Know Your Coaches

GENE TANSELLI — HEAD BASEBALL COACH

A native of Portland (Oregon), he attended high school at Jefferson, graduating in 1947. An all-American prep shortstop, Tanselli enrolled at Oregon State in the fall of 1947 and starred on the OSU varsity in 1949-50-51. He was team captain his final year and won all-Western Regional NCAA honors. Following graduation in 1951, he played pro baseball with the Portland Beavers and San Diego Padres of the Pacific Coast League, Tulsa of the Texas League and Salem Senators of the old Western International League. Later he coached at Franklin High two years (Portland) and at Clark Junior College in Vancouver, Washington, four years before returning to OSU as an assistant coach and member of the physical education department. He has been back at OSU since 1962, but became head baseball coach in time for the 1967 season, when his Beavers compiled a fine 25-13 mark. In 1968 the Beavers were 23-13-1 and in 1969 they were 17-20-1. Last year OSU was 19-15 and placed third in the PAC-8 playoffs. Tanselli succeeded retiring Ralph Coleman, who had coached at OSU for 36 seasons.

PAUL VALENTI — TENNIS

Valenti, in his first year as OSU tennis coach, is no stranger to Oregon State sports, having been a student and then serving 24 years as part of the basketball coaching staff, six of those years as head coach. He was a standout tennis player as a youth but concentrated on basketball as a collegiate player.

Valenti isn't native to Oregon, but the state is quick to claim him by adoption. He came to Corvallis as a freshman basketball star out of Larkspur, California, in the fall of 1938. With the exception of Navy service in World War II, he has been on the campus ever since. He led the freshmen to an undefeated season and then starred three years as a regular on the varsity.

After serving as basketball assistant coach for 18 years, Valenti stepped up to the head coaching chores when Slat Gill became athletic director in 1964. His six year total while head coach was 85-74 and included a Pacific-8 conference championship in 1966. That year he was named "Coach of the Year" for the West Coast, and was selected at the Hayward Banquet as the Slat Gill "Man of the Year".

In addition to his tennis coaching duties, Valenti is assistant to the athletic director.

KARL DRLICA — CREW

Drlica has been crew coach at Oregon State since 1950, although the sport is only in its third season as a major sport at OSU. Previously, crew was under the jurisdiction of the Recreation program. Drlica, a native of Juneau, Alaska, moved to Portland as a youth and attended Benson High School. He is a 1940 graduate of Oregon State and from 1946 through 1950 he held a civilian position with the U.S. military government in Japan. Since returning to OSU, Drlica has also received his Master's degree. Dividing his time between coaching OSU's crew team and teaching physical education classes in crew and other water related activities, Drlica is very active in promoting crew competition throughout Oregon.

JIM JARVIS — GOLF

Jarvis, one of Oregon State's greatest athletes, in his first year as golf coach. A three sport athlete in high school and college, Jarvis played basketball at Oregon State from 1963-1965 and and at the same time played baseball and some golf when he could find the time.

He excelled in all three and made the Helms Foundation All-American (basketball) team in his senior year, 1965. He was leading scorer in the Pacific-8 conference that season and also became the highest scoring guard in OSU history with 1,142 points over a career. He was All-Pacific Coast and All-Western Regional NCAA.

Jarvis was also a regular second baseman much of his baseball career and over his three years as a varsity player he hit .345. His senior year he was chosen as one of 10 outstanding seniors at Oregon State and as the outstanding senior athlete, winning the Buzz Randall Award. Following graduation, Jarvis played two years in the ABA pro basketball circuit.

He was an all-stater at Roseburg in his prep days and was one of the most sought after by colleges when he finished his prep career. His father, Curt, was head basketball coach at Roseburg at the time.

Jarvis is currently working on his master's degree in guidance and counseling and has helped with the basketball program, in addition to his golf duties.

OSU Baseball Profiles

JIM BEALL      Junior      5-9      160      21      R-R

A former prep star at Hillsboro, Beall comes from an OSU family. His father (Bob) played ice hockey at OSU in the late 1940's and an older brother (also Bob) graduated from OSU last year and is now with the Philadelphia Phillies farm club Reading, (PA). A younger brother plays baseball at Yale. Beall was a member of the State baseball champs from Hillsboro in 1966 and 1968 and he was on the 1967 state championship football team. He was all-league in football and honorable mention in basketball in addition to his baseball exploits. Co-captain as a senior in 1968 at Hillsboro. Hit .389 in semi-pro ball last summer and in two years of American Legion ball, hit over .300.

MEL CUCKOVICH      Freshman      6-1      165      18      R-R

Drafted by Cleveland last summer after finishing high school at Hiram Johnson. Also great prep football player but will concentrate on baseball in college. Led league in touchdowns as a quarterback and made All-Sacramento. Plays shortstop and third base. Voted Athlete of the Year and won baseball MVP award as a senior and most outstanding in football. Team captain in both sports. Two years ago led American Legion league while hitting .415. Played AL ball last summer at Ft. Sutter and hit .350 and led team in stolen bases with 20. Good friend of former Beaver Ken Forsch.

PAUL DOUPE      Senior      5-11      175      21      R-R

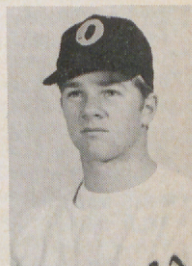

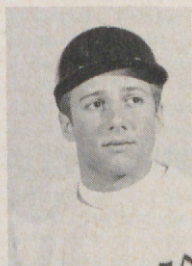

Came to OSU because of the fine Business School program after graduating from Inglewood High in Los Angeles. Played in the outfield as a prep star and participated in both Babe Ruth and Connie Mack baseball programs. As a senior, led Bay league in hitting, made All-South Bay team and was named high school team's MVP. He is in the Army ROTC program and hopes to go on to graduate school in marketing. Married to the former Karen Boone of Inglewood, CA.

BILL HIEGEL Sophomore 6-2 185 20 R-R

A junior college transfer from Foothill College, Hiegel has an excellent chance to take over the catching duties. A graduate of St. Francis High in Palo Alto, he made All-League three years and was drafted by Montreal after graduation. He was St. Francis' outstanding player as a junior and won the MVP award as a senior while hitting well over .300. Led his team in home runs and was second best hitter in his league as a senior. Played hree years of American Legion ball and in 1967, went to the California regionals. Last summer played semi-pro ball with the Palo Alto Oaks, hit .399 and made the All-Star team which toured Nicaragua, playing five games in six days on a 10 day tour.

DAVE HUMMEL Freshman 6-1 175 19 L-L

Outstanding baseball and basketball player from Klamath Falls. High school team finished second in Oregon when he was a junior and senior. Made All-State team and earned spot on State-Metro roster but missed game last summer because of illness. Won MVP award at Klamath High as a senior and hit over .350. Played three years of American Legion ball, including a second in the nation finish in 1968 and second in the regionals in 1969. Also lettered two years in basketball and made all-conference as a senior.

OSU's Longest Winning Streak

Back in 1951, en route to the Northern Division championship, Oregon State's baseball team compiled the longest winning streak in the school's baseball history.

The Beavers of that campaign won 18 straight, before finally losing to Washington State at Pullman, 7-3. Gene Tanselli, present head coach at OSU, was a star senior shortstop on that 1951 club.

Their record:

OSU 10	Linfield	9	OSU 12	Willamette	4
OSU 4	Linfield	3	OSU 8	Idaho	4
OSU 7	Portland	5	OSU 3	Idaho	2
OSU 10	Oregon	4	OSU 7	WSU	4
OSU 5	Vanport	1	OSU 11	WSU	10
OSU 2	Lewis & Clark	0	OSU 12	Washington	3
OSU 10	Lewis & Clark	2	OSU 5	Washington	2
OSU 16	Portland	2	OSU 20	Willamette	2
OSU 18	Oregon	8	OSU 15	Linfield	7

(and then came the loss to WSU)

Facts About Crew

Course lengths depend on the water available, but generally vary from 7/8 mile to three miles. The Olympic distance is 2,000 meters (just over 1¼ miles). The average eight-man shell travels at 11-14 miles per hour with the stroke varying between 28 and 44 per minute.

An eight-man shell weighs about 280 pounds and is 58-62 feet long, with a width of 24 inches. The average oar weighs 8.5 pounds, is 12 feet long and is made of spruce.

Coxswain of a heavyweight boat weighs between 105 and 135 pounds, while the oarsmen weight between 175 and 200 pounds and stand 6-0 to 6-6.
