PREFACE

This is the fourth annual publication of the OSU Fact Book. Comments received from individuals both on and off campus have told us that it is a useful document and reference tool. Additionally, many people have said they appreciate the comprehensiveness of the material covered in the fact books and the graphic presentation of the information. Over the past four years we have integrated as many suggestions from our readers as possible, and we always welcome your comments.

Although we have found a need for an institutional fact book, fiscal constraints have made it necessary to reduce the cost of this publication. One measure we have taken is to reduce the total number of pages by eliminating pages that do not change dramatically from year to year. For example, the historical section has only minor updates and so will not be included in the 1992 Fact Book. Realizing that the excluded information will be of interest to some individuals, omitted pages have been updated and can be obtained from the Office of Budgets and Planning. The possibility of publishing this information in another format has been discussed, but no firm decision has been made. We want to satisfy the needs of as many customers as possible, but we also recognize that resources are scarce.

Fall of 1991 was the first fall term in which the new Banner Student Information System was used. We are excited about the possibilities the new system offers. However, as with any new software installation, there were a few minor technical difficulties that caused some problems with the data for fall term student information. Where applicable, these discrepancies have been noted.

If you have any comments about the OSU Fact Book or suggestions to improve its quality or our service to you, please contact me or any other member of the staff at 737-4121.

I. General Information

Mission of Oregon State University

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY serves the people of Oregon, the nation, and the world through education, research, and service.

Oregon State extends its programs throughout the world, and is committed to providing access and educational opportunities to minorities and to disabled and disadvantaged persons.

Oregon State has an inherent commitment to provide a comprehensive array of high-quality educational programs in the sciences, liberal arts, and selected professions. The University encourages students, both on and off campus, to develop an enriched awareness of themselves and their global environment.

Through research, Oregon State extends the frontiers of knowledge in the sciences, liberal arts, and in all aspects of natural, human, and economic resources. Oregon State contributes to the intellectual development and the economic and technological advancement of humankind.

As a Land Grant, Sea Grant, and Space Grant university, Oregon State has a special responsibility for education and research enabling the people of Oregon and the world to develop and utilize human, land, atmospheric, and oceanic resources. Unique programs of public service throughout Oregon supplement campus-based university teaching and research.

OUR VALUES AND GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Oregon State University is among the leading comprehensive teaching and research universities in the nation. Our mission as a land grant university is to serve the people of Oregon, the nation, and the world through education, research, and service. Through our dedicated teaching, through our pursuit of knowledge, and through our extended relationships to the broader society, we seek continually to improve our contributions to the general welfare.

Values

How we accomplish our mission is as important as the mission itself. The following values are fundamental to our success:

- People*—Our people - students, faculty, staff, and alumni - are our strength. They are the source of our creativity, they determine our reputation, and they provide our vitality.
- Respect*—All our people are important contributors. Respect, humanity, and integrity are required in our treatment of each other.
- Openness*—in the classrooms, laboratories, studios, and field stations, our efforts are open to challenge and debate.
- Truth and Truths*—We seek truths in our pursuit of knowledge. But we know that there is no such thing as "the truth." Understandings in the sciences, arts, and humanities change. We challenge dogma when we encounter it in our classrooms, in our laboratories and studios, and in our role of serving the broader society.

Guiding Principles

- o Students are our most important clients. The quality and completeness of their education is our top priority.
- o We have a responsibility to students, staff, and faculty to help them grow personally and professionally.
- o We have a responsibility to society to contribute to its social, aesthetic, and economic well-being.
- o Our social responsibility extends to offering informed criticism even when that criticism may not be well received. We maintain an internal environment that will nurture this important contribution.
- o Flexibility, change, and constant improvement are essential to our continued success.
- o In instruction, research, and service activities, we honor and impart principles of academic honesty, freedom, and integrity.
- o Diversity is a key to our success. Not only are our doors open to men and women alike without regard to race, ethnicity, personal belief, disability, or sexual preference, but we also have a moral obligation to open the doors wider for any groups that are under-represented or that have suffered from discrimination.

OSU Extension Service

The OSU Extension Service is the university's off-campus, informal education link with the people of Oregon. Extension Service programs help people solve problems and improve skills in the areas of agriculture, forestry, marine resources, energy, community development, home economics, and youth development (4-H).

Some 170 Extension Service faculty are located in 40 offices around the state, including at least one office in each Oregon county. Another 90 or so faculty are in nine OSU colleges where they work side-by-side with their laboratory and classroom colleagues. These professionals are the eyes and ears of the university, working closely with Oregonians in all walks of life. They listen to what Oregonians are saying, and provide feedback to the university for determining research needs.

OSU Extension Service has been a part of the university for more than 75 years. It was officially created in 1911 by action of the Oregon Legislature, and recognized nationally in 1914 with the Smith-Lever Act. Funding for Extension programs comes from federal, state, and county government, and from fees, grants and contracts.

The Oregon Agricultural Experiment Station

The Oregon Agricultural Experiment Station was organized July 1, 1888, in accordance with the Hatch Act of 1887. It now includes a central station at Corvallis and ten branch stations in the major crop and climate areas of Oregon, assuring that its research program is close to the people and the needs of Oregon agriculture.

The station is the principal agricultural research agency in the state. Its mission is to conduct research and demonstrations in the agricultural, biological, social, and environmental sciences that contribute to the economic and social welfare of Oregon.

The station conducts research in the following departments and colleges: Agricultural and Resource Economics, Agricultural Chemistry, Animal Sciences, Bioresource Engineering, Botany and Plant Pathology, Crop and Soil Science, Entomology, Fisheries and Wildlife, Food Science and Technology, Home Economics, Horticulture, Microbiology, Rangeland Resources, Statistics, and Veterinary Medicine. Research is supported in other units such as the Center for Gene Research and Biotechnology, the Environmental Health Sciences Center, and Western Rural Development Center.

Oregon State University Athletic Facts

- ▶ Oregon State's 15 sports are recognized at the Division I level of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).
- ▶ In 1915, OSU became a charter member of the Pacific Coast (Athletic) Conference, now the Pacific-10 Conference. The "Pac-10" added women's sports to its organization in 1986.
- ▶ Oregon State's cumulative grade point average for student-athletes in all sports is 2.80 and has exceeded the general student body grade point average in recent years.
- ▶ The work done in compliance and academic services within OSU athletics has provided a model by which the NCAA is establishing computer software to handle these facets of athletic administration.
- ▶ The NCAA has also recognized the research done jointly by the OSU School of Health and Human Performance and the Athletic Department's training staff with regards to drug testing and drug education programs. OSU was one of two schools in the country awarded a substantial grant to continue this work.
- ▶ Former baseball pitcher Knute Buehler (1983-84) of Roseburg, OR was the first student from Oregon State to study as a Rhodes Scholar. He went on to Oxford University. Crew lays claim to the only other OSU graduate to earn a Rhodes Scholarship--Wes Sand.
- ▶ OSU has one of the richest collegiate men's basketball traditions in the nation with the fifth winningest program of all-time amongst Division I teams. Two Basketball Hall of Fame coaches, Amory "Slats" Gill and Ralph Miller, have produced the vast majority of the more than 1,400 victories.
- ▶ OSU football tradition has more winning seasons than losing ones and now boasts an outstanding coach in Jerry Pettibone, dubbed the Best College Recruiter in America by Sports Illustrated in 1984. The football program has to its credit 20 former All-Americans and, in Terry Baker, a rare west coast Heisman Trophy winner and Sports Illustrated's 1962 Sportsman of the Year. He played for coach Tommy Prothro, who led the Beavers to three bowl games, two of them Rose Bowl appearances.
- ▶ The top five Women's gymnastics program drew over 16,000 fans at home during the 1990 NCAA Women's Gymnastics National Championships. The 1991 team led the nation for academics pacing all teams in all sports with a 3.61 accumulated grade point average.

Educational Opportunities Program Fall Term 1991

Oregon State University's Educational Opportunities Program (EOP) is designed to recruit to the university and assist in the retention of minority, disadvantaged, and disabled students who have traditionally been denied equal access to higher education. EOP serves those students who may or may not meet the current university admission requirements but are recognized as having the potential to successfully complete a college degree program.

The EOP recruits in Oregon communities which have concentrations of ethnic minority and non-traditional students. Recruited and referred students are assisted in gaining admission to the university. As a part of retention, students are provided information about available financial aid and given academic placement testing, access to developmental courses, tutoring, and counseling.

Two federally-funded programs are housed in the Educational Opportunities Program. The College Assistance Migrant Program (CAMP) recruits and supports students from migrant and seasonal farmworker families during their freshman year at college. In addition to the services provided by the EOP, CAMP students may be eligible for a summer orientation program and supplemental financial aid.

The Special Services Project (SSP) provides academic assistance to students from low-income backgrounds, or whose parents did not graduate from a college or university, or who have disabilities. Special Services provides counseling and tutoring for all program students and classroom accommodation for students with disabilities.

OSU Portland Center

The OSU Portland Center is the home for Oregon State University services in the Portland metropolitan area. In carrying out this role it provides services to both the public and to OSU faculty and staff.

For Oregon State's faculty and staff, the OSU Portland Center functions as a home base for their activities in the Portland area. Faculty are constantly visiting Portland to maintain OSU's close working relationships with the state's agricultural, forestry, and high-technology industries, and to strengthen its leadership in international trade and development. The OSU Portland Center serves as a home-away-from-home for such faculty, providing them with an office and rooms for meetings and small conferences.

For the public, the OSU Portland Center serves as an information center for prospective students and for citizens seeking Extension Service publications. It also provides a headquarter and activities center for OSU's 22,000 Portland-area alumni. The Center's meeting rooms support externally-focused activities of OSU's Alumni Association, Development Office, Beaver Club, and Continuing Higher Education specialists.

OSU Hatfield Marine Science Center

The Hatfield Marine Science Center the hub of Oregon State University's coastal research, teaching and marine extension activities. The public aquarium is a window to the ocean for over 400,000 visitors each year. Newport is home post for the National Science Foundation's 180-foot WECOMA, operated by the OSU College of Oceanography.

The Center houses marine-related research projects of Oregon State University, the Coastal Oregon Marine Experiment Station, the Coastal Oregon Productivity Enhancement Program, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, National Marine Fisheries Service, the Environmental Protection Agency, Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife, and other state and federal agencies.

The instructional program focuses on aquaculture and marine biological aspects of tidal, estuarine and nearshore marine environments. Extension work concentrates on programs of interest to the general public and to the coastal fishing industry. Much of the research and extension work of the OSU Sea Grant College Program is conducted at the Center.

OSU Foundation Highlights

Fiscal Year 1990-91

The OSU Foundation was incorporated as a nonprofit corporation on October 11, 1947. Its purpose is to meet the need for a legally sound, inclusive, charitable agency apart from -- but working in close coordination with -- the university.

The Foundation receives gifts of cash, securities, and real and personal property, as well as deferred gifts such as bequests, life insurance, and life income agreements, to support the university's many programs.

The Office of Development builds relationships with individuals, corporations, and foundations to encourage them to support the university with contributions of both time and financial resources. The staff works with the campus community to develop fund-raising programs to maximize private financial support for the university.

Significant Events of 1990-91

- The Foundation received the two largest gifts in its 44-year history; $4.8 million from alumni Martin and Lora Kelley to establish a fund which will benefit a variety of University programs and $2.7 million from alumna Barbara Knudson to create a life income agreement and endow a chair in family policy in the College of Home Economics.
- Gifts from corporations and foundations increased 15 percent.
- Gifts from non-alumni were up 38 percent.
- The average gift size rose to $950, up from $484.
- The Foundation received 15 gifts of real property this year. Twelve of the gifts were outright and three were in exchange for life income agreements.

Methodology

Faculty

Source of data - mid-fiscal year operational file. The individual records are identical to those used to generate the annual Academic Staff Statistic reports. All data is taken from the OSSHE Honeywell Personnel Database files which were downloaded in December, 1991.

Age - calculated by subtracting the birth date from December 31, 1991.

Degree groupings (as reported in OSBHE Financial Administration Standard Operating Manual) -

Doctorate: PHD, DED, DSC, MD, MD-PHD, DMD/DDS, DMD/DDS - MS, DMD/DDS - PHD, doctoral - other.

Master: MA, MS, MS-RN, master - other.

Baccalaureate: BA, BS, bachelor - other.

Other degree: certificate or diploma, no degree, unknown - other.

Salary rates - 12 month base annual salary rates have been converted to 9-month by dividing salary rate by 1.222222.

Tenured - those faculty holding indefinite tenure.

Years of service - calculated by subtracting the service anniversary date year from December 31, 1991.

Students

Course enrollment by class level - number of seniors includes post-baccalaureates. Undergraduate specials and graduate specials are excluded from graphs. A special student status is given to those students who are not planning to complete degree requirements or who do not meet regular admission requirements.

Class standings

Freshman	students with fewer than 45 hours of credit.
Sophomore	students with at least 45 hours of credit and fewer than 90 hours of credit.

▶ Post-baccalaureate Non-graduate	15 credit hours
▶ Master	12 credit hours
▶ Doctoral	9 credit hours
▶ Post-baccalaureate Graduate	12 credit hours
▶ Doctor of Veterinary Medicine	1 headcount = 1 FTE

OSU SEAL

The Oregon State University Seal was adopted by the State Agricultural College of Oregon Board of Regents on June 21, 1888. The seal is basically the same as the State of Oregon seal except that the legend which encircles the escutcheon, or shield, has been changed to "OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY...1868". In addition, the OSU seal uses a wreath of Oregon holly (Oregon grape) rather than the 33 stars used in the State of Oregon seal.

Originally, the seal was to be used to affix ownership and/or receipt of all official deeds, papers, and documents directed by the Board; and only in the presence of and signed by the President and Secretary of the Board of Regents (Article VIII, Board of Regents By-Laws).

The elements in common with the State of Oregon seal include the following:

- ▶ a central escutcheon that is divided by an ordinary, or ribbon, with the inscription "The Union";
- ▶ above the legend there are represented; mountains, the seashore, pine trees (forests), an elk with branching antlers, and a covered emigrant wagon being pulled westward by two oxen;
- ▶ the Pacific Ocean, with a British man-of-war departing signifying the departure of British influence in the region, an American merchant steamer arriving signifying the rise of American power and commerce, and the setting sun in the distant horizon (a westward view toward the Pacific Basin);
- ▶ below the ordinary there is a quartering with a sheaf of grain (wheat), a plow, and a pickax which represent Oregon's mining and agricultural resources;
- ▶ the crest is the American (Bald) Eagle.
