OSU HEAD TRACK COACH BERNY WAGNER

Now in his eighth season, Wagner joined the OSU staff in 1965, following outstanding prep and college coaching careers in California. He has made OSU a contender on the National track and field scene. During a three year period, OSU finished sixth, third and fifth in NCAA competition. Since Wagner took over at OSU, the Beavers have had 12 individuals win 18 All-American honors and 7 National championships. OSU men have taken more individual National collegiate championships in the past five years than have athletes at any other school. Willie Turner, Dick Fosbury, Jim Barkley, Steve DeAutremont, and Tom Woods have captured seven National titles.

The Beaver's dual meet record since Wagner joined the staff has been 41 wins in 57 dual meet contests. Never has he had a losing season at OSU. Eleven current members of the OSU track team were listed among the top 50 in the National and world-wide rankings at the end of 1972.

Wagner coached thirteen years in prep ranks at four California schools following graduation from Stanford, where he was a half-miler. He obtained his A.B. degree in 1948, and a year later his M.A. degree from Stanford. He moved to OSU after three years at College of San Mateo, where his teams won 29 of 31 dual meets and two conference championships. His first coaching job (1949-51) was at Wheatland, California, where he taught and coached all sports. He was basketball, cross country, and track coach at Lodi for three years and basketball and track coach at San Lorenzo for two years. In 1955 he became department head of boys' P.E. at San Mateo High, also coaching track and cross country. In 1962 he moved to College of San Mateo.

Wagner is a current member of the NCAA track and field rules committee and has held membership on the executive committee of the United States Cross Country Coaches Association and the National AAU Mens' Track and Field Committee. He was a visiting lecturer for the Mexican government in preparation of coaches and officials prior to the 1968 Olympics.

Wagner's list of publications includes articles on the High Jump, "Fosbury Flop" method of high jumping, Simple Isometrics, and Starting Techniques. He was a featured lecturer at the 1973 International Coaches Association Congress in Madrid, Spain.

A native of Fresno, California, Wagner attended high school in Sacramento and Palo Alto before entering Stanford. His college career was interrupted when he joined the Navy V-12 program in 1942. He was discharged in 1946 after seeing action in the Pacific and Japanese theaters. He and his wife Nancy have three children.

CHUCK McNEIL, Assistant Coach — McNeil, who originally joined the OSU Track staff in 1965, returns this season after spending a year on leave. He had a Fulbright Professorship to the University of Dar es Salaam, in Tanzania, and also served as a sports specialist to Uganda and Ghana part of the time. He will work mainly with Oregon State sprinters. One of his best known proteges was Willie Turner, NCAA 220 champion. McNeil is a 1959 graduate of San Jose State and received his master's degree in health and counseling and guidance from OSU in 1965. He served as assistant track coach at Bakersfield College (1960-61) and was head coach at South High in Bakersfield (1962-64). A graduate of Turlock High in 1951, McNeil spent three years in the Navy before entering Modesto Junior College and later San Jose State, where he was a member of the world's fastest 880 relay team his senior year. In addition to this track coaching duties, McNeil is an assistant professor of physical education at Oregon State. Born: 9-25-33. Wife: Beverly.

DAN ACKER, Assistant Coach — A former prep star at West Linn High School, graduating in 1967, Dan Acker, 29, handles OSU's long jumpers and triple jumpers while working on a master's degree in education. A former prep state high jump champion, Acker, 29, graduated from Lewis and Clark College in 1967. He held Northwest Conference high jump mark and participated three years in the NAIA nationals. In 1969 he entered the Army and helped coach Arnie Robinson among others at Ft. McArthur.

DENNIS PHILLIPS, Assistant Coach — Oregon State's pole vault coach is Dennis Phillips, former OSU star, national junior college record holder while at San Mateo Junior College and national indoor record holder at 17-3/4 in 1969. Phillips, 26, graduated from OSU in 1970 after following coach Wagner to OSU out of junior college. Last year he was an Olympic trials finalist and has a best of 17-1 to his credit. He is married.

TIM VOLLMER, Assistant Coach — Tim Vollmer, 26, is a former Oregon high school discus throw champion from Benson High in Portland. He is the school record holder at 204-2, placed eighth at the Summer Olympics in 1972 and was the top ranked discus thrower for 1973 in the nation at 218-5. He has the third best discus throw in the world at 221-1 (1971) and is finishing his studies after a two-year stint in the Army.

ROBBIN ROEDER, Assistant Coach — was number two on OSU's all-time list, with a best of 163-8 in the hammer throw. Roeder, 25, won the Canadian National title in 1971 with a 191-8 throw. He and his wife Judy, who is daughter of his Canadian coach, live in Corvallis.

LEN McLAUGHLIN, Assistant Coach — OSU's javelin and shot put coach is Len McLaughlin, 33, a graduate of St. Cloud State College. He coached nine years at Anoka High School and also worked with junior college athletes in the area. He was district department chairman of health and physical education while employed by the Anoka school district. McLaughlin, who also attended the University of Minnesota for two years, is married and the father of three young boys.
