Covering The Beavers

The Oregon State Athletics Communications office appreciates your interest in the 2017 Oregon State baseball team. Please contact Assistant Director for Athletic Communications Hank Hager for any media needs concerning the Oregon State baseball team. He can be reached by email at hank.hager@oregonstate.edu or by calling the Oregon State at (541) 737-7472.

Postseason Guide

Please note that this postseason guide is being furnished for members of the media to provide information regarding the Oregon State baseball team and the postseason. Copies of the guide will be made available on osubeavers.com in addition to printed copies at the game site.

Game Notes

A set of Oregon State game notes will be made available to members of the media prior to each game. To be included on the Oregon State baseball e-mail list in order to receive the notes prior to the game, please contact Hank Hager. Notes will also be posted on the home of Oregon State Athletics, osubeavers.com.

Interviews

All coach and student-athlete interviews must be arranged through Hank Hager. On gamedays, head coach Pat Casey, his assistants and members of the team will be available shortly after the game's conclusion per the host site's regulations. Please note that during the postseason, interviews at the field prior to the game will not be permitted, with exception. Note that interview requests are not guaranteed due to player and team schedules. Please request any non post-game interviews at least 24 hours in advance.

DO NOT contact any players without the consent of Hank Hager. Player numbers will not be furnished to members of the media or general public.

Internet

The online home of Oregon State Athletics, osubeavers.com, is the place to go for all Oregon State baseball information, including a team roster and bios, schedule, live stats links, updated game notes and statistics.

Beavers In The Postseason

Oregon State has advanced to its sixth-ever NCAA Super Regional and will meet Vanderbilt, which won the Clemson Regional as the No. 2 seed. The Beavers are hosting their fifth Super Regional, and have won their previous four. All-time, Oregon State is 4-1 in NCAA Super Regionals.

Postseason History

Oregon State is in the midst of its 17th visit to the postseason since the program's first season in 1907. The Beavers carry a 54-33 (.621) postseason record into the Corvallis Super Regional, with the current head coach, Pat Casey, claiming 49 of those victories. Oregon State is 8-4 all-time in NCAA Super Regional games - all 12 have been played under Casey. OSU won Super Regional series against USC in 2005, Stanford in 2006, Michigan in 2007 and Kansas State in 2013. The lone Supers loss came in 2011 at Vanderbilt.

2011 Rematch

The Beavers and Commodores will be meeting in an NCAA Super Regional for the second time in six seasons. Vanderbilt advanced to the 2011 College World Series by winning both games between the two in Nashville that year. Vanderbilt owns the all-time series between the teams, 3-0, after also winning in Tempe, Ariz., in 2008.

Pac-12 Champions

Oregon State won the 2017 Pac-12 Championship, and in a big way. The Beavers set a conference record with 27 victories in league play, surpassing 1981 Arizona State's record of 26. Oregon State won all 10 of its conference series, sweeping seven. Entering 2018, the Beavers will have won 12 consecutive Pac-12 series dating back to 2016.

At Home

Oregon State dominated at home this season, ending the regular season as just one of two teams nationally with only one loss. Now at 29-1, the Beavers' lone loss was a 7-5 extra-innings decision to USC. Oregon State is batting .301 at Goss this season, while holding opponents to a .187 clip. The OSU staff has an earned run average of 1.85.

In Front Of Beaver Nation

Speaking of being dominant at home, the Beavers posted that 29-1 mark in front of a record season at Goss Stadium. Oregon State has totaled 93,619 in attendance, a new mark for a single season. The Beavers are averaging 3,228 fans per home date - 29 total, with a one-ticket doubleheader totaling 30 games. OSU enters the super regional having sold out 17 consecutive games.

That Staff

The Oregon State pitching staff has posted record numbers this season. The Beavers lead the nation with a miniscule 1.78 earned run average and 14 shutouts. Oregon State has held opponents two runs or less in 37 of the team's 56 games (66 percent). Naturally, OSU is 37-0 when that happens.

Casey To 1,000

Oregon State's Pat Casey became the 16th active Division-I head coach to reach 1,000 wins at four-year programs. He and the Beavers defeated Oregon, 5-4, on May 12 to not only send Casey to the historic win, but also to the team's third Pac-12 title in the last five seasons.

Streaks

The Beavers carry a 19-game win streak into the opening game of the Corvallis Super Regional. It is the longest active streak in the country, and tied for third overall. Oregon State, of course, holds the longest streak of the season, at 23 games, which was one shy of tying the Pac-12 Conference's record.

And Academics, Too

Oregon State had a school-record 16 players named to the Pac-12 All-Academic Team, including Jack Anderson, Max Engelbrekt and Jake Thompson, who were named First Team. Thompson went on to become the school's sixth Academic All-American when he was named a First Teamer on June 2.

All-Americans

As of this release, OSU has already seen three players named All-American: Luke Heimlich and Jake Thompson (First Team) by Collegiate Baseball, joined by Nick Madrigal (Third).

PAT CASEY

Head Coach • 23rd Year
841-444-5 (Oregon State)
1,012-558-6 (30 overall)
#5
George Fox, '90

Pat Casey, considered one of the top coaches in the country, is in his 23rd season at the helm of the Oregon State program in 2017.

One of the most influential sports figures in the state of Oregon and the Pacific Northwest, Casey has made Oregon State a national power.

- Oregon State set a Pac-12 record for the most wins ever in conference play, going 27-3. That surpassed the 1981 record previously held by Arizona State at 26 wins.

- Casey's squad was ranked as the consensus No. 1 team in the nation for 10 consecutive weeks to end the regular season. Oregon State began the year ranked in the top 10 and rose to No. 1 by at least one publication for 12 straight rankings. OSU is the only team to ever be ranked for 10 straight weeks or more in the 58-year history of the Collegiate Baseball rankings.

- He was named the 2017 Pac-12 Coach of the Year.

- The Beavers set a school record with 49 wins during the regular season in 2017. They later tied the school-record - matching the 2013 club - with 52 wins overall entering the NCAA Super Regional.

- Casey became the 16th active coach with 1,000 or more wins at four-year schools when he reached the milestone May 12 at Oregon. Not only did he reach the milestone that night, but the Beavers won their fifth conference crown since 2005.

- He has guided Oregon State to its sixth Super Regional all-time, with each coming since 2005.

- Casey is 841-444-5 in his 23 seasons at Oregon State, recording a .654 winning percentage.

- All-time, as a collegiate head coach, Casey's teams have gone 1,012-558-6 (.644). He went 171-114-1 (.600) in seven seasons at Division III George Fox.

- Casey's 841 wins at Oregon State ranks seventh all-time in Pac-12 Conference history.

- Since coming to Oregon State prior to the 1995 season, Casey's teams have advanced to the NCAA postseason 12 times, including a school-record seven straight appearances from 2009-2015.

- The Beavers became just the fifth program in NCAA history to win back-to-back NCAA titles when Oregon State defeated North Carolina in 2006 and 2007.

- In winning the 2006 title, Oregon State became the first "Northern" school to win an NCAA Championship in decades.

- Casey has been honored nationally multiple times, being named the National Coach of the Year in 2006 and 2007 and the Co-Coach of the Year in 2005.

- He was selected as the Pac-10's Coach of the Year in 2005, 2006 and 2011 and the Pac-12 Coach of the Year in 2013 and 2017.

- Prior to the 2010 season, Casey was named the top collegiate coach of the previous decade by Baseball America. The voting was done by fellow collegiate coaches. Oregon State was named the No. 2 program of the decade, just behind Texas.

- Also in 2010, he and his wife, Susan, were recipients of the Nell and John Wooden Coaching Achievement Award. The honor goes to a head coach and his spouse for their dedication to success on the field and in making an impact on the lives of their players.

- Oregon State players have been named an All-American a total of 24 times during his tenure, including a school-record four in 2006. Michael Conforto became the first Oregon State player to be named an All-American three times when earned the honor in 2012, 2013 and 2014.

- Three other players, Dallas Buck, Jonah Nickerson and Andrew Moore, have been named an All-American in two different seasons.

- Nineteen players who competed under Casey have made an appearance at the Major League level, including a school-record nine during the 2016 season. In 2016, the Beavers had nearly 30 former players compete at the professional level.

- Two former Beavers - Jacoby Ellsbury in 2007 and 2011 and Andrew Susac in 2014 - have won World Series titles. A third former Beaver, Michael Conforto, played in the 2015 series and became one of the youngest players to ever homer in the World Series. A little more than one year prior, Conforto had finished his Oregon State career as one of the top offensive players in school history.

- Oregon State players have been selected by MLB clubs in the draft a total of 105 times. Forty-two of those 105 selections have come in the top nine rounds (40 percent).

- Oregon State players have been named the Pac-10/12's Most Valuable Player six times, the Defensive Player of the Year four times, the Freshman of the Year three times and the Pitcher of the Year twice.

- Casey has guided Oregon State to the College World Series four times - 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2013. His clubs have gone 13-8 (.619).

- In the postseason, Oregon State is 49-21 (.700) under Casey. His 49 wins represent better than 90 percent of the Beavers' 54 all-time.

- In 2013, the Beavers set a school-record with 52 victories. Oregon State won its first of two consecutive Pac-12 titles, setting a conference record with 24 victories.

- Oregon State followed the 2013 season with a nearly as impressive 2014 campaign. The 2014 club won 45 games, and claimed the Pac-12 with a 23-7 record. The 47 conference victories in back-to-back seasons are easily a Pac-12 record.

- Since 2005, the first of a school-record 13 consecutive winning seasons, the Beavers have totaled 546 wins, the best mark in the conference. Oregon State has averaged 42 wins per season over that stretch, one of just two teams in the league to lay claim to that fact.

- In conference play, since 2005, the Beavers have won 254 games, or more than 19 per season. That easily leads the conference over that stretch.

- Casey has a winning record against all but two Pac-12 opponents.

- He is the winningest coach in Oregon State Athletics history. Casey surpassed Jack Riley on May 25, 2012 to earn that distinction.

- Oregon State has thrown four no-hitters since the 2007 season, while the rest of the league has totaled just two over that stretch. Drew Rasmussen became the first pitcher in conference history to throw a perfect game in a league game on March 21, 2015 versus Washington State. He was the first pitcher from the conference to throw a perfect game against any opponent in more than 40 years.

- Four years prior, Josh Osich no hit UCLA (April 30, 2011). He was the first pitcher to no hit a fellow conference school in nearly 20 seasons.

- In 2017, Oregon State saw a school-record 16 players named to the Pac-12 All-Academic Team. Jack Anderson, KJ Harrison and Jake Thompson were named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District 8 First Team. Thompson later went on to become the sixth player in school history to be named an Academic All-American.

Casey has not only developed talent on the field and in the classroom, but he's helped make Goss Stadium at Coleman Field into one of the finest ballparks in the nation.

• Prior to the 2017 season, Goss Stadium was named the 10th toughest park to play in for opposing teams. It earned the distinction in a vote by the nation's coaches.

• In 1999, Casey spearheaded the expansion of Goss Stadium from Coleman Field. The stadium saw increased seating, improved locker rooms and a full press box.

• In 2009, Casey again spearheaded a further expansion of Goss Stadium. The stadium saw additional seating added down the first and third base lines, as well as the Omaha Room, the team's classroom and a trophy room, celebrating the program's history.

• In 2015, thanks to a generous donation from Jacoby Ellsbury, the Jacoby Ellsbury Clubhouse was constructed down the third base line. It is considered one of the top clubhouses in the nation.

• The team's players also enjoy the use of the Bert and Shirly Babb Players Lounge, located next to the Jacoby Ellsbury Clubhouse.

• The 2013 Oregon State team set a school record with 52 victories, advancing to the College World Series after defeating Kansas State in the Corvallis Super Regional. The Beavers finished with a 2.28 earned run average that season, the second-lowest mark nationally.

• The 2007 club went 39-4 in non-conference games, including an incredible 11-1 record in the postseason. Oregon State trailed for just one inning in five games in Omaha. The Beavers won their last four games by at least six runs, the first team in CWS history to win four or more by at least six.

• The 2006 Beavers were the first team to ever face six elimination games. And Oregon State became the first team to win the World Series despite losing two games in Omaha - once before taking 2-of-3 from North Carolina to claim the crown. The 2006 club set what was then a school record with 50 victories.

• The 2005 Oregon State team won its first of two Pac-10 titles with a 19-5 record in league play. OSU won 46 games, a school record at the time. Casey won his first career postseason game that year, a 4-3 victory over Ohio State in the Corvallis Regional.

Casey came to OSU after seven seasons at George Fox College, a NAIA school in his hometown of Newberg, Ore. Under Casey, the Bruins went 171-113-1 (.602) overall and were 155-54-1 against NAIA competition; they won three District 2 titles, five Metro Valley Conference titles and two Cascade Conference titles.

During his time at George Fox, Casey was named Coach of the Year three times in District 2, four times in the Metro Valley Conference and twice in the Cascade Conference.

Casey earned his bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from George Fox in 1990. He played for the University of Portland from 1978-80 and was a first-team All-NorPac Conference outfielder his final two seasons. He was a second-team All-Region selection in 1980. He also lettered in basketball one season.

After being drafted in the 10th round by the San Diego Padres in 1980, Casey played seven professional seasons. He reached Class AAA with the Calgary Cannons in 1985-86 and the Portland Beavers in 1987.

After concluding his professional playing career, Casey took over George Fox's baseball program; while coaching the baseball team, he also played basketball for the Bruins while completing his degree.

Casey, 56, was born in McMinnville, Ore. He graduated in 1977 from Newberg High, where he starred in football, basketball and baseball.

He and his wife, Susan, have four children - Jonathan (29), Brett (28), Ellie (24) and Joseph (18).

PAT BAILEY

Associate Head Coach • 10th Year
Outfielders
#27
Idaho, '78

Oregon State associate head coach Pat Bailey is in his 10th season with the program in 2017.

Bailey joined the program as an assistant coach prior to the 2008 season, and has helped guide Oregon State to an NCAA postseason berth in seven of his nine seasons.

- Entering 2017, the Beavers averaged 39 wins per season during his tenure, and surpassed 40 four times, including a school-record 52 in 2013.
- Bailey, who oversees the team's outfielders, has seen six different players named All-Pac-12 First Team, including Michael Conforto, Dylan Davis and Jeff Hendrix, who were all honored at least twice during their careers.
- Conforto became the first Oregon State player to be named Pac-12 Player of the Year in back-to-back seasons, in 2013 and 2014. In 2012, his first season in Corvallis, Conforto was named the Pac-12's Freshman of the Year.
- Conforto was drafted in the first round of the 2014 MLB Draft and advanced to the New York Mets' MLB roster in his first full season in the pros. He also became one of the youngest players to hit a home run in a World Series game.
- Conforto, along with Hendrix, were named All-America during their tenure at Oregon State. Conforto was the first true freshman in Oregon State history to be named an All-American.
- In 2014, Conforto, Davis and Hendrix were all named to the Pac-12 First Team. No other team had its entire outfield named first team in more than a decade.
- Daniel Robertson played in Bailey's outfield as a senior transfer in 2008. He was drafted in the 33rd round of the draft that season and has since seen action at the MLB level with the Texas Rangers, Seattle Mariners and Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim.

Bailey came to Oregon State prior to the 2008 season after spending 12 seasons at George Fox, winning a Division III national title with the Bruins in 2004.

Bailey compiled a 353-158 record - and is the winningest coach in school history - and earned National Coach of the Year honors after that 2004 national title. He was an eight-time Northwest Conference Coach of the Year honoree.

During Bailey's tenure, the Bruins won or shared eight Northwest Conference titles. George Fox advanced to the NCAA tournament six times and to the NAIA playoffs twice before moving to the NCAA.

Bailey is the winningest baseball coach in the school's history.

In 2004, Bailey's team became the first George Fox squad in any sport to win an NCAA national championship. The Bruins went 40-10 overall, setting a new single-season record for wins and tying the record for best winning percentage at .800.

After tying for the 2004 NWC title, George Fox earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. The Bruins swept through four games at the NCAA West Regional in Orange, Calif., and then posted a 5-1 record at the Division III World Series in Appleton, Wis., beating Eastern Connecticut State 6-3 in the championship game.

Seven of Bailey's George Fox players signed professional contracts, including five members of the national championship team. His players earned 10 All-America honors and four Academic All-America honors.

Bailey earned his business education degree from the University of Idaho in 1978 and his master of education degree in educational administration from Oregon in 1983. Bailey earned two letters in baseball at Idaho and was the team captain.

Bailey graduated in 1974 from Moscow (Idaho) High School, where he played football, basketball and baseball, being named the baseball team's Most Valuable Player.

Bailey and his wife, Susan, have two children: son Alex, who played baseball for George Fox in 2003, and is married to Lucy; and daughter Ann, is married to Collin Schneider and they have two children, Adlai and Evey. They are the owners of the Tried and True Coffee Shop in Corvallis.

ANDY JENKINS

Assistant Coach • 5th Year

Infield/Catchers

#8

Oregon State, '12

Former Oregon State infielder Andy Jenkins is in his fifth season on the Oregon State as an assistant coach with the Beavers in 2017.

Jenkins spent two seasons at Oregon State under head coach Pat Casey, helping guide the Beavers to the 2005 College World Series. He played professional baseball for the Florida Marlins and Texas Rangers organizations before returning to Corvallis as an undergraduate assistant coach in 2012.

- Two Oregon State players under Jenkins' tutelage - Logan Ice and Nick Madrigal - earned major Pac-12 Conference honors in 2016. Ice was named the Defensive Player of the Year, while Madrigal was named the Freshman of the Year.

- Madrigal's selection gives the Beavers two consecutive Freshman of the Year honors as he joined KJ Harrison, who won it in 2015.

- Ice was named a finalist for the Johnny Bench Award in 2016. The honor is given annually to the nation's top collegiate catcher.

- Ice was charged with just one passed ball in 2016, and threw out nearly 45 percent of basestealers attempting against him.

- Oregon State's catchers have thrown out at least 50 percent of opposing basestealers in each of Jenkins' four seasons as an assistant coach. The Beavers are the only team in the Pac-12 Conference who have accomplished that feat.

- The Beavers have allowed only 91 stolen bases over that stretch, an average of less than 23 per season. They've thrown out 106 - an average of nearly 27 a season - for a 53.8 percentage.

- Oregon State's fielding percentage has been at .972 or better in each of Jenkins' four seasons. The 2014 Beavers finished with a school-record mark of .979, committing just 50 errors in 59 games.

- Since 2013, the Beavers have also turned 208 double plays, one of the top totals in the Pac-12.

- In the past three seasons, since 2014, OSU has committed just 10 passed balls. Ice, the team's starter during that stretch, was charged with only four.

- Ice, who was a second-round selection by Cleveland in the 2016 MLB Draft, ended his Oregon State career with a .996 fielding percentage and threw out 49-of-101 (48.5 percent) of opposing basestealers.

Jenkins lettered for the Beavers in 2004 and 2005, helping guide the team to its first visit to the College World Series in more than 50 years his junior season.

Jenkins, a native of Salem, Ore., was also the most prolific Beaver offensively during the team's postseason run. He batted .459 - leading the team by more than 100 points - and tallied two home runs, two doubles and 13 RBI while slugging .784.

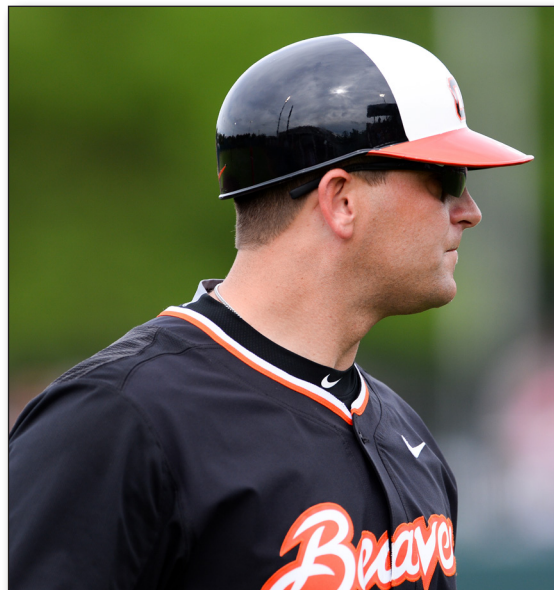

His .388 average as a senior in 2005 still stands as the ninth-best figure in team history. He also had 56 runs batted in that season, which led the club and stands as the 10th-best mark in a season in school history.

He ended his two-year Oregon State career having played in 98 games, batting .343 with 12 home runs, 15 doubles, 86 RBI and 41 walks while striking out just 44 in more than 340 at bats. His .343 career average is just shy of being in the top 10 for a career at Oregon State.

After his Oregon State career, Jenkins was selected in the 11th round of the 2005 MLB First-Year Player Draft by Florida. He played six seasons in the Minor Leagues with Florida and Texas, reaching the Triple-A level in 2009 and 2010. His six-year career saw him tally 2,341 plate appearances and he batted .268 with 32 home runs, 116 doubles, eight triples and 277 RBI.

Jenkins came to Oregon State after a two-year career at Mt. Hood Community College where he batted .358 as a sophomore, and as a freshman, was named first-team all-league at catcher.

Jenkins graduated from Oregon State with a degree in psychology in 2012. He is a native of Salem, Ore., and married the former Jessica McGee in January 2013. The couple has a newborn, Blakely Drew Jenkins.

NATE YESKIE

Assistant Coach • 9th Year

Pitchers

#21

UNLV, '03

Nate Yeskie, one of the most respected pitching coaches in the nation, is in his ninth season with the program in 2017.

Yeskie has presided over and guided a pitching staff that has been one of the most dominant in the Pac-12 Conference and nationally since he joined the Oregon State program in 2009.

- The Beavers have finished with two sub-3.00 earned run averages during his tenure, including a school-record 2.28 mark in 2013. OSU followed that up with a 2.29 ERA in 2014.
- In seven of his previous eight seasons, the Beavers have finished with sub-4.00 ERAs.
- Six pitchers have been named All-Americans during his tenure, including five since the 2013 season. Most recently, in 2016, Bryce Fehmel became the second true freshman pitcher in OSU history to be named an All-American.
- Oregon State pitchers have been named Freshman All-Americans seven times, including Fehmel in 2016.
- The Beavers have tossed 57 shutouts since 2009, an average of more than six per season. It took Oregon State nearly 19 seasons to tally 57 before Yeskie arrived in 2009.
- He was named to the nation's top pitching coach by Collegiate Baseball after the 2013 season. His staff posted a 2.28 ERA and 12 shutouts in helping the Beavers to a school-record 52 wins and a berth in the College World Series.
- Oregon State's pitchers have been drafted a total of 25 times during his tenure, with 14 coming in the top nine rounds.
- Two of those drafted, Matt Boyd and Josh Osich, pitched at the Major League level in 2016. Six others have appeared at the Triple-A level during their professional careers.
- Oregon State has appeared in the postseason in seven of his eight seasons as pitching coach.
- Yeskie mentored Ben Wetzler, who finished with a 0.78 ERA in 2014, the third-lowest mark in the modern era of the Pac-12. That season, Wetzler and the Beavers threw a school-record 15 shutouts, which also led the nation.
- In 2014, Jace Fry also threw a no-hitter for the Beavers, one of three under Yeskie. Most recently, in 2015, Drew Rasmussen threw the first perfect game in Oregon State's history, defeating Washington State. In 2010, Josh Osich out-dueled fellow future Major Leaguer Trevor Bauer in a no-hitter at UCLA.
- Andrew Moore was a second-round selection by the Seattle Mariners in the 2015 MLB Draft. In 2016, after advancing to Double-A, he was named the Mariners' Minor League Pitcher of the Year.
- Oregon State shut out UCLA to end the 2016 season, the first time in school history the Beavers shut out the same team in three consecutive games.
- Four pitchers have pitched for Team USA during his tenure: Moore, Rasmussen, Boyd and Dan Child.

Yeskie served as the pitching coach at his alma mater, UNLV, from 2005 to 2007. During his tenure with the Runnin' Rebels, Yeskie mentored eight players who earned either an All-Conference or All-Tournament Team selection.

Prior to returning to UNLV as a coach, Yeskie spent five seasons in the Minnesota Twins Minor League system, reaching as high as Double-A New Britain. He finished with a 27-24 record and 4.91 earned run average over the five seasons. Yeskie went 11-7 with Fort Wayne of the Midwest League in 1997, recording 111 strikeouts in 165 1/3 innings of work. In 2000, his last season, the La Crosse, Wis., native went 4-1 in 21 appearances.

During his time in professional baseball, Yeskie worked with MLB veterans Bert Blyleven, Mel Stottlemyre, Jr., and former pitching coach Billy Connors, who once held the position of Director of Player Personnel with the New York Yankees.

Yeskie came to the Twins organization after being drafted in the ninth round of the 1996 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Minnesota selected the right-hander after he finished his UNLV career with a 22-12 mark, including 16 complete games.

A three-year letterwinner, his 147 strikeouts in 1995 still stand as UNLV's single-season record. The mark was also fifth-best nationally that season, and coupled with his nine complete games – which led the Big West Conference – earned him First-Team All-Big West and First-Team All-Region honors.

Yeskie married the former Brittney Belshe, a former Oregon State volleyball player, in January 2012. The couple resides in Corvallis, and have a daughter, AJ.

TYLER GRAHAM

Director of Player Dev.

Tyler Graham, an Oregon State alum and former Major League outfielder, is in his first year as director of player development after two seasons as an undergraduate assistant coach.

Graham, a nine-year veteran in professional baseball, made his MLB debut with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2012. He played in 10 games for the Diamondbacks that season.

Graham finished his professional career with 267 stolen bases and a .272 average with 22 home runs and 218 runs batted in.

He lettered for Oregon State from 2003-06, and helped guide the Beavers to a national championship his senior season. OSU also won back-to-back Pac-10 titles, in 2005 and 2006.

Graham played in 151 games for the Beavers, and batted .317 with 10 doubles, two triples, one home run and 51 RBI. He also swiped 39 bases, which ranks him tied for ninth in Oregon State history.

Graham, a native of Great Falls, Mont., was selected in the 19th round of the 2006 MLB Draft by the San Francisco Giants after his career at OSU, where he was named all-conference honorable mention in 2005.

KAVIN KEYES

Undergraduate Asst.

Kavin Keyes, who played four seasons under head coach Pat Casey at Oregon State, is in his first season as an undergraduate assistant coach with the Beavers.

A native of Sandy, Utah, Keyes came to Oregon State prior to the 2011 season and played in 216 career games, starting 194. An infielder, he batted .293 during his career, collecting 37 doubles, six triples, four home runs and 23 runs batted in.

In 2013, his junior season, he batted .316 with 12 doubles and helped Oregon State to its fifth ever College World Series. In 2014, his final season in Corvallis, he batted .329 with 23 RBI.

Keyes was named All-Pac-10 First Team in 2011 after batting .302 as a freshman. He was also named a Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American.

He was selected in the 39th round of the 2014 MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Seattle Mariners.

RON NORTHCUTT

Director of Operations
12th Year

Ron Northcutt is in his 12th season as Director of Baseball Operations and 16th overall with the Oregon State baseball program. Prior to his tenure as Director of Baseball Operations, Northcutt served as a pitching coach for four seasons.

As Director of Operations, Northcutt plays a large role in the team's travel, camp operations and any day-to-day needs of the Oregon State baseball team.

Northcutt came to Oregon State in 1994 and served as the team's pitching coach through the 1998 season. While overseeing the staff, his pitchers led the Pac-10 North Division in earned run average in 1996 and 1997. While with OSU, Northcutt tutored Mark Newell, who was a third-team All-American selection by Baseball America in 1997, as well as Andrew Checketts, who earned NCBWA All-America second team honors in 1998. From 1995, Northcutt's first season with the Beavers, through 1998, the Beavers saw six pitchers earned All-Pac-10 Northern Division honors.

Additionally, eight pitchers were selected by Major League clubs in the First-Year Player Draft during Northcutt's tenure.

Prior to coming to Corvallis, Northcutt served as an assistant coach under Pat Casey at George Fox. He began his coaching career as a freshman coach and varsity assistant at his alma mater, Newberg High, in Newberg, Ore.

After playing at Newberg, Northcutt went on to play for Clackamas Community College, where he earned all-league honors, and the University of Portland. A native of Los Gatos, Calif., Northcutt and his wife, Linnea, have two sons, Ben, 23, and Jack, 20.

RYAN ORTIZ

Undergraduate Asst.

Former Oregon State backstop Ryan Ortiz returns to Corvallis in 2017 for his first season as an undergraduate assistant coach with the Beavers.

Ortiz comes back to Corvallis after spending seven seasons in the Oakland Athletics and Cleveland Indians organizations, where he played at the Triple-A level in both 2013 and 2014.

Ortiz, a native of San Pedro, Calif., lettered at Oregon State from 2007-09. With the Beavers, he played in 115 games, starting 103, where he batted .348 with 33 doubles, two triples, 10 home runs and 100 runs batted in. He also amassed 68 walks to 65 strikeouts.

He was an all-Pac-10 selection in both 2008 and 2009 before being selected in the sixth round of the 2009 MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Athletics. Ortiz was the first OSU player taken by Oakland in nearly 30 seasons.

Ortiz came to Oregon State from San Diego's St. Augustine High School. In 2009, he was named a second-team Pac-10 All-Academic selection, a year after being named honorable mention.

ANDY PETERSON

Undergraduate Asst.

Former Oregon State infielder Andy Peterson is in his second season as an undergraduate assistant coach.

Peterson was a two-year letterwinner for the Beavers, after which he was selected by the Seattle Mariners in the 2014 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

In two years with the Beavers, he played in and started 119 games, batting .289 with 13 doubles and 42 runs batted in. He was known well for his ability to bunt, tallying 36 singles in that manner while finishing with 37 sacrifice bunts.

The second baseman was a Pac-12 Honorable Mention selection as a junior and was named to the 2013 Corvallis Regional All-Tournament Team.

Peterson came to Oregon State from Santa Ana Junior College; he batted .426 with 10 doubles and 25 RBI as a junior.

A native of La Palma, Calif., he lettered four years for Kennedy High School where he was named all-league his junior and senior years. He also lettered two years as a quarterback.

2013 CWS Participants Beavers Return To Omaha

The Oregon State baseball team returned to Omaha in 2013 after a five-year hiatus from the College World Series. The Beavers made the trip on the strength of an incredibly strong pitching staff and a balanced offense.

Much like past seasons, the Beavers relied heavily on a Northwest flavor with its roster. Twenty players on the team's 35-man roster hailed from either Washington or Oregon, including all three of the team's weekend starters, Matt Boyd, Ben Wetzler and Andrew Moore.

The Beavers broke the school record for victories with 52, won the Pac-12 Conference with a 24-6 record and advanced to the World Series after hosting both the Corvallis Regional and Corvallis Super Regional.

- Oregon State played its first ever games at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, going 2-2. The two victories gave the Beavers 13 all-time wins in Omaha, with each belonging to head coach Pat Casey.

- Oregon State batted .290 during the postseason and finished with a 3.00 earned run average. Kavin Keyes paced OSU with a .357 batting average and Michael Conforto set the OSU single postseason record with six doubles. Ben Wetzler was stellar for the Beavers on the mound, posting a 3-0 record and 2.74 ERA. He, Matt Boyd and Andrew Moore combined to pitch in 76 of the team's 90 postseason innings (84.4 percent) and tallied a 6-2 record.

- Matt Boyd recorded the Beavers' first-ever complete-game effort at the College World Series in his last collegiate appearance when he shut out Indiana in a 1-0 win over June 19. It was just the 18th all-time 1-0 game at the College World Series, and the first since 1985.

- Oregon State's 52 victories surpassed the 2006 club's school-record 50-win season. The Beavers' 2013 winning percentage of .800 was the best mark in modern OSU history and led the Pac-12 Conference. The 52 wins is also the most by a Pac-12 school since Arizona State won 52 in 2010.

- The Beavers stretched their program record postseason appearances to five and in eight of the last nine seasons. Oregon State has made four NCAA College World Series appearances during that stretch.

- Oregon State won its third league title under head coach Pat Casey and did so with a 24-6 record. The 24 wins is the most by a league team since the then-Pac-10 unified prior to the 1999 season. The 24 wins is the most since USC won the Pac-10 South in 1996.

- Michael Conforto was named the Pac-12's Player of the Year and Andrew Moore earned Freshman of the Year honors. Both were also named All-Americans, as was Matt Boyd, giving the Beavers three in a year for just the second time in school history (the first coming in 2006).

- Moore was named a first-team All-American, becoming the first true freshman in OSU history to pick up the honor. Conforto, meanwhile, became just the fifth player in school history to record back-to-back All-American seasons.

- The Beavers lost consecutive games just once, in a doubleheader against Washington on April 20. Oregon State opened the year with 15 consecutive wins, and later had a 12-game win streak that began the day after the doubleheader loss. Oregon State headed into the postseason with 16 wins in its last 18 games.

- OSU finished with the nation's second-lowest ERA at 2.28, which also led the Pac-12 and set a new school record for best ERA. The Beavers also led the Pac-12 with a .217 batting average against and were second in fewest hits allowed at 454 and fifth in fewest walks allowed at 173, just 15 behind the Pac-12's leader.

- Oregon State found itself in the top 10 every weekend according to Baseball America. The Beavers were outside the top 10 just twice according to the other four major polls.

2007 National Champions Beavers Go Back-To-Back

The 2007 season was a special year for the Oregon State baseball team. The Beavers became just the fifth NCAA team to win back-to-back titles, and did so on the heels of their third consecutive trip to the College World Series in Omaha.

Oregon State was led by two of the most recognizable players in school history in Mitch Canham and Darwin Barney. OSU was buoyed on the mound by Mike Stutes, who ended the season with 12 victories - three came in the postseason, including two in the College World Series. The Beavers were blessed with a cast of players that included Joe Paterson, Daniel Turpen, Eddie Kunz, Jordan Lennerton, John Wallace, Joey Wong and others, who truly embraced the team concept and helped deliver spectacular performances throughout the College World Series and the postseason.

The Beavers swept through the postseason, going 11-1 en route to their second straight national championship.

- Oregon State trailed for just one inning during the College World Series, which consisted of a little less than 45 full innings for the Beavers. North Carolina held a 1-0 lead after one inning in the final game, but the Beavers answered back with three runs in the second to help boost them to the 9-3 win.

- Oregon State became the first team ever to win four straight CWS games by at least six runs. The Beavers' closest victory came in their first game, a 3-2 victory over Cal State Fullerton.

- Oregon State became just the sixth NCAA team to sweep its way through the College World Series. And OSU was the back-to-back title holder since the NCAA went to a best-of-three championship series.

- Jorge Reyes was named the College World Series Most Outstanding Player. Reyes went 2-0 at the World Series, defeating Cal State Fullerton and North Carolina.

- Oregon State opened the postseason as the No. 3 seed at the Charlottesville Regional on the campus of the University of Virginia. By winning the College World Series, Oregon State became the first No. 3 seed to do so.

- The Beavers opened postseason play by defeating Rutgers, 5-1. They lost their next game in 13 innings to Virginia, 7-4, but then went on win their next 10 games, the final one coming in Omaha.

- Oregon State came from a 3-0 deficit in the final game of the Charlottesville Regional to advance to a Super Regional against Michigan. Against UVA, OSU scored four runs in the final two innings and held on through a Joe Paterson victory to advance.

- The Beavers one-hit Michigan in the first game of the Super Regional at Goss Stadium, and scored a run in the ninth for the win. OSU dominated the second game, 8-2, to advance to the College World Series.

- Oregon State pitchers posted an incredible 2.57 earned run average through the post-season. Opponents hit just .210 against them and collected only 83 hits in 112 innings.

- Oregon State returned to Parker Plaza on the OSU campus after returning from Omaha and celebrated the second title in front of an estimated crowd of 6,000.

- Fifteen players on the championship squad would end up being drafted by Major League clubs at some point during their tenure at Oregon State. Two more ended up signing contracts as undrafted free agents.

- OSU finished the season with 49 victories, one off tying the school record.

2006 National Champions OSU Wins Its First Title

Oregon State went to the 2006 College World Series in Omaha as veterans after the Beavers made their second all-time appearance at the CWS in 2005.

The Beavers returned a number of players who made the 2005 appearance, and who were bounced after two games. That left them hungry, knowing they wanted more. And in 2006, they did not disappoint as Oregon State went 6-2 over eight games in Omaha to claim its first national championship.

The Beavers dispatched of North Carolina in the national title series. Oregon State lost to the Tar Heels, 4-3, in the first game, and saw itself behind UNC, 5-0, after three-and-a-half innings, but the Beavers scored seven in the bottom of the fourth and forced a third game after an 11-7 victory. A North Carolina error in the eighth gave the Beavers a run, breaking a 2-2 tie in the deciding game, and ultimately, the victory.

That national championship victory made the Beavers the first NCAA title holder from the Pacific-10 Conference since USC in 1998.

- Oregon State became the first team from the Pacific Northwest to win the national title, and the first from the northern part of the country to win it in 40 years.

- The Beavers were the first team to ever face six elimination games at the College World Series. And OSU became the first national championship club to win despite losing two games in Omaha.

- Oregon State opened its trip in Omaha by losing to Miami, 11-1. By virtue of that loss, the Beavers became just the second team in the last 25 years to win the title after losing their first game.

- Right-handed starter Jonah Nickerson was named the Most Outstanding Player of the College World Series. He made three CWS appearances, throwing 21 2/3 innings, allowing just four runs (two earned), 12 hits and four walks. Nickerson struck out 19.

- Nickerson ended the postseason with a 4-0 record, winning at least one game in the NCAA Regional, NCAA Super Regional and College World Series. He threw 36 2/3 innings over five games and allowed just 20 hits to go along with 34 strikeouts and a 1.23 ERA.

- Nickerson paced the Oregon State pitching staff, which saw eight pitchers contribute in the postseason run. Only one pitcher had an ERA above 5.00, and the team combined to limit opponents to a .219 batting average.

- Offensively, the Beavers finished with a .302 average as a team through 13 postseason games. Tyler Graham paced the way for the Beavers with a .426 batting average while Bill Rowe was close behind with a .419 mark. His 18 runs batted in led the team.

- Oregon State opened the postseason by hosting an NCAA Regional and the Beavers outscored their opponents - Wright State, Kansas and Hawaii - by a combined 28-9 mark. Oregon State never trailed during regional play.

- The Beavers defeated Stanford, 4-3, to open Super Regional play at Goss in the next round, then shut out the Cardinal, 15-0, in the second game to advance to Omaha. The 15-run win marked the second-biggest in the school's postseason history and was just the second shutout ever thrown, at the time, by OSU pitchers in NCAA play.

- Oregon State advanced to the postseason by winning the Pac-10 title and was named a No. 1 seed at its own regional.

- The Beavers ended the 2006 season with 50 victories, a school-record. It eclipsed the previous record of 46 set in 2005.

2005 CWS Participants Beavers Begin 3-Year Run

Oregon State began its magical three-year run to Omaha in 2005, a year that saw the club make many firsts. The Beavers went to the College World Series for the first time in more than 50 years, win the Pacific-10 Conference for the first time and advance to an NCAA Super Regional for the first time.

They did so with a cast of players with an overwhelming Pacific Northwest flavor, including Oregon born Dallas Buck, Kevin Gunderson, Jonah Nickerson, Jacoby Ellsbury and Darwin Barney, among others. Of the 29 players on the roster born in either Oregon or Washington, 13 ended their tenure at Oregon State being drafted by Major League clubs at least once.

The Beavers played their last game in Omaha on June 20, which, at the time, was the latest on the calendar an Oregon State season had ever extended.

- Oregon State went 0-2 in Omaha, but the World Series capped off a magnificent season for the Beavers. Oregon State won its first Pac-10 title by going 19-5 during the regular season. The 19 wins mark a conference record for the Beavers, who won seven of their eight Pac-10 series.

- The Beavers won 46 games, a new single-season school record. It surpassed the previous record of 39 set in 1986.

- The Beavers lost consecutive games only twice; once during the regular season, to Stanford and Arizona, and then in Omaha to Tulane and Baylor.

- Oregon State won five of its six games leading up to the College World Series. The Beavers outscored St. John's and Ohio State, 34-7, in three games at the Corvallis Regional.

- The Beavers advanced to a Super Regional at Goss Stadium, and took 2-of-3 from USC, whom OSU had ended the Pac-10 regular season with. The Beavers advanced to the NCAA College World Series after scoring two runs in the seventh in the third game of the Super Regional.

- Oregon State lost both of its games in Omaha, but the team's pitching staff was stellar. The Beavers allowed just seven runs over two games at Rosenblatt Stadium.

- The Beavers batted .321 as a team through the eight postseason games, and were led by Andy Jenkins' .459 batting average, which stands as the single-best postseason for any Oregon State player.

- The team's pitching staff was anchored by Jonah Nickerson, who went 1-1 with a 2.11 earned run average. Nickerson ended his career with five postseason victories, four a year later, which ties Mike Stutes for most in an OSU career.

- The trip to the postseason was the first in 19 years for Oregon State, which had last appeared in an NCAA Regional in Stillwater, Okla., in 1986. At the time, the eight postseason games played in 2005 was a single-year record for the Beavers.

- Head coach Pat Casey won his first career postseason game on June 3 as the Beavers scored a run in both the eighth and ninth innings for a 4-3 come-from-behind victory over Ohio State.

- Oregon State defeated St. John's, 19-3, in the final game of the Corvallis Regional. The 16-run win still stands as the team's single-largest postseason victory.

- Jacoby Ellsbury, who in 2007 became the first former OSU player to win a MLB World Series, played in all eight games in the 2005 postseason and batted .351 with two doubles, a triple and five stolen bases.

- Thirteen players who played in the 2005 postseason won a title in 2006 with OSU.

1952 CWS Participants OSU Makes First CWS Trip

Oregon State made its first foray into an NCAA postseason in 1952, and the Beavers also advanced to the College World Series for the first time. Oregon State lost in two games in their inaugural trip to Omaha, but came away with a positive first experience at Omaha Stadium.

The Beavers opened the year by winning the Pacific Coast Conference title and then swept Fresno State in the Western Regional in Corvallis.

"The team of '52 was an exceptional collection of raw talent as I look back today," pitcher Alex Goedhard said years later. "I say raw talent because we had no specialty training. There were no coaches specializing in hitting, fielding, outfield or pitching. There were no physical training regimens for players targeting playing positions outside of daily routine practice. There was no or very little scouting of opposing teams and players."

- At the Western Regional, on June 7, the Beavers hosted Fresno State in front of a crowd of 4,600, the largest attendance figure to date at what is now Goss Stadium at Coleman Field.

- Oregon State began the season on a high note, winning its first seven games and nine of 10.

- The Beavers had just three losing streaks of two games, with the final one coming in Omaha. Oregon State did not lose consecutive games at home the entire season.

- The 27 victories posted by the Beavers in 1952 set a school single-season record. That record was not surpassed until the 1975 team won 28 games.

- Ralph Coleman was in the midst of his third stint with the team and had another 14 years before ending his illustrious career. Coleman's two victories in the postseason do not count toward his overall career record, but merely add to 561 victories, then a school record.

- Oregon State's appearance in Omaha was significant as it was only the sixth-ever College World Series held. The Beavers opened against Duke in just the second-ever meeting between the schools in any sport; the first was in the 1942 Rose Bowl.

- Oregon State used what is now an unusual mode of transportation to arrive in Omaha. The team traveled to Omaha by train on the Union Pacific streamliner City of Portland. The Beavers arrived just after 3 a.m. on a Wednesday.

- Oregon State was the fourth team of what is now known as the Pac-10 to advance to the College World Series. California, USC and Washington St. all advanced to Omaha before the Beavers' first trip in 1952.

- The games were played at what was then known as Omaha Stadium; it is now known as Rosenblatt Stadium. This marked the third year the CWS was held at Rosenblatt.

- Twenty-seven of the 34 players (79.4 percent) listed on the roster hailed from the state of Oregon.

- Oregon State won its first-ever Pacific Coast Conference Championship in 1952. The Beavers defeated USC in two games; winning game one, 12-10, and taking game two, 5-4, with both contests being played in Corvallis.

- Dwane Helbig became Oregon State's first All-American in 1952 when the American Baseball Coaches Association named him to the second team. He batted .418 with three home runs and 10 RBI in PCC Northern Division games.

- Bailey Brem and Jay Dean, who were both on the 1952 team, earned All-American honors in 1953 and 1954, respectively. Dean was an All-American in 1955 as well. He was OSU's first two-time All-American.

2017 NCAA Postseason • OSU Championship History

The 2017 NCAA Postseason will feature, as always, the nation's top 64 teams. Sixteen four-team regionals will be held June 2-5, followed by eight Super Regionals, featuring the top 16 teams remaining who advanced past the regionals. The 2017 College World Series will be played June 17-28 at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

The Pac-12 Conference holds the record with 27 World Series titles, followed by the Big 12 Conference at 10 and the Big Ten at six. A Pac-12 team has finished as national champions or runner-up in eight of the last 14 years. At least one Pac-12 player has been named to the All-College World Series team in all but one year since 1997.

In 2006 and 2007, the then-Pac-10 had 11 players named to the All-CWS Team, and each one was an Oregon State Beaver. In 2006, Jonah Nickerson was named the Most Outstanding Player after the Beavers captured their first national title. In 2007, Jorge Reyes claimed the honor as OSU won its second straight title.

Oregon State is one of just six schools nationally to win back-to-back national titles, and one of three from the Pac-12. USC won five straight titles from 1970-74. Stanford won two straight from 1987-88, followed nearly 20 years later by the Beavers. Texas won consecutive titles from 1949-1950 and LSU became the fourth club to accomplish the feat, doing so in 1996 and 1997. South Carolina is the most recent, winning championships in 2010 and 2011.

2017 NCAA Postseason Schedule

June 2-5: NCAA Regionals (campus sites)

June 9-12: NCAA Super Regionals (campus sites)

June 17-28: NCAA College World series (TD Ameritrade Park Omaha)

Note: Campus sites for the NCAA Regionals will be announced the day prior to the NCAA selection process. Super Regional sites will be announced the day after the regionals' completion.
