Oregon State University

Oregon State University, the oldest, largest and finest instution of higher learning in the state of Oregon, was established as a land-grant school on October 27, 1868, under the provisions of the Morill Land Grant Act. It was the state's first venture in the field of higher learning and was originally named Corvallis College.

The state wanted to establish a college as early as 1851, and had selected Corvallis, then known as Marysville, as the site. The legislature then reversed itself and decided to construct the college in Jacksonville in southern Oregon.

However, the people of Corvallis went ahead and erected an academy in 1858, operated by the Methodist church. With the adoption of the Morrill act the state took over partial control, and assumed full control in 1885. In 1868 the name was changed to the State Agricultural College of Oregon, later to Oregon Agricultural College, and in 1953 was changed to Oregon State College, although popular acclaim had brought about that name as early as 1927. Just recently it was changed by the state legislature to Oregon State University.

The university campus proper, as well as adjoining agricultural lands, consists of about 4,000 acres, with increases being made yearly as the institution grows in population and need. In addition to the campus area, the Agricultural Experiment station at the university administers and utilizes approximately 24,000 acres, mostly county and federally owned.

The school of forestry owns and administers another 13,300 acres in the Peavy arboretum and the McDonald and other forested areas near Corvallis. These lands are used to teach forestry students actual forest practices through on-the-job training, as well as the research projects for the state and national forest services and the many timber companies located throughout the Northwest.

In addition to the schools of agriculture and forestry, degrees also are given in Humanities and Social Science, Business and Technology, Education, Engineering, Industrial Arts, Home Economics, Pharmacy, Agriculture, Science and the Graduate school. A student indeed has a wide choice of curriculum at OSU, with allied subjects in all fields.

Oregon State University is located in the picturesque city of Corvallis, named for its location in the heart of the Willamette valley of western Oregon. Most recent population (1962) of Corvallis was 24,471, making it Oregon's 5th largest city. Metropolitan Portland is only 80 miles to the north and the Pacific ocean 60 miles west. Corvallis lies in between the Cascade and Coast ranges; with agriculture and lumber forming the chief industries.

Approximately 9,500 students are enrolled for the 1962-63 school year, with an enrollment of 10,000 predicted soon. The university is in the midst of a vast building program with many new dormitories and other structures spread throughout the beautiful campus.

Some of the better-known buildings include the Memorial Union (student union), Benton Hall, the Coliseum, and Agriculture hall, although newer structures such as Cordley Hall are just as eye-catching. Parker stadium, built in 1953 for football, seats 28,000 fans. Dr. James H. Jensen is the president of OSU, while R. S. Keene has been the athletic director since 1947.

MEET THE PRESIDENT

Oregon State University's able and energetic leader, Dr. James H. Jensen, will be starting his second year as president this fall when OSU begins its 95th school year.

An internationally-known botanist and plant pathologist, President Jensen was provost, or executive vice president of Iowa State University, for eight years before coming to OSU. He already has stamped himself as an efficient administrator deeply concerned about high-quality education for the increasing numbers of students.

In his first year as president, Dr. Jensen saw enrollments shoot past the old-time high of 7,981 to 9,039.

President Jensen, 56, brought to Oregon State a broad background of experience in university teaching, research and administration, private foundation research, federal government work, and foreign assignments.

He earlier was on the staff of Nebraska and North Carolina State as well as Iowa State; has worked with the Atomic Energy Commission, Boyce Thompson Institute for Plant Research, Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research and the U.S. Department of Agriculture; and completed special ascientific assignments in Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the Dominican Republic.

In 1955, Dr. Jensen was national president of the American Phytopathological Society. He is a graduate of University of Nebraska and University of Wisconsin and also did advanced study at Columbia University.

Mrs. Jensen, a native Nebraskan too, is active in student, faculty and community affairs. The Jensens have four children.

OREGON FOREST FACTS

The State of Oregon ranks No. 1 in the United States in standing timber and production of lumber, plywood and particle board. It has over 21 per cent of the nation's commercial timber volume. It produces 22 per cent of the nation's lumber and 55 per cent of its plywood.

Almost half of Oregon's 62 million acres are in forests (30 million acres). Of these, 26 million acres are classified as commercial forest land. The federal government controls about 15 million acres of the commercial forest land, the state and counties about 1 million acres and 10 million acres are held by some 36,000 private owners. The gross state forest product is valued in excess of $1.3 billion per year.

The forest industry employs about 75,000 full time workers each year. In 1961, they earned about $400 million. In addition, several thousand non-manufacturing workers derive their income directly or indirectly from the forest resources. Overall forests account for almost 60 per cent of Oregon's economy.

In Benton County, where Oregon State University is located, 35 per cent of the total number of inudstrial persons employed derive their living from wood products. In Benton County, nearly 30 per cent of all income comes from forestry.

Oregon, indeed, is the "land of the tall timber."

OSU FARTHEST WEST

Oregon State University is located at the westernmost part of the United States of all major universities, it was learned recently.

These three schools rank 1-2-3 as "most western" in the nation:

ATHLETIC STAFF

ROY S. KEENE Athletic Director

It takes a man well-versed in sports, full of enthusiasm and stocked with background to successfully administrate an athletic department in this fast-stepping modern era of sports.

Such a man is Roy S. "Spec" Keene, athletic director at Oregon State since 1947.

Keene possibly knows more people and has more than anybody connected with athletics at OSU. And he has demonstrated administrative sharpness by developing Oregon State's vast athletic program into one of the finest in the nation.

"Spec" of course, is an Oregon Stater from the word go. He was student body president here in 1921, starrted on the baseball team and was an assistant coach at OSU before he moved on to Willamette University in Salem. At Willamette, his teams were the scourge of the Northwest conference, winning one championship after another.

His loyalty to school, and nation, could never be questioned. Keene was an army lieutenant in World War I and a naval lieutenant-commander in World War II, and served his country well in both cases. Even so, he never lost interest in athletics.

"Spec" became athletic director at OSU in 1947 when the Beavers were experiencing a natural expansion trend in athletics. One important problem was lack of facilities to carry on a program that would rate high nationally. Under his direction and planning, spacious OSU Coliseum was constructed, giving this school one of the finest to be found anywhere. The building opened in December of 1949 and has attracted thousands of people since.

Football needed something better than ancient Bell field, too, and there again Keene recognized the problem. Even better, he did something about it, and spearheaded a drive to obtain a new stadium with seating for 28,000. With contributions from boosters, alums and friends, Oregon State was able to open picturesque Parker stadium in 1953 at no debt to the taxpayers.

The plant was paid for when it was built.

Keene, meanwhile, became a key figure nationally in athletics, being on the executive committee of the NCAA, and also chairman of the selection committee for the Western Regional NCAA basketball tournament.In addition, he was a past president of the Pacific Coast conference athletic directors association.

IIM BARRATT, athletic business manager and Keene's top aide, year in and year out tackles one of the toughest assignments of all-making people happy. He's overseer of all ticket sales and various other promotions connected with the athletic program. His unbounding enthusiasm and attention to details helps establish Jim as one of the top men in his field. He wears a broad smile at all times and is a firm believer in strong public relations. Barratt originally is from Heppner where he was a high school star in football, basketball, tennis and track, winning 10 varsity awards. Jim served in the navy in World War II, and graduated from OSU in 1950. He was editor of the Daily Barometer, offical school publication at OSU, his senior year and a member of virtually every honor organization on campus. Jim first became assistant alumni director in 1950, moving to the athletic department at the close of the 1951 football season. He still keeps a hand in the coaching line, however, as golf coach.

BILL ROBERTSON, trainer, has been chief of the OSU tape brigade for 16 years, and long has been one of the most popular citizens in the Corvallis community. Famous for his always well-received vocal rendition of "Casey At The Bat" and dozens of other recitations, Bill is much in demand at banquets and social gatherings. The athletes call him "Rope-sole," and his reputation as an athletic trainer ranks right near the top of that field. Robertson originally is from Vancouver, B.C., but became an American citizen many years ago and has lived in the Pacific Northwest ever since. He served in the army in World War II, and saw duty in both Italy and the Aleutians. Bill is a

JOHN EGGERS, sports publicity director, recently observed his 12th anniversary on the athletic staff at OSU. He joined the staff on July 1, 1950, as an assistant to director Irwin Harris, and was moved up to the top spot on July 1, 1952. Eggers was born and raised in Pendleton, the "Round-Up City" of eastern Oregon. He was an all-state basketball player at Pendleton high, a prep teammate of Lew Beck who later went on to win all-America fame at OSU and play in the Olympic Games. Eggers played one varsity basketball season at Willamette while only a freshman before enlisting in the Navy for World War II. After discharge, he attended OSU from the fall of 1946 through 1949. Before returning to the OSU staff, he worked for one year as a sports writer on The Oregonian in Portland.

comm Henness, athletic ticket manager, is one of the newest members of the OSU athletic department. He joined the staff on February 1, 1961, after serving nine years with the physical plant at Oregon State. The last three years were spent as an accountant for that department. Henness was born in Fontana, Kansas, but came west to Oregon in 1946. He has lived in Corvallis most of the time since. Comm is an extremely diligent worker and a top specialist in accounting or bookkeeping duties of any nature. As Jim Barratt's right-hand man, he also handles all ticket sales to free Barratt for more promotional ad-

THE COACHES

TOMMY PROTHRO, Head Coach

Winningest football coach on the west coast . . . the man who brought OSU to the top in grid prominence . . . believer in tough, rough football played with cunning finnesse.

Those descriptions all fit Tommy Prothro, Oregon State's head football coach now entering his 8th season with the Beavers. The day that Prothro came to OSU was indeed a fortunate one for the school and for grid followers.

Success has characterized his entire coaching career. He was with the late Red Sanders for almost a decade, first at Vanderbilt and later at UCLA. And since becoming head coach at Oregon State, his teams have won 41, lost-26 and tied two games in seven full seasons.

That record now stands as the best percentage of any west coast football coach, with a mark of .612. Included, of course, were two Pacific Coast conference championships when that league was still in effect, and a Rose Bowl appearance against Iowa at Pasadena.

When Prothro came to OSU, the Beavers had just experienced their worst season in half a century of football. They had won the 1954 opener against Idaho, then lost the remaining eight games by scores of anywhere from 20 to 70 points. That, of course, was before Prothro.

In Tommy's first season of 1955, the Beavers emerged from their last place league finish of the year previous to that of runner-up, with a respectable 6-3 record. In 1956, Tommy's second year, OSU won the undisputed PCC crown and the Rose Bowl bid, following that up with a tie for first with Oregon the following year. Because of the no-succession rule, Oregon went to the Rose Bowl, even though OSU had defeated the Ducks.

Actually, Oregon State has experienced only one losing season under Prothro. That came in 1959, when the Beavers suffered a rash of injuries and dropped some heartbreakers. The injury jinx prevailed again in 1960, too, but it didn't prevent Tommy's forces from bouncing back with a 6-3-1 mark and 5-5 in 1961.

Son of J. Thompson (Doc) Prothro, who at one time managed the Philadelphia Phils in major league baseball, Tommy competed in football, basketball and track for Central high in his native Memphis, Tenn. That was 1934 through 1936. He also participated in those sports at Riverside Military Academy in 1936-37-38.

Tommy was a star blocking back under Coach Wallace Wade at Duke, playing against OSU in the "transplanted" Rose Bowl of January 1, 1942, at Durham, N. C. He won the Jacobs award as the best blocker in the east.He also competed in baseball and lacrosse at Duke from 1938 through 1942, when he graduated.

Prothro was a naval officer in World War II and already had served a stint as line coach at Western Kentucky. After discharge in 1946, he coached the Vanderbilt "B" squad and in 1947 became backfield coach under Sanders. Prothro went to UCLA with Sanders in 1949 and remained there until he took the OSU job.

Tommy developed top backs at UCLA as the Bruins ruled the western roost and won the national title in 1954. Among those were Paul Cameron, Primo Villanueva and Bob Davenport. At OSU, Tommy took sophomore Joe Francis and made him into one of the top single-wing tailbacks of all time, highlighted by a great Rose Bowl effort of 203 yards against Iowa.

Tommy's father, now semi-retired and still living in Memphis, is an anxious Beaver follower these days and often travels great distances to see his son's teams perform, as does Tommy's mother. Tommy's wife is the former Shirley Seagle of Memphis.

He has a daughter, Ann, now living in Kentucky.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BOB WATSON Senior Assistant

One of Tommy Prothro's greatest attributes has been the ability to surround himself with hustling young assistants-men who eat, sleep and talk football. One falling in that category is Bob Watson, who in 1958 became senior assistant on Prothro's successful coaching corps.

Watson needs no introduction to state of Oregon sports fans. for he was one of the all-time greats in this state in both football and basketball. While a prep star at Medford high school, he won all-state honors in both sports and was widely sought by numerous colleges.

Watson enrolled at UCLA and played three seasons of varsity football there—both as end and back. He graduated from UCLÁ in 1951 and assisted with spring practice sessions there when free from his job with a metropolitan firm in that area.

When Prothro won the OSU coaching assignment in 1955, one of the first he contacted about becoming an assistant was Watson. The latter, of course, was on Tommy's first staff here in 1955 and has been a solid fixture since.

He is married and has two children.

BOB ZELINKA Line Coach

Small in size, but a true "fireball" when it comes to coaching zip and determination—that's a brief description of Bob "Tiger" Zelinka, Prothro's young capable line coach who came here with Tommy in 1955.

Zelinka, though highly firm with the men he coaches, nevertheless has been extremely popular with all. One of his greatest boosters is John Witte, all-American tackle in 1956, who was a Zelinka protege.

The "Tiger" was a prep star in Los Angeles and later became a prize guard at Santa Ana junior college before transferring to UCLA. He played for the Bruins in 1950 and 1951, graduating in 1952. Zelinka assisted with spring practice at UCLA and coached the line for San Diego Navy in 1952-1954. He then returned to UCLA as freshman line coach.

Zelinka, like all the other coaches, is a man devoted to football who can show the players first-hand what he expects them to do. Just as important, he provides much of the spirit so necessary in daily workouts. He is married, and the father of two daughters.

RON SIEGRIST Assistant Coach

First player coached by Tommy Prothro at Oregon State to become a member of the Beaver staff-that's the story of young Ron Siegrist, who returned to his alma mater four years ago.

Ron was blocking back, co-captain and signal-caller on Prothro's first OSU team in 1955 that surprised all by finishing second in the PCC race. Prior to that, Siegrist had played t-formation football under Kip Taylor here in 1952 and 1953 but did not participate in 1954.

This offensive line coach was a highly-successful prep mentor at Notre Del Rio high in Sacramento from 1956 through 1958. His last club there was ranked No. 1 Class A in all northern California, as he used the identical system to that he played

As a player, Siegrist went all-out on every occasion, and was regarded as one of the sharpest signal-callers in the trade. He is married, and the father of three children.

BOB GAMBOLD Assistant Coach

Joining Oregon State's grid staff a year ago was the former No. 1 aide at Washington State under Jim Sutherland, tall and talented Bob Gambold. Originally from Longview, Wash., Gambold starred at Quarterback for the Cougars in the 1948-50 era and also was a member of WSU's northern division championship basketball team of 1950.

After graduation, Bob coached the Cougar Frosh several years and then played pro football with the Chicago Cardinals and Philadelphia Eagles. In 1954, he became head basketball and baseball coach at Everett (Wash.) JC, a post he held until joining the Cougar grid staff in 1956.

Gambold proved highly valuable in his first season and is a welcome addition to the Beaver staff. He and Mrs. Gambold are the parents of three daughters and a son.

JERRY LONG Assistant Coach

A former Oregon State football guard, personable Jerry Long, joined the Beaver staff a year ago, after six as line coach at Willamette university in nearby Salem.

Long came to OSU fresh out of Franklin high school in Portland and lettered for the Beavers in 1946 and 1947. He graduated in 1950 and picked up prep coaching experience at Brownsville, Astoria, Rainier and Tigard, before joining Ted Ogdahl as his top aide at Willamette.

A prime student of football, Jerry is also adept stimulating squad spirit and makes a fine running mate in that category for "Tiger" Zelinka. Long also has proved his worth in the recruiting department. He is married and the father of three children.

BOB McKITTRICK Assistant Coach

A true Tommy Prothro product is hustling Bob McKittrick, who played under his present boss at Oregon State in 1955-57-58, and joined the Beaver staff following discharge from the marine Corps a year ago.

McKittrick hails from Baker, and worked his way up the ladder in OSU football. He saw only 30 minutes service in 1955, but lettered on the Rose Bowl team of 1956 and was a solid regular in 1957, when the Beavers repeated as champions of the PCC. Bob was a guard, and a good one.

Noted for his determined type of play, McKittrick demonstrated he'll be the same type of coach in spring drills. An excellent student scholastically while an undergraduate, he was a well-rounded man on campus.

McKittrick is married and the father of two children.

THUMBNAIL SKETCHES

LEFT END

VERN BURKE, 6-4½, 188, jr. transfer from Bakersfield JC (Cal.). Showed great potential as receiver last spring. Rangy, with good hands. The Aaron Thomas type end, though probably not as fast. PAUL SEALE, 6-3, 196, sr. let. from Vancouver, B. C. Saw lots of service a year ago after transfering, and appears much improved now. MIKE YOUNGQUIST, 6-2, sr. let. from Salem. Earned award two years ago and did not letter last season. SCOTT MILLER, 6-4, 194, soph. from Kelso, Wash. One of standouts on freshman team last fall.

LEFT TACKLE

JIM FUNSTON, 6-0, 210, sr. let. from Medford. Valuable 2nd team tackle the past two years, ready for first-line duty now. Good hustler and tough. JOE BONILLA, 5-10, 201, jr. transfer from Bakersfield JC (Cal.). Showed lots of promise in spring. JEFF HARRIS, 6-1, 201, jr. let. from Aberdeen, Wash Gained valuable experience as 3rd stringer a year ago, and could see a lot of duty now.

LEFT GUARD

GEORGE GNOSS, 6-1, 200, sr. let. from Novato, Cal. Conceivably could be best left guard at OSU since Tommy Prothro came here in 1955. Quick, tough and smart. RICK NELSON, 5-11, 196, soph. from Salem. Laid out of competition a year ago, and should be ready now. WARREN COLE, 6-1, 186, soph. from Stockton, Cal. Lacking in experience, but a good prospect and should help considerably.

CENTER

JOHN FARRELL, 6-0, 194, sr. let. from Sacramento, Cal. One of OSU's finest linemen, when healthy. Handicapped by injuries in past, but appears in fine shape now. DICK DE BISSCHOP, 6-2, 192, sr. let. from San Anselmo, Cal. Fine linebacker and plenty tough. Has the experience and savvy, and could start. DOUG SUCKLING, 6-2, 189, soph. from Vancouver, Wash. Looked good as freshman, and laid out last year.

RIGHT GUARD

ROSS CARIAGA, 5-9, 189, sr. let. from Conchella, Cal. A two-year regular who is destined for his best varsity season. Small, but quick and strong. RON DOMAN, 5-10, 189, jr. let. from Ontario, Ore. Younger brother of Jerry Doman, ex-OSU captain and now coaching aide at BYU. Pressing Cariaga closely for top job. AL FUNSTON, 5-9, 182, soph. from Medford. Fine prep athlete and good as freshman here. Needs only experience and will be real good.

RIGHT TACKLE

TOM HOLLEY, 6-1, 209, jr. reserve holdover from Burbank, Cal. Didn't letter last year, but moved up fast last spring and could be a god-send at a position weakened by heavy graduation losses. MIKE YOUNGQUIST, 6-2, 195, sr. let. from Salem, Ore. Switched from end third day of practice this fall. ENOCH JAMES, 5-10, 180, sr. let. from Los Angeles. Should be improved over a year ago.

RIGHT END

JERRY NEIL, 6-2, 205, jr. let. from Sacramento, Cal. A fine all-around player, with a chance to become one of OSU's best all-time ends. Extremely strong. FRED JONES, 5-10, 181, sr. let. from Oroville, Cal. A regular much of last season. Small, but quick and effective. Caught five passes for 87 yards. DOUG McDOUGAL, 6-4, 211, soph. from Wilson of Portland. Great prep record and good as freshman here. Needs move experience.

QUARTERBACK

TERRY BAKER, 6-3, 191, sr. let. from Jefferson of Portland. Likely the best college quarterback in America. All-Coast tailback as sophomore, all-coast QB as junior. One of great athletes in west coast history. Has gained 2703 yards running and passing in two seasons, holds 14 all-time Beaver individual records. Left-handed passer, great runner and fine ream leader. RICH BROOKS, 5-11, 172, sr. let. from Grass Valley, Cal. Fine defensive halfback, but also can get job done at QB when called upon. GORDON QUEEN, 6-1, 181, soph. from St. Mary's high of Berkeley, Cal. Led Rooks to impressive season last year and showed clearly he could be a great passer. Will improve fast as he gains experience.

LEFT HALF

LEROY WHITTLE, 6-1, 186, jr. let. from Berkeley, Cal. Probably fastest man on squad—once ran a :21-1 in the 220, his only attempt in track as a Beaver. Leading OSU rusher a year ago with 364 yards, a 4.5 average and three TD's. JOHN THOMAS, 6-2, jr. let. from Redlands, Cal. Big, strong runner who originally played end. Deceivingly fast, and tough to bring down. First-baseman on baseball team. DAN ESPALIN, 5-7, 168, soph. from Wilmington, Cal. Not greatly impressive during freshman season, but awfully good in spring drills. May, come fast.

RIGHT HALF

JIM SINYARD, 5-10, 168, jr. let. from Redding, Cal. A thirdstringer who saw quite a lot of service in 1961. Averaged 4.9 per carry and strong in punt returns and kickoff returns. Plenty quick. DAN SIEG, 5-9, 167, soph. from Medford. Good defensive player, and fine attitude. Sure to see lots of action. DICK JONES, 5-8, 166, jr. transfer from Bakersfield JC. Good quickness, but needs experience. Tough for his size.

FULLBACK

BRUCE WILLIAMS, 6-0, 196, jr. let. from Auburn, Cal. Carried for 332 yards as sophomore and won starting job then. Strong, bull-type runner who gets that extra yardage with determination. TIM ANKERSEN, 5-10, 178, sr. let. from Buena Park, Cal. One of best defensive linebackers on squad, also handles much of the placekicking chores. DICK RUHL, 6-1, 204, jr. from Heppner. Fine linebacker and blocker, a tough runner. Eager.

TERRY BAKER A Real All-American

A year ago, the magazine Sports Illustrated ran a color portrait on its cover of a young man referred to as "The Best Athlete In College."

Oregon State's Terry Baker has proved prior and since the magazine had the right man for its title. He possibly is America's No. 1 college football quarterback and appears destined to go down in history as perhaps the best the school ever has produced.

The story of Terry Baker begins with success and likely will end with success. An all-stater in football, basketball and baseball while at Jefferson high school, in addition to being an honor student, Terry decided on a Mechanical Engineering course at Oregon State University.

He was a unanimous all-coast halfback (tailback) in Coach Tommy Prothro's vaunted single-wing attack as a sophomore in 1960, running and passing his way to 1473 yards, still a school record. His 302 yards gained against Rose Bowl champion Washington that season is a feat not likely to be forgotten soon.

Then as a junior in 1961, Terry moved to quarterback where he again won all-coast first team honors as a t-formation football player. His yardage total read 1230 yards this time, leaving him a combined two-year total of 2703 yards. This is just 143 yards short of the OSU career mark held by Ken Carpenter, former Cleveland Browns star, and Carpenter had four varsity seasons to compile his record.

He was a regular starting guard on Oregon State's great 1962 basketball squad that won the Pacific Northwest NCAA championship with a 24-5 record. The Beavers lost to UCLA in the finals of the Western Regional NCAA tournament at Provo, and Baker won a spot on the all-star quint selected there.

If he had the necessary time it takes, Baker probably would be a star pitcher on the baseball team, for he was a great one in high school. Obviously, his scholastic and athletic activities make him a busy man. Even so, he was elected president of his social fraternity, Phi Delta Theta, as a junior and served in that capacity all of the past school year.

Back to football again, Terry Baker holds 14 all-time individual Oregon State University records—ranging from passing to total offense. He was named the state of Oregon's outstanding athlete of the year at the Hayward banquet in Portland, placing ahead of Oregon's Steve Barnett and Mel Renfro and OSU's hoop great, Mel Counts.

Oregon State offers Terry Baker as its all-America quarterback candidate for 1962, using the oft-used political term—"he stands on his record."

And the record will get better as he goes along.

"Voice of the OSU Beavers"

BOB BLACKBURN

The 1962 Oregon State University football network will have at least 30 stations, establishing it as the largest collegiate sports network in western America. Sponsors are the Union Oil Company of California over the full 30-stations and the Greater Portland Area Rambler Dealers over a special 7station network in the Portland area.

An added new network sponsor on all 30 stations is the Centennial Life Insurance Company of Oregon, who will sponsor a five-minute OSU Football Forecast immediately preceding all games. Play-by-play sportscaster is Bob Blackburn, 37-year old freelancer from Portland who has been broadcasting football and sports for 18 years. He has won the award "Sportscaster Of The Year" in the state of Oregon for all three years of its existence, in 1959, 1960 and 1961. This honor came through the Na-tional Sportswriters and Sportscasters association, by a vote of writers and 'casters in Oregon.

Blackburn has broadcast major college football and basketball on the Pacific Coast for 16 years, has been play-by-play announcer for the Portland Beavers in the Pacific Coast baseball league for 13 years. He also broadcasts Portland Buckaroos Ice Hockey games. Blackburn, as a free-lance sportscaster, is head of the Oregon State Sports Network, 9757 S. W. Arbor-crest Way, Portland.
