75.

He got his first taste of coaching at Bloomsburg State when he served as an assistant coach in baseball and football from 1976-78.

In the fall of 2008 he was awarded the Harold VanderZwaag distinguished alumnus award from UMASS. In the fall of 2009 he was inducted into the Bloomsburg University Hall of Fame.

Bob is married to the former Sandra Taylor and they have three children, daughter Lyndsay, a 2011 graduate of the University of Michigan, and twin daughters Lauren and Hayley. Lauren is a freshman at the University of Wisconsin and Hayley is a freshman at California Polytechnic State University (SLO).

2011 IN REVIEW

Beavers Overall

Oregon State finished the season 41-19 overall and 17-10 in Pacific-10 Conference play. The 41 wins were the fourth-most in school history, and the 17 wins league play marked the second-most for the club since the league unified in 1999, and trailed only the 2005 club, which won 19.

Postseason Trip

Oregon State advanced to the postseason for the sixth time in the last seven years, and played in an NCAA Super Regional for the first time since 2007. OSU swept through its NCAA Regional, winning all three games for the third time in the six trips.

Postseason Wins Note

Oregon State tallied three wins in the postseason in 2011, and thanks to research by North Carolina, it is known that the team's 28 postseason wins since 2006 is tied for second-most in the nation with South Carolina, trailing only the Tar Heels. The Beavers have 33 wins in the postseason dating back to 2005, all under head coach Pat Casey.

Pac-10 Honors

Oregon State saw three players selected to the league's first team - Sam Gaviglio, Tony Bryant and Kavin Keyes. The three first-round selections are the most in a single season since the Beavers had five first teamers in 2006. Overall, OSU also had six honorable mention selections, and the nine players honored by the league is the most since OSU had 11 in 20005.

Casey Named Pac-10 Coach Of The Year

Oregon State head coach Pat Casey guided the club to a second-place finish in the Pac-10 despite the fact the Beavers were voted to finish eighth in the preseason. For that, Casey was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year for the third time. He was also named the league's top coach in 2005 and 2006.

Gaviglio An All-American

Junior right-hander Sam Gaviglio became the program's 20th all-time All-American when he was selected to the Louisville Slugger (Collegiate Baseball) All-America second-team. He went 12-3 in 2011, tying for the fourth-most wins in a single-season at Oregon State. OSU's last All-American prior to Gaviglio was Mitch Canham in 2007. Pat Casey has now coached 10 All-Americans while at Oregon State.

Six Players Of The Week Honors

Five different Beavers were honored by the Pac-10 a total of six times throughout the regular season, the most for OSU in a season since 1998, a year before the league unified. Sam Gaviglio was named Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week twice, giving him three for his career, which ties him for fourth-most in program history. Josh Osich was also named Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week, while Andrew Susac, Kavin Keyes and Ryan Dunn were named Pac-10 Players of the Week.

Two Big Win Streaks

The Beavers posted two win streaks of 10 or more games in the same season for the first time in program history. OSU won 12 straight from Feb. 27 through March 19, tying the longest such streak under head coach Pat Casey. They also went on an 11-gamer from April 2 to April 22. The second streak came after losing an 18-0 contest at Arizona to start Pac-10 play.

Against The Postseason Field

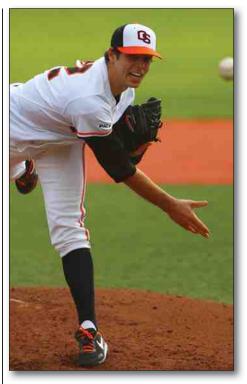

Oregon State went 16-8 against teams in the 2011 NCAA postseason field, and 13-6 in the regular season. OSU was 10-2 against Pac-10 foes that made it to the field of 64.

Pac-10 Note

The Beavers' 17 victories in Pac-10 play was the second-most by an OSU squad since the league unified in 1999, trailing only the 2005 team which had 19 wins. The Beavers finished in second place in league play, and held the top spot in the Pac-10 for 19 of 27 possible Pac-10 dates.

2011 Oregon State Baseball Team

Attendance Note

OSU finished 29th nationally with an average attendance of 2,285, which is second only to No. 20 Arizona State and third amongst teams west of Texas (Hawaii was 17th). The Beavers set single-season school records for average attendance and most fans total at Goss Stadum (68,558).

Incredible Gaviglio Stat

According to research by the Major League Baseball Scouting Bureau, Sam Gaviglio had the highest rate of groundball-to-flyball outs in the country in 2011. Gazviglio posted 165 groundball outs to just 67 flyball outs, or 2.4 ground balls for every one fly ball.

Playing At Goss Stadium

The Beavers went 23-7 at Goss Stadium during the 2011 season, and the 23 victories is the third-most in a single-season at home for OSU, trailing only 2005 (26) and 2007 (27). The 23 wins is the fourth time OSU has reached the 20win plateau, and the 30 games overall marked the fourth-most played at home.

Kavin Keyes, Freshman All-America

Kavin Keyes became the fourth Beaver with a Freshman All-America honor in as many years when he was named by Louisville Slugger. He led the Beavers with four hit streaks of more than five games, including a 14-gamer from March 23 through April 17 that tied Andrew Susac for the longest on the team.

Draft Notes

Oregon State had eight players selected in the 2011 MLB First-Year Player Draft, tying the 2007 and 2010 clubs for the most in a year. OSU had three players taken in the first nine 10 rounds - Andrew Susac, Sam Gaviglio and Josh Osich - giving the Beavers nine such selections over the past two years. OSU has had at least one player selected in the draft every year since 1993, a span of 19 years.

Some Key Feats For The Beavers

Oregon State had some great successes in 2011, with three standing out significantly. Josh Osich threw the program's first complete-game no-hitter since 1947 when he no-hit UCLA in Los Angeles on April 30. Ryan Dunn hit for the cycle against Portland on May 10, which was the second in the team history. To top it off, Sam Gaviglio held opponents scoreless for 41 2/3 innings through the first month-and-a-half of the season, coming up less than six innings shy of tying the NCAA single-season record.

An ERA Drop

The Beavers posted their lowest team ERA since 2005 (3.06) when finishing at 3.14 in 2011. The 3.14 ERA is the second-lowest since the 1979 club finished at 2.96. Tony Bryant (fifth, 1.52) and Matt Boyd (seventh, 1.57) both finished in the top in individual ERA for a season at OSU.

An Obscure Pitching Note

Not only did the Beavers' staff ERA go down, so did the pitcher's number of errors. The team's pitchers committed two errors in 2011, down from 12 in 2010. The team's staff had a fielder's percentage of .986 in 2011 (two errors in 147 chances), compared to .903 in 2010 (12 errors in 124 chances).

Gaviglio In The Top 10

Sam Gaviglio had an outstanding 2011 season, finishing with 12 wins, which ties him for fourth-most in a season at OSU. He also had 116 strikeouts (sixth), 120 2/3 innings (tied for eighth) and two shutouts (tied for ninth). Tony Bryant joined Gaviglio in the top 10 lists in the aforementioned ERA and 12 saves (tied for third).

Walks And Saves

The Beavers are set to lead the Pac-10 in walks for the first time since 2007 as OSU tallied 258 during the regular season, with UCLA (221) No. 2. The Beavers will also end the year with the league lead in saves at 19, marking the fourth time in seven seasons OSU will lead that stat.

Catching Note

OSU had 35 steal attempts against, the least by any Pac-10 team. OSU's catchers threw out 18 of the steal attempts, for a 51.4 percentage. OSU was the only Pac-10 team to throw out better than 50 percent.

2007 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

2007 National Champions Beavers Go Back-To-Back

The 2007 season was a special year for the Oregon State baseball team. The Beavers became just the fifth NCAA team to win back-to-back titles, and did so on the heels of their third consecutive trip to the College World Series in Omaha.

Oregon State was led by two of the most recognizable players in school history in Mitch Canham and Darwin Barney. OSU was buoyed on the mound by Mike Stutes, who ended the season with 12 victories - three came in the postseason, including two in the College World Series. The Beavers were blessed with a cast of players that included Joe Paterson, Daniel Turpen, Eddie Kunz, Jordan Lennerton, John Wallace, Joey Wong and others, who truly embraced the team concept and helped deliver spectacular performances throughout the College World Series and the postseason.

The Beavers swept through the postseason, going 11-1 en route to their second straight national championship.

• Oregon State trailed for just one inning during the College World Series, which consisted of a little less than 45 full innings for the Beavers. North Carolina held a 1-0 lead after one inning in the final game, but the Beavers answered back with three runs in the second to help boost them to the 9-3 win.

• Oregon State became the first team ever to win four straight CWS games by at least six runs. The Beavers' closest victory came in their first game, a 3-2 victory over Cal State Fullerton.

 Oregon State became just the sixth NCAA team to sweep its way through the College World Series. And OSU was the back-to-back title holder since the NCAA went to a best-ofthree championship series.

• Jorge Reyes was named the College World Series Most Outstanding Player. Reyes went 2-0 at the World Series, defeating Cal State Fullerton and North Carolina.

• Oregon State opened the postseason as the No. 3 seed at the Charlottesville Regional on the campus of the University of Virginia. By winning the College World Series, Oregon State became the first No. 3 seed to do so.

• The Beavers opened postseason play by defeating Rutgers, 5-1. They lost their next game in 13 innings to Virginia, 7-4, but then went on win their next 10 games, the final one coming in Omaha.

• Oregon State came from a 3-0 deficit in the final game of the Charlottesville Regional to advance to a Super Regional against Michigan. Against UVA, OSU scored four runs in the final two innings and held on through a Joe Paterson victory to advance.

• The Beavers one-hit Michigan in the first game of the Super Regional at Goss Stadium, and scored a run in the ninth for the win. OSU dominated the second game, 8-2, to advance to the College World Series.

• Oregon State pitchers posted an incredible 2.57 earned run average through the postseason. Opponents hit just .210 against them and collected only 83 hits in 112 innings.

• Oregon State returned to Parker Plaza on the OSU campus after returning from Omaha and celebrated the second title in front of an estimated crowd of 6,000.

• Fifteen players on the championship squad would end up being drafted by Major League clubs at some point during their tenure at Oregon State. Two more ended up signing contracts as undrafted free agents.

• OSU finished the season with 49 victories, one off tying the school record.

2006 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

2006 National Champions OSU Wins Its First Title

Oregon State went to the 2006 College World Series in Omaha as veterans after the Beavers made their second all-time appearance at the CWS in 2005.

The Beavers returned a number of players who made the 2005 appearance, and who were bounced after two games. That left them hungry, knowing they wanted more. And in 2006, they did not disappoint as Oregon State went 6-2 over eight games in Omaha to claim its first national championship.

The Beavers dispatched of North Carolina in the national title series. Oregon State lost to the Tar Heels, 4-3, in the first game, and saw itself behind UNC, 5-0, after three-and-a-half innings, but the Beavers scored seven in the bottom of the fourth and forced a third game after an 11-7 victory. A North Carolina error in the eighth gave the Beavers a run, breaking a 2-2 tie in the deciding game, and ultimately, the victory.

That national championship victory made the Beavers the first NCAA title holder from the Pacific-10 Conference since USC in 1998.

• Oregon State became the first team from the Pacific Northwest to win the national title, and the first from the northern part of the country to win it in 40 years.

• The Beavers were the first team to ever face six elimination games at the College World Series. And OSU became the first national championship club to win despite losing two games in Omaha.

• Oregon State opened its trip in Omaha by losing to Miami, 11-1. By virtue of that loss, the Beavers became just the second team in the last 25 years to win the title after losing their first game.

• Right-handed starter Jonah Nickerson was named the Most Oustanding Player of the College World Series. He made three CWS appearances, throwing 21 2/3 innings, allowing just four runs (two earned), 12 hits and four walks. Nickerson struck out 19.

• Nickerson ended the postseason with a 4-0 record, winning at least one game in the NCAA Regional, NCAA Super Regional and College World Series. He threw 36 2/3 innings over five games and allowed just 20 hits to go along with 34 strikeouts and a 1.23 ERA.

• Nickerson paced the Oregon State pitching staff, which saw eight pitchers contribute in the postseason run. Only one pitcher had an ERA above 5.00, and the team combined to limit opponents to a .219 batting average.

• Offensively, the Beavers finished with a .302 average as a team through 13 postseason games. Tyler Graham paced the way for the Beavers with a .426 batting average while Bill Rowe was close behind with a .419 mark. His 18 runs batted in led the team.

• Oregon State opened the postseason by hosting an NCAA Regional and the Beavers outscored their opponents - Wright State, Kansas and Hawaii - by a combined 28-9 mark. Oregon State never trailed during regional play.

• The Beavers defeated Stanford, 4-3, to open Super Regional play at Goss in the next round, then shut out the Cardinal, 15-0, in the second game to advance to Omaha. The 15-run win marked the second-biggest in the school's postseason history and was just the second shutout ever thrown, at the time, by OSU pitchers in NCAA play.

• Oregon State advanced to the postseason by winning the Pac-10 title and was named a No. 1 seed at its own regional.

• The Beavers ended the 2006 season with 50 victories, a school-record. It eclipsed the previous record of 46 set in 2005.

2005 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

2005 CWS Participants Beavers Begin 3-Year Run

Oregon State began its magical three-year run to Omaha in 2005, a year that saw the club make many firsts. The Beavers went to the College World Series for the first time in more than 50 years, win the Pacific-10 Conference for the first time and advance to an NCAA Super Regional for the first time.

They did so with a cast of players with an overwhelming Pacific Northwest flavor, including Oregon born Dallas Buck, Kevin Gunderson, Jonah Nickerson, Jacoby Ellsbury and Darwin Barney, among others. Of the 29 players on the roster born in either Oregon or Washington, 13 ended their tenure at Oregon State being drafted by Major League clubs at least once.

The Beavers played their last game in Omaha on June 20, which, at the time, was the latest on the calendar an Oregon State season had ever extended.

 Oregon State went 0-2 in Omaha, but the World Series capped off a magnificient season for the Beavers. Oregon State won its first Pac-10 title by going 19-5 during the regular season. The 19 wins mark a conference record for the Beavers, who won seven of their eight Pac-10 series.

• The Beavers won 46 games, a new single-season school record. It surpassed the previous record of 39 set in 1986.

• The Beavers lost consecutive games only twice; once during the regular season, to Stanford and Arizona, and then in Omaha to Tulane and Baylor.

 Oregon State won five of its six games leading up to the College World Series. The Beavers outscored St. John's and Ohio State, 34-7, in three games at the Corvallis Regional.

 The Beavers advanced to a Super Regional at Goss Stadium, and took 2-of-3 from USC, whom OSU had ended the Pac-10 regular season with. The Beavers advanced to the NCAA College World Series after scoring two runs in the seventh in the third game of the Super Regional.

 Oregon State lost both of its games in Omaha, but the team's pitching staff was stellar. The Beavers allowed just seven runs over two games at Rosenblatt Stadium.

• The Beavers batted .321 as a team through the eight postseason games, and were led by Andy Jenkins' .459 batting average, which stands as the single-best postseason for any Oregon State player.

• The team's pitching staff was anchored by Jonah Nickerson, who went 1-1 with a 2.11 earned run average. Nickerson ended his career with five postseason victories, four a year later, which ties Mike Stutes for most in an OSU career.

• The trip to the postseason was the first in 19 years for Oregon State, which had last appeared in an NCAA Regional in Stillwater, Okla., in 1986. At the time, the eight postseason games played in 2005 was a single-year record for the Beavers.

• Head coach Pat Casey won his first career postseason game on June 3 as the Beavers scored a run in both the eighth and ninth innings for a 4-3 come-from-behind victory over Ohio State.

• Oregon State defeated St. John's, 19-3, in the final game of the Corvallis Regional. The 16-run win still stands as the team's single-largest postseason victory.

- Jacoby Ellsbury, who in 2007 became the first former OSU player to win a MLB World Series, played in all eight games in the 2005 postseason and batted .351 with two doubles, a triple and five stolen bases.

Thirteen players who played in the 2005 postseason won a title in 2006 with OSU.

1952 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

1952 CWS Participants OSU Makes First CWS Trip

Oregon State made its first foray into an NCAA postseason in 1952, and the Beavers also advanced to the College World Series for the first time. Oregon State lost in two games in their inaugural trip to Omaha, but came away with a positive first experience at Omaha Stadium.

The Beavers opened the year by winning the Pacific Coast Conference title and then swept Fresno State in the Western Regional in Corvallis.

"The team of '52 was an exceptional collection of raw talent as I look back today," pitcher Alex Goedhard said years later. "I say raw talent because we had no specialty training. There were no coaches specializing in hitting, fielding, outfield or pitching. There were no physical training regimens for players targeting playing positions outside of daily routine practice. There was no or very little scouting of opposing teams and players."

• At the Western Regional, on June 7, the Beavers hosted Fresno State in front of a crowd of 4,600, the largest attendance figure to date at what is now Goss Stadium at Coleman Field.

• Oregon State began the season on a high note, winning its first seven games and nine of 10.

• The Beavers had just three losing streaks of two games, with the final one coming in Omaha. Oregon State did not lose consecutive games at home the entire season.

• The 27 victories posted by the Beavers in 1952 set a school single-season record. That record was not surpassed until the 1975 team won 28 games.

• Ralph Coleman was in the midst of his third stint with the team and had another 14 years before ending his illustrious career. Coleman's two victories in the postseason do not count toward his overall career record, but merely add to 561 victories, then a school record.

• Oregon State's appearance in Omaha was significant as it was only the sixth-ever College World Series held. The Beavers opened against Duke in just the second-ever meeting between the schools in any sport; the first was in the 1942 Rose Bowl.

• Oregon State used what is now an unusual mode of transportation to arrive in Omaha. The team traveled to Omaha by train on the Union Pacific streamliner City of Portland. The Beavers arrived just after 3 a.m. on a Wednesday.

• Oregon State was the fourth team of what is now known as the Pac-10 to advance to the College World Series. California, USC and Washington State all advanced to Omaha before the Beavers' first trip in 1952.

• The games were played at what was then known as Omaha Stadium; it is now known as Rosenblatt Stadium. This marked the third year the CWS was held at Rosenblatt.

• Twenty-seven of the 34 players (79.4 percent) listed on the roster hailed from the state of Oregon.

• Oregon State won its first-ever Pacific Coast Conference Championship in 1952. The Beavers defeated USC in two games; winning game one, 12-10, and taking game two, 5-4, with both contests being played in Corvallis.

• Dwane Helbig became Oregon State's first All-American in 1952 when the American Baseball Coaches Association named him to the second team. He batted .418 with three home runs and 10 RBI in PCC Northern Division games.

• Bailey Brem and Jay Dean, who were both on the 1952 team, earned All-American honors in 1953 and 1954, respectively. Dean was an All-American in 1955 as well. He was OSU's first two-time All-American.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

2012 NCAA Postseason - OSU Championship History

The 2012 NCAA Postseason will feature, as always, the nation's top 64 teams. Sixteen four-team regionals will be held June 3-6, followed by eight Super Regionals, featuring the top 16 teams remaining who advanced past the regionals. The 2012 College World Series will be played June 18-29 at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

The Pacific-10 Conference holds the record with 26 World Series titles, followed by the Big 12 Conference at 10 and the Big Ten at six. A Pac-10 team has finished as national champions or runner-up in six of the last 11 years. At least one Pac-10 player has been named to the All-College World Series team since 1997.

In 2006 and 2007, the Pac-10 had 11 players named to the All-CWS Team, and each one was an Oregon State Beaver. In 2006, Jonah Nickerson was named the Most Outstanding Player after the Beavers captured their first national title. In 2007, Jorge Reyes claimed the honor as OSU won its second straight title.

Oregon State is one of just six schools nationally to win back-to-back national titles, and one of three from the Pac-10. USC won five straight titles from 1970-74. Stanford won two straight from 1987-88, followed nearly 20 years later by the Beavers. Texas won consecutive titles from 1949-1950 and LSU became the fourth club to accomplish the feat, doing so in 1996 and 1997. South Carolina is the most recent, winning championships in 2010 and 2011.

2011 NCAA Postseason Schedule

June 3-6: NCAA Regionals (campus sites)

June 10-13: NCAA Super Regionals (campus sites)

June 18-29: NCAA College World series (TD Ameritrade Park Omaha)

Note: Campus sites for the NCAA Regionals will be announced the day prior to the NCAA selection process. Super Regional sites will be announced the day after the regionals' completion.
